"When you called upon Mr Roberts, what did he say?" was the question propounded to a voter before an election committee. Ere the man could open his mouth to reply, the question was objected to. For half an hour counsel argued the matter; then the room was cleared that the committee might consider the subject. After the lapse of another half hour the doors were opened, and the chairman announced that the question night be put. All sars were were opened, and the chairman announced that the question night be put. All sars were strained to catch the impending disclosure. But the mountain did not bring forth even a mouse. "What did Mr Robertssari" asked the counsel; and the witness replied, "He wasn't at home, sir, so I didn't see him." Everybody is delighted with the treatment they are receiving at the Li-Quor Ten Co. 254 Yonge st. X

Yesterday Mr. Gladstone received a letter signed by five hundred Protestants of Uister, affirming that a native parliament will conduce to prosperity, contentment and observance of the law in Ireland. So that United Ireland now pleads for justice and the right to govern its own local affairs. England has acknowledged this right, and Home Rule is inevitable. Let not Pharoah's heart be again hardened or his vision bilinded.

glasses per day!"

This answer was in reply to a question a This answer was in reply to a question as to how much beer the employes in the Miwaukee breweries consumed. The speaker was a gentleman engaged in office of an extensive brewing company.

"What is the average consumption per man?"

"A most remerkable case of identification is to hard in Toronto. A gentleman returning inome from business was refused admittance by his wife to his home. A simple explanation will show the reason. He had just donned a new summer suit, and it improved his general appearance so much that even his "own wife" didn't know him. Coulter & Gisson, the tailors, 249 Yonge street, surprise every one with their nobby suits.

"About one and one-fourth gallons, or forty glasses daily. As a rule our employes drink fifty one-quarter barrels a day
—nearly $100 worth. During warm days this number is increased to sixty quarters and more. Each man generally takes two glasses at one time, which would make the glasses at one time, which would make the number of visits to the bar about twenty during the day. Allowing three minutes only for each time he knocks off work there is one hour which he loses in this way. Some of the men have to walk half a block and further, and it often takes about five

In a Scott Act town the other day
A drummer made a break,
And to a bar-tender did say,
A whisky sour I'll take.
But after he had been sized up.
By the liquor-slinger slick,
He was refused the festive cup
In accents sharp and quick. Frank B. Crysler, DENTIST-While listening round, the drummer saw
A man elide to the bar,
And loudly call for "Ginger, raw,"
And "mix it up with tar."
Then quickly did the mixer make
A cocktail bright and clear,
Which down the man did quickly take
Whilst the traveler stood quite near. 278 Queen St. W. Consultation free. Fees

While waiting for the next surprise,
Two men walked to the railing.
"Til take some julep for the eyes,"
Says one, "You know how I am ailing."
The other glanced along the shelf,
And said without a smile,
"Tam not feeling well myself;
Just mix me up some 'ile,'"

A doctor and a lawyer arm and arm Into the place soon strolled,
E to talking of the weather warm,
Which at the time was cold,
The lawyer called for "Pepper red."
And asked the doctor his to name,
A little "Mercury" is good, he said,
But mix me up the same.

An i while the crowd did come and go,
And whisky, by the peck,
Over the bar did swiftly flow
Down many a thirsty neck,
The drummer gestly on the bar
A five-cent piece did finkle,
Ill taxe a little "bug nectar"
For he had struck the wrinkle,
