

some of the papers would be to anticipate funds which Parliament has not yet voted and it would be impossible to undertake the business of keeping the many accounts which would inevitably arise if such a practice was introduced.

In the event of these things the further being made by the Indians from their own resources in order, the better if the agents know of the transactions should be given to understand that the Department is in no way responsible for the debts contracted by Indians and that in view of the debts will be recognized