A Budget of War Books

THE SECRETS OF THE GERMAN WAR OFFICE—by Dr. Armgard Karl Graves, secret agent. The real causes of the great war revealed by the Kaiser's spy. Dr. Graves, called by the London Times, "The Most Dangerous Spy of the Century," was for twelve years a successful secret agent in the Kaiser's service. With characteristic ruthlessness he exposes the details of secret missions that have had a startling influence upon the present war. He also reveals for the first time the sensational operations of the great German spy system. Postpaid $1.65.

GERMANY'S FIGHTING MACHINE.—By Ernest F. Henderson. Mr. Henderson is the author of a standard History of Germany and a biography of the great Field Marshal Blucher, has moved in German official circles for thirty years, made extensive study and research for a new history of the Fatherland, had access to official information and facts usually kept secret, knows the value and importance of facts and information, has gathered official photographs of every branch of the army and navy and air fleet, left Germany less than a week before war began, bringing official pictures, secret facts and confidential information, which together go to make the most authentic, important and reliable work on Germany's place in the great war. Postpaid $1.40.

GERMANY AND THE NEXT WAR—The most discussed work ever written—Promulgation of new national ethics, by General Von Bernhardi, of the German general army staff. There has never been a work so much discussed by serious thinkers the world over as this volume by General Von Bernhardi. Indeed, a close perusal of this remarkable book leaves the reader divided between indignation at the inhuman, cold-blooded doctrines so shamelessly promulgated, as illustrated today, in the most stupendous carnage the world has seen, and unbounded admiration for the brain power of the superman. Postpaid, cloth, 85 cents.

WHAT GERMANY WANTS—By Edmund Von Mach. A reply to Bernhardi and Pan-Germanism. A comprehensive and clear-cut statement of Germany's position up to and preceding the outbreak of the war. With these facts before him the reader can interpret correctly the diplomatic and military acts with which Germany opened hostilities. Postpaid $1.10.

GERMANY AND THE GERMANS—From an American point of view, by Price Collier. Contents: The Cradle of Modern Germany; Frederick the Great to Bismarck; The Indiscreet; German Political Parties and the Press; Berlin; "A Land of Damned Professors"; The Distaff Side; "Ohne Arme kein Deutschland"; German Problems; "From Envy, Hatred, and Malice." Conclusion. Postpaid $1.65.

ENGLAND AND THE ENGLISH—From an American point of view, by Price Collier. Postpaid $1.65.

THE MEN AROUND THE KAISER—By Frederic W. Wile, with portraits. To know the men behind Germany's War Machine you must read this book. Postpaid $1.10.

THE ANGLO-GERMAN PROBLEM—Dr. Chas. Sarolea is among those who foresaw the conflict, and his book makes particularly poignant reading now the thunderbolt has fallen. As a Belgian by birth, a Scottish professor by calling, and a cultured cosmopolitan by instinct, he is well adapted to the conflict, and his book makes particularly poignant reading now the thunderbolt has fallen. As a Belgian by birth, a Scottish professor by calling, and a cultured cosmopolitan by instinct, he is well adapted to the rivalry between Germany and Britain. Postpaid 75 cents.

HOW ARMIES FIGHT—By "Ubique." A popular reprint of "Modern Warfare." Profusely illustrated with pictures, maps and diagrams. Read this book—because it gives the best popular explanation of military operations it describes an imaginary campaign in Belgium almost identical with the one at present in progress; it enables the civilian to understand the war news from day to day; it is written by a well known officer of the Royal Engineers, and is, therefore, authoritative. Postpaid 35 cents.

THE MAINSPRINGS OF RUSSIA—By The Hon. Maurice Baring. Few living Englishmen know Russia so intimately as Mr. Baring, and he here tells the reader those things which they rarely learn from newspapers and pompous books of travel; he answers the questions which he has found are generally asked by the intelligent student of Russian affairs. To understand the part Russia is to play in this conflict, one cannot do better than read Mr. Baring's terse and lucid monograph. Read this book—because the chapter headings: Retrospect—The Russian Peasant—The Nobility—The Government Machine—Causes of Discontent—The Average Russian—The Liberal Professions—The Russian Church—Education—Justice—The Fascination of Russia. The reader who wishes to become acquainted with the Russia of today, quickly and pleasantly, could not do better than put himself or herself in the hands of this delightful and competent guide. Postpaid 75 cents.

FAMOUS MODERN BATTLES—By Captain Atteridge. Altho written by a military expert, the author's style is so lucid that the finer points of the tactics and strategy are clear as noonday to the ordinary reader. The battles include: Lule Burgas; Mukden; Paardeberg; Omdurman; Tel-el-Kebir; Rezonville and Gravelotte of 1870; Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. There are copious plans of each battle. Pocket edition with plans and frontispiece. Postpaid 35 cents.

GERMAN PLOT AGAINST ENGLAND—Such is the theme of "The Riddle of the Sands," a thrilling, but well written novel of mystery. The author (Mr. Erskine Childers) is an acknowledged authority on military matters, and his book created such a stir as to lead the War Office to investigate the feasibility of the plot. Two British Officers who were arrested recently when on secret service in Germany, were found with the book in their possession. It is illustrated with four charts of the Dutch and German coasts. The atmosphere of salt sea air and baffling mystery is unique. As an indication of the worldwide interest in the subject it may be mentioned that over 260,000 copies have been sold. Postpaid 25 cents.

IN ACTION—By F. Britten Austin. We read in the papers such items as "the enemy attacked in force, and pushed forward until close to our main defence," or that "a detachment of cavalry and light artillery was caught in an ambush and annihilated," but how many of us realize what modern warfare feels like to the man in the firing line? It is easy to harrow the public's feelings with stories of dismembered limbs and frightful wounds, but the actual conditions of a battle today are at the same time not so terrible, and yet more terrible than the civilians would suppose. Postpaid 75 cents.

THE BURDEN OF THE BALKANS—If you want to know how the trouble began Miss Edith Durham's book will tell you. She has lived many years in the Balkan States and during the Balkan War enjoyed the distinction of being the only woman acting as war correspondent. Postpaid 35 cents.

THE WAR IN THE AIR—By H. G. Wells! Almost the first incident of the war that we read of was the successful attack on a German Zeppelin by a French plane. Mr. Wells' famous romance is particularly appropriate reading at this moment, and to Canadians the fighting at Niagara for the electrical power station is of special interest. Postpaid 25 cents.

THE RED WALL—By Frank Savile. The scene of this new novel is the Panama Canal and an adjacent German colony, whence a plot is engineered to seize the Canal. The details of the intrigue are worked out with German thoroughness and the attempt is only frustrated by—no, that would be telling. The excitement never flags. Postpaid 75 cents.

WITH KITCHENER TO KHARTUM—By G. W. Stevens, who was perhaps the most brilliant of war correspondents, and his story of Earl Kitchener's Nile campaign has always been regarded as his masterpiece. The reader is carried from the first chapter to the last by a narrative swifter than any romance. So little is generally known of Earl Kitchener's personality—beyond his reticence and self-effacement—that his present heavy responsibilities lend an additional interest to this story of his earliest great achievement. Postpaid 35 cents.

THE PATH TO ROME—Hilaire Belloc. Illustrated. After serving in the French Artillery, Mr. Belloc made a pilgrimage from Fort St. Michael, near Toul, to Rome. His road lay past Epinal, Remiremont and Besancon, up the Valley of the Moselle, and he describes much of the Lorraine country. It is a thought provoking thing, this passing from one great garrison to another all the way down the frontier. Postpaid 35 cents.

NELSON'S ATLAS OF THE WAR—Just published. 34 pages of maps and plans. 26 pages of diagrams. Partial List of Contents: Maps of the Nations at War, Frontier Maps, North Sea, Mediterranean Sea, Trade Routes, Baltic Harbors, Naval Bases, Plans of Capitals, Kiel Canal, Colonial Maps, Statistical Information, Army Diagrams, Naval Diagrams, Historical Maps, Franco-German War, Poland, Dreadnoughts, Submarines, Torpedoes, Aeroplanes, etc. In fact everything you want. Postpaid 35 cents.

GERMANY AND THE GERMAN EMPEROR—By G. H. Perria. A remarkable book by the correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle. Postpaid $1.40.

WAR AND WASTE—By David Starr Jordan. Postpaid $1.35.

THE WORLD SET FREE—By H. G. Wells. Postpaid $1.50.

THE VANISHED MESSENGER—A novel of war time, by E. Phillips Oppenheim. Postpaid $1.50.

THE HUMAN SLAUGHTERHOUSE—By Wilhelm Lamazus. In this book the author, a German schoolmaster, shocked and startled every militarist nation of Europe. Postpaid 60 cents.

THE GREAT ILLUSION—By Norman Angel. This is the greatest work on international peace ever written. Postpaid $1.10.

UNSEEN EMPIRE—By David Starr Jordan. The crushing financial burden upon those nations that maintain huge armies is exposed in this book. Postpaid $1.25.

THE HUMAN HARVEST—By David Starr Jordan. A striking book, showing the effect of war upon the human race. Postpaid $1.10.

LIFE OF NAPOLEON—By J. G. Lockhart. Postpaid 35 cents.

LIFE OF NELSON—By Robert Southey. Postpaid 35 cents.

THE GREAT BOER WAR—By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Postpaid 35 cents.
