"A woman's reasons"
for life insurance

Because: In the event of my husband's death my home could be maintained for an indefinite period by means of the proceeds of a Mutual Life Policy.

Because: To be compelled to manage my household and also to provide for it would be an impossible task—but it would be mine should I become a widow.

Because: The welfare of my children, apart from my own, demands life insurance protection—their prospects in life, without insurance, would be imperilled.

Because: There is no other friend of woman as dependable in the great crisis which removes her natural protector as life insurance. And there is no other company that offers more liberal policies or more secure protection than Canada's only mutual life insurance company—

Business Men and Business Farmers Agree

In the great McGill Building in Montreal, where men of big business meet daily, immense quantities of Natco hollow tile were used. On many prosperous Canadian farmsteads the same hard-burned clay tile is the favorite for silos and farm buildings. Business men and business farmers alike agree on the material that is weatherproof, decayproof, frostproof, verminproof and fireproof. Such is the

Natco Imperishable Silo
"The Silo that Lasts for Generations"

A perfect silage preserver, when the mercury is low, or summer pastures wither, its salt glazed hollow vitrified clay tile are impervious to air and moisture. It is safe under severest wind or silage pressure. Convenient attractive and economical. First cost is the only cost. Needs no repairs or painting, no adjustments. A silo you'll be proud of.

Plan now for such a silo. Send for our free book, "Natco on the Farm." Describes construction details of all types of farm buildings. Fully illustrated. A book you should have before planning a new building.

Also be sure to send for our catalog describing fully the Natco Imperishable Silo.

Makes Silo Walls Non-Permeable providing firm anchorage for mortar joints.
