ANOTHER GREAT GATHERING

sentative for West Kent few have now the temerity to doubt. His cause is a good and just one, the man is a worthy one and his victory is in the air. It speaks well for the people of this constituency that they are so heartly and so emphatically evidencing the trend of their senti-ment and their judgment.

It is never wise to be over-confident and we earnestly hope that no elector who is interested in the welfare, progress and good name of his Province will grow weary in welldoing. Yet a dispassionate summing up of the situation shows the development of exceptional strength in the people's cause. Another week will be simply a question of the size of the Clancy majority. And in so saying we are leaving aside altogether the fact that Mr. Clancy's election has been practically conceded by Hon. Mr. Evantural and the St. Thomas Journal.

Last night's magnificent and enthusiastic demonstration marked another milestone in the progress of the great Clancy landslide. The Grand Opera House was packed from pit to gallery and the enthusiasm was of a most whole souled and en-thusiastic character. The addresses of Dr. Hall, Herbert S. Clements, M. P., T. W. Crothers and E. F. Clarke, M. P., were warmly received, but the applause always reached its climax on the mention of James Clancy's name.

Mr. Clarke - "the People's Ned," so long and so ardently identified

That James Clancy will on Wed- how both in the Legislature and the nesday next be elected as the repre- Dominion Parliament the man who had always stood most staunchly and vigorously with him in his fight in the interests of the working man was James Clancy, of Kent. More than that, Mr. Clarke took occasion to predict that when Mr. Whitney formed his coming cabinet the popular and esteemed representative for West Kent would be the first man called. It meant much to the labor and agricultural interests to have > oring themselves and their constituency in electing this splendid man who is destined to become a prom-inent figure in the public history of our Province. Never in over 20 years of public life has even the finger of suspicion been raised against any public or private act of James Clancy; never has even a petition been preferred against any of his five clean elections; never has his sterling worth and integrity been even called in question by the bitterest political opponent. James Clancy as Minister of the Crown will be an honor to Kent and our people, apart altogether from the selfish material advantages which must accrue to us all from his election.

Still greater must be the satisfaction of the people in that selecting such a representative they also lead

It is with the greatest pleasure that the good people of West Kent are now looking forward to the emphatic vote of confidence in James
