NEW YORK, January 11, 1919.

Mr. Mackenzie King,
The Rockefeller Foundation,
61 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

We are desirous of obtaining further information regarding profit-sharing plans now in existence with the industrial corporations of this country, and with this view in mind, we should greatly appreciate it if, at your convenience, you would send us any data which may be in your possession on this subject.

If the information which you have in hand is too voluminous to permit of transmission to us in the ordinary course, may we ask you to advise us, if possible, where we can obtain a digest or compilation of the same.

We shall be glad to pay any reasonable expense which it might be necessary to incur in this connection.

We thank you in advance for your courtesy in this matter, and remain

Yours very truly,

Goldman Sachs & Co.
