KIRMESS IN FULL SWING

Three Days Carnival in Aid of Funds of City Free Library

Booths of Various Nations Form Brilliant Display- Exhibition Hall Crowded With Well Pleased Spectators

(From Thursday's, Dally.)

After many days of preparation and practice and after the expediture of an immense amount of energy by the good ladies in charge of the affair, Kirmess was formally declared open yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by mayor Gillett, and until 11 o'clock tomorrow evening, the carnival, so successfully inaugurated in the exhibition main building yesterday, will continue to attract large crowds of spectators. Kirmess is in aid of the public library fund, an undertaking that the whole community is deeply interested in, hence the entertainment at the exhibition hall should be loyally supported by every one. During the afternoon yesterday, excellent business was done at all the booths and by the time the fair was closed for the night the fair was closed for the night the fair day's day's the fair was closed for the night the management stated that the first day's receipts were very satisfactory and exceeded what had been expected.

A little after 8 o'clock last night, in the presence of a large and enthusiastic audience, the grand march, with over a hundred performers in fancy costumes took place. To the strains of the city band the performers filed in from the annex building in one long line two by two, and a charming spectacle they m.ds. The procession went down to the west and like the others is typically arranged and decorated. Maple sugar—the real article—and many home made products are end where a halt was made in front of end where a halt was made in Front of the stage. Then to the national airs of their respective nations, the various groups of performers passed up onto the stage in turn, made their bow and with-drew, giving the audience an excellent view of all the prettily arranged and artistically designed fancy costumes. The children's flower drill followed tette from "Floradora" performed by Mrs. Parry and Misses Clarice and Gladys Blakemore, Miss Skinner, Miss Hansen and Miss Nellie Annable, and Messrs. Arundel, Gillum, Walker, Johnatone, Cranfurd and Benedict.

The dancing of the performers was greatly admired and the number passed off beautifully amid rounds of applause.

After a song by Edgar Mason and more selections by the band, that most passed and continued and graceful and captivating of all dances, the French minuet was performed by Misses Marian, Flora and Greta Mac-donald and Annie Sturgeon, and Messrs. W. H. Swann, H. Gallon, B. Johnstone and E. Vigneux.

The dance is probably the most difficult one for amateurs to attempt but it was performed last evening in a way that drew hearty applause from the de-

The song and dance fairly made the hit of the evening. Those taking part were: Mrs. Melville Parry, the mayor to the stage front and Mr. Selous suggested "a few remarks from his worship." The mayor contented himself with formally declaring Kirmess duly opened, remarked on the public library ened, semarked on the public library all those who have labored so industriously for weeks past to produce the Kirmess that has fairly captivated Nelson, that the financial success of this arduous and exceedingly creditable undertaking has already been demonstrated beyond question. The management was able to say at the close of last evening's performance that the receipts from all sources for the first two days had far exceeded their most sanguine expectations, and there is yet to be added the money which will be received today.

this evening's performance and attention is especially directed to the program pub-lished elsewhere for this afternoon and Yesterday the attendance afternoon and evening was even larger than on the opening day, and the receipts including the sales at the various booths were correspondingly larger. In many instances the ladies sold out ther complete stock in several lines and were busily employed manufacturing further supplies for today's sale. At a conservative estimate over a thousand persons visited the building and grounds yesterday and last evening the building was crowded to the doors when the grand march began at $ o'clock and late comers were unable to get in until the march was over.

at the main building for the evening pro-duction in ever increasing numbers and by eight o'clock the galleries and every available spot on the floor was occupied

As the various nationalities came in turn upon the stage after the march was over, their reception by the audience was hearty in each case; Canada and Scotland, the latter headed by piper Gunn, were very warmly greeted, but it was to the Irish ladies that the crowd paid their chief homage, while the Japanese maidens, with their tripping little steps, pleased the fancy of the majority. It was a brave show, all of it, from start to finish, and made a spectacle to be remembered locally for all time.

After the children had gone very gracefully through their flower drill, finding much favor with the audience, there was a pause in the program whilst "ici on Parle Francais" was produced in the annex theatre with the following caste:

Mr. Spriggins, J. M. Eaves; major Regulus Rattan, F. D. Arundel; Victor Dubois, H. S. Bodmer; Mrs. Spriggins, Mrs. Colin Cummins; Anbelina, Miss Carlota Fernau; Mrs. Regulus Rattan, Miss Elena Fernau; Anna Maria, maid of all work, Fernau; Anna Maria, maid of all work, Miss Beatrice Skinner.

As on the previous night the theatre was jammed to the doors, many being unable to get in, and in consequence by special request last night's dramatic performance will be given this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The remainder of the stage program was then run off in fairly good time. There were selections from the band, songs by Miss Hanson in Swedish costume, Mr. Messellin and Mr. Crawford; and Mr. Arundel sang "By the Shores of the Mediterranean," ably assisted by a chorus in costume. The popular sextette from Floradora was splendidly rendered and an encore insisted on, the artists being Mrs. Melville Parry and the Misses B Skinner, C. Blakemore, N. Annable, I. Hanson, G. Blakemore and Messrs Arundel, Crawford, Gülium, Johnstone, Benedict and Walker.

the Boundary country, where unusual activity is evident.

For the first time this year the British Columbia Copper company does not appear in the shipping list or in the smelter receipts for the week, but this is owing entirely to the closing down of the company's smelter at Greenwood preparatory to greatly enlarging the plant, the work on which has already commenced and will be rushed to completion probably within the next three months, when the shipments for the balance of the year will easily more than make up for the present silent period. Development work at the company's mines is being continued vigorously meanwhile, and there will be no decrease in the payroll pending the improvements and enlargements.

Americans who are quite prepared to spend a large sum in thoroughly developing the several properties, and, if sufficient ore is discovered, to at once proceed with the erection of a smelter of their own. It is stated that the properties in question have great known ledges of ore and these are to be thoroughly tested at once by means of diamond drills. This proving satisfactory, the work of development will follow and later the building of the smelter. Competters will make large producers with adequate development, hence the importance of the deal to the district.

GOSSIP OF GRAND FORKS

In the Slocan-Kootenay output this, last week two new shippers appear, and the total shipments are a little higher than the previous week.

General manager Riondel, of the Canadian Metal company, whose head office is in this city, returned a week ago from Frank where he inspected the company's zinc smelter, which commenced operations on May 26, turning out the days, June 25 and 30, and July 7 and 14.

H. T. Rainbow of Kimberley was in the city last night on his way home from attending the W.F. of M.'s 14th convention in Denver, to which he was a delegate. Exnest Mills of Grand Forks was re-elected on the executive from B.C. and P. R. Macdonald, mayor of Rossland, was elected a delegate to attend the convention of the Industrial Workers of the World, of which the W.F. of M. is now the mining department, at Chicago next fall. The Denver convention was wholly in sympathy with Moyer, Haywood and Petibone, whose insocence of the crimes charged to them, they are fully persuaded. The convention which lasted 16 days, was harmonious throughout all its deliberations and proved a highly successful gathering.
