

PREFACE.

whose language you have imitated, it will be the strongest of all recommendations.

Your's respectfully,

SAMUEL L. MITCHELL.

Mr. G. J. Hunt.

Academy, New-York, July 8, 1817.

Sir,

I have examined the copy, and concur in the recommendation of the publication of your "Historical Reader, with the alterations and improvements, for the Use of Schools. I sincerely hope that your exertions may be crowned with success.

Your's respectfully,

Mr. G. J. Hunt.

J. W. PICKETTS.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE
CHAP. I.—President's Message—Causes of the War. &c.	5
CHAP. II.—Report of the Committee—Declaration of war.	13
CHAP. III.—Reception of the Declaration of War in Great Britain.	15
CHAP. IV.—John Henry—Elijah Parish.	19
CHAP. V.—American Army—Militia—Navy—British Navy—Roger's first cruise—capture of the Nautilus —removal of aliens beyond tide-water.	21
CHAP. VI.—Hull's expedition.	23
CHAP. VII.—Hull's trial and pardon—Capture of Michilimackinac.	25