HORRIBLE MURDER IN MISSISSIPPI—THE MURDERER BURNED TO DEATH.
We copy the following horrid particulars from the Paulling (Miss) Clarion of the 1st inst.
"Since the time when the midnight murder of Dr. Longon and family sent a thrill of horror through this community, no event has created a deeper sorrow and more pervading indignation, than the assassination, on Tuesday last, of Mrs. Dixon wife of John Dixon, and her infant child, at her residence, in the neighborhood of William Bridges, Esq., by Haley, a negro man belonging to Mr. Zachariah Thompson. Having been summoned on the coroner's jury, we went in person to the scene of the horrible tragedy, saw the mutilated body of the murdered woman, the severed throat of her infant, and witnessed, without regret, the summary and terrible, but still inadequate, expiation of his triple and atrocious crime by the monster. The revolting facts are briefly these:—On Tuesday morning Mr. Dixon, unconscious of the awful doom impending over his family, started from home in quest of cattle. His little son, an artless child, a few months over two years old, started fondly after him, pursuing him some distance, unnoticed by the father, and undiscovered by the mother. Mrs. Dixon soon missed the boy, went after him, and called to him to return. She was then approached by the brutal villain, Haley, who at once offered such indignities as the virtue and pride of civilized woman resents and resists, even at the peril of life. She repelled the advances of the bestial monster yielding neither to threats nor disgusting importunities, when he fell her to the earth. An outrage too abhorrent to mention, was then perpetrated on the person of his victim, by the incarnate demon. Refl in a moment of her most precious jewel—forcibly despoiled of her purity, by the villain slave of her own father—the wretched lady doubtless felt that every thing valued in the world was lost; but she was not ready for eternity. She asked, at the hands of her friend, life—if she might prepare for her solitary remaining hope—a refuge for her crushed spirit in Heaven? But the ruffian heeded her not; he spurned the prayer of the wife injured beyond reparation, and beat her on the head with pine limbs, and stabbed her till she died. Bruised, mangled and defiled, lay the corpse of this lady, whom a husband had greeted gladly and unsuspecting a few hours before, presenting a spectacle too hideous, too repulsive with horrible memoirs, for an unweary eye. The infant was found about thirty steps from the mother, its throat cut twice, with long deep gashes. It is probable the little child was the last victim—and that the last aspiration of her unutterable agony fell appallingly upon his infant ear, before the cold knife of the monster assassin passed over the throat of the innocent creature. The attendance of the coroner was procured on Wednesday, and the jury, after a patient investigation, returned the following verdict:—"The said juror do upon their oaths say—that the said Mary Dixon came to her death from blows inflicted by a certain negro man named Haley, the property of Zachariah Thompson, of Jasper county; that is to say, her skull was fractured, and also her lower jaw and cheek bone on the left side; her neck was dislocated, and also her left shoulder; the little finger was broken on the right hand; her left ear was badly mutilated; she had also three cuts on her neck, supposed to be inflicted by a knife, one of them entering into the wind pipe, another the jugular vein, and the other a small cut on the left side of the neck. A large cut was also on the lower part of the breast bone. A cut was also on her left arm, and some scratches and marks of violence on the right thigh which indicated the purposes of the said slave Haley. CONSUMPTION can be and has been cured in thousands of cases by this only certain remedy, JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF
CHERRY AND LUNGWORT.
And no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly
CURE CONSUMPTION.
The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated, and the case so utterly hopeless as to have been pronounced by physicians and friends to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wonderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medicaments which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of
COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.
Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle, and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle.
OF INTEREST TO ALL.
To the Old and Young!—Ho! Ye Red Heads and Grey!!!—Phenomenon in Chemistry!!!!
EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.
COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.
This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person, male or female, with the least possible trouble, may keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin, will not color it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.
If these facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.
Dr. Spohn's Sick Headache Remedy.
Why will you suffer with that distressing complaint, when a remedy is at hand that will not fail to cure you? This remedy will effectually destroy any attack of headache, either nervous or bilious. It has cured cases of 20 years standing.
TO THE LADIES.
The Genuine Balm of Columbia for Restoring the Hair.
"Long hair is a glory to woman," says Paul, "And all feel the truth of the pious quotation; Preserve it then, ladies, your glory may fall, Unless you protect it with the preparation. If you wish a rich, luxuriant head of hair, free from dandruff and scurf, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness, it will more than exceed your expectations. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years, have had it restored to its original perfection by the use of this Balm. Age, state, or condition, appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also causes the hair to flow with which the delicate hair tubes are filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was as gray as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its natural color by this invaluable remedy. In all cases of fever, it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a perfume for the toilet it is unequalled. It holds three times as much as other miscellated hair restoratives, and is more effective.
Caution—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co., proprietors, on the wrapper of each bottle, or you are cheated with a counterfeit article.
