EXTRACT from a LETTER dated the 17th July 1869, from the Government
Emigration Agent at Quebec:—

“I now beg leave to inform you that the ‘Simoom,’ with 608 souls on board, equal to 482½ adults, arrived in port on the morning of the 9th instant. . . .

“I am pleased to be able to add that, from information recently forwarded to me by the Toronto Agent, but little difficulty seems to have been experienced in finding employment for them, and I have every reason to believe that there is a good prospect of their doing well.”
