BIG OIL TANK

A large steel oil tank with a capacity of 200 barrels passed through this city. It was brought all the way from Sarnia. The tank is being moved on a wagon truck as it is too big to be taken on the railroad. Three teams were required to haul it. The teamsters left Sarnia Monday night and reached here last night. They stopped at the Klondyke Hotel and left for the Raleigh oil fields this morning at seven o'clock. The men have met with considerable trouble. The tank tipped off the truck twice at Wallaceburg and many times on the road between here and Sarnia.

CARRIE NATION.

SHE RIPS THINGS UP AT THE HORSE SHOW.

OBJECTS TO DRINKING AND THE WOMEN'S DRESS.

EJECTED FROM THE BUILDING BY THE POLICE.

New York, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Carrie Nation broke loose at the Horse Show yesterday. She harangued the multitude on the evils of overdrinking, attempted to break a bottle of champagne, and finally was ejected from the building by the police. Mrs. Nation entered the Garden quietly and took a seat in the tier. She had been there only a few minutes when her gaze rested on the box where some of the Vanderbilts were sitting. She studied her programme, and then descended to the promenade. Stationing herself in front of the Vanderbilt box she delivered a tirade on overdrinking. In the box were seated Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Reginald Vanderbilt and Miss Nielson. Alfred G. Vanderbilt was leaning against the rail of the promenade and did not see Mrs. Nation approach. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself," she woman screamed at them. "You ought to be ashamed to wear such disgraceful clothes. Take them off! Take them off at once, and attire yourself more modestly!"

Alfred G. Vanderbilt hastily left his position at the rail and came over to where Mrs. Nation was standing, wiping her forehead with a handkerchief. He whispered something in her ear and pushed her away.

The outburst of the woman attracted a great crowd of people, and the occupants of the Vanderbilt box were evidently much embarrassed. Mrs. Nation then turned her attention to other boxes. Finally she started for the cafe, where she bore down on a party of gentlemen who were drinking wine. Mrs. Nation seized the bottle, and glaring at the men, shouted: "Young men, don't drink such filthy stuff. You are going straight to perdition! Where is the man who sells this damnable stuff? Show him to me, and I will tell him what I think of him!"

Mrs. Nation's request was speedily granted by the sudden appearance of M. Willeguigue, the caterer at the Garden. "Get out of this horrible business," she shouted at him. "You are ruining the bodies and souls of men. You are dragging them down with you. Shame on you! Shame on you!"

The Frenchman, however, pounced on Mrs. Nation and rescued the bottle, which she had repeatedly brandished in the air to emphasize her remarks. The police forced her out of the building. As Mrs. Nation's skirts disappeared a couple of hundred men gathered in the lobby and sang "Good Morning, Carrie," and the crowd outside took up the refrain.

NEW PACIFIC CABLE.

HIGHLY SATISFACTORY RESULT OF THE TESTS.

Mr. Dearlove Formally Takes the Work Over From the Construction Company—Now on His Way to London.

Victoria, Nov. 21.—Mr. Dearlove, who has conducted the test of the Pacific cable at Bamfield Station, is here on his way to London. He has found the cable entirely satisfactory, and has formally taken it over for the Cable Board from the construction company. A speed of 110 telegrams a minute was obtained, which is 10 per cent. higher than was expected.

FORTY-EIGHT IN IRONS.

Men of a United States Gunboat Mutinied.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The U.S. gunboat Isla de Luzon is en route to New York with 48 of her men in irons. The vessel, which has been doing guard duty in the Philippines, started recently for New York, proceeding from Manila via Singapore. Advice received indicate that on the trip to Singapore some of the machinery worked badly, creating a panic among the crew and causing a mutiny. The result was the placing of 48 of her crew in irons.

FARMERS GIVE THEIR VIEWS OF RALEIGH OIL OPERATIONS

Are Content and Prosperous on Their Farms and Decline to Allow Oil Operators to Dig Holes All Over Them—Reservations in Canada Company Leases Were Secured Unfairly.

Special Planet Correspondence.

Scene of Operations, Raleigh, Nov. 21.—The farmers in Raleigh view all who come to their places with suspicion. They even dubbed The Planet representative an oil man. As soon, however, as they found it was a representative of this G. H. J. that they were entertaining, they changed their tone and chatted freely. The farmers are dubious about every stranger and the side-roads and concessions are full of them.

Some of the farmers are holding out and refusing to lease. Their idea is to sell outright and if oil is not found on their place buy the land back at its agricultural value.

Although the drillers would give no information as to the depth of the well, it was learned from other sources that Gurd's Gusher is about 315 feet deep.

E. D. Brookes, Thomesville, master driller, sunk the hole. Mr. Brookes has been in the oil drilling business for many years. He has put down wells at Thomesville, Bothwell and Northwood, and Gurd's Gusher is the best he has ever seen. It took about two weeks to put down the well. Mr. Brookes doesn't talk much, but that is part of a well driller's business. He helped drill the mineral well at Chatham, working for E. H. Chapman, the driller who put it in the pipe in the well. The opening in the well through which the oil gas and water comes is only a half-inch in diameter. Ernest Miller, Raleigh, and Clarence Britton, Northwood, were his helpers.

Thomas Brodley, who claims to represent Chicago capital, is one of those who takes great interest in watching the work of the well. He says that he was in the Bradford oil fields of Pennsylvania, and he never saw anything like Gurd's Gusher. There wasn't an oil well in the United States to-day that was pumping as much as the Raleigh well. It was flowing. At Oil City, Pa., he had seen wells do 1,600 barrels a day of 24 hours, but this would beat that record if it were allowed to run.

Professor W. W. French, Thomesville oil finder, visited Gurd's Gusher last Saturday. He says that the drillers missed their mark by 20 feet. The driller, said Mr. French, "I put that said that had the well been 20 feet farther over, they would have struck a regular lake of oil."

There are many who would like to see the test, but, at present, there is little chance of this. Some of the oil men think that it is too lively to last, while others consider it a wonder. Meanwhile, the driller is working away to enlarge in drilling operations on a large scale.

It is rumored that James Rutherford, of Blenheim, has purchased the well from Mr. $100 an acre. George Apthorpe, who lives just across the road from the well, was one of the first settlers in the 13th concession. Thirty years ago he brought his farm from the Canada Co. He is one of those sturdy pioneers who have made Kent the farming county it is.

"I was quite satisfied with my farming," said Mr. Apthorpe to The Planet. "I had everything I wanted and was making enough to provide for the future. I was quite satisfied, and then the oil drillers came and they haven't done so. They never came near me. I am satisfied with my farming business and I don't want my farm pushed full of holes. I'll hear that these windmills are an American drilling machine on the land. The well is about 315 feet," continued Mr. Apthorpe, "and it seems to be the impression amongst the oil men that it will play out. 'The company who own Gurd's Gusher never intended to shoot that well when there was any one around. Their intention was to move the derrick and then quickly shoot the well. Unfortunately for their plan, as soon as they picked the oil rock, the oil flow up, spouting twelve feet above the ground and then, of course, the whole thing became public."

told the company before they started that if I ever leased they should have the first chance."

Mr. Apthorpe said that he had had nothing to do with any of the oil speculators. They had wanted to board with him but he would not take them. He saw no reason for killing his wife with over-work for sake of the little money that was in it.

Bloss Corey, of Petrolia, was one of the visitors at the oil well this week. He drove out with Will Hadley. Mr. Corey tested the oil and pronounced it a good well. He rubbed the oil from his hands on his coat and then looked at his hands in surprise.

"Why," said Mr. Corey, "turning to the house of men collected around the well, 'there must be paraffine in that oil. See it will rub off my hands. Petrolia oil won't do that. That well's all right. They can just put that well in my front parlor and let the oil run all over the piano. I could buy a piano in quick order if I owned that well.'"

"The gas is a good sign. The well will continue to flow as long as the gas holds out."

REVOLVER HIS VISITING CARD.

Lunatic Wanted to See Emperor Francis Joseph.

London, Nov. 21.—A special despatch from Vienna, published yesterday, announces that a well-dressed individual, evidently insane, accosted a sentry on duty at the entrance of the Hofburg at midnight, and said that he was the Emperor's son, Rudolf, and that he wished to see his Majesty. The stranger, who is said to be a merchant of Hamburg, was taken to the guard-room and searched. A revolver was found in his pocket, and also a white stave, which he called his "magic wand." The man was committed to an asylum.

LORD TENNYSON APPOINTED.

Will be Governor-General of Australia.

London, Nov. 21.—Lord Tennyson, the temporary Governor-General of Australia, has been formally appointed to that office. The appointment at his Lordship's wish for only one year. He succeeds Lord Hopetoun, whose resignation was officially announced on May 14 last.

Death of Mr. David Cumberland.

London, Nov. 20.—The death occurred last night at Quebec of Mr. David Cumberland, Manager of the Bank of British North America. Deceased was a former Londoner, and was for several years Manager of the Bank of British North America in this city. He left this city in 1894. The late Mr. Cumberland was twice married, his second wife being Miss Alma Hunt of this city, who survives, also a family.

British Markets.

London, Nov. 20.—Wheat, on passage sold at an advance. Corn, on passage less offering. English country markets of yesterday quiet. Flour, on passage sold. Paris, Nov. 20.—Wheat quiet; November 21st futures and December 21st 48c. Flour steady; November 30th 60c. March and June 58c.

COUNTERFEITER IN COURT.

Pleads Not Guilty—Will Fight Extradition Proceedings.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—Joseph Gentile, alias Salvatore Clementi, who was arrested on Wednesday night on a charge of issuing counterfeit coins, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning and was remanded until this morning. He was arraigned on two charges, the first being that on November 9 he began to make and did make counterfeit coin, resembling and intended to resemble and pass for silver coin of the Dominion of Canada. The other was to the effect that he produced bad money intended to pass as coin of a foreign country, meaning the United States. Detective Davis lays the information. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to both charges, electing to be tried summarily, and was remanded until to-morrow.

It is quite possible that these charges will not be pressed against the prisoner, but will be used to hold him until extradition proceedings are brought to a successful issue. It is, however, certain that Mr. Gentile will see that there is no bail allowed. Mr. Robinette, K.C., counsel for the prisoner, announces that extradition will be opposed. The United States detectives are still at work hunting up another branch of the case. They are very anxious to return with their prisoner and are expected to be present this morning.

Gentile's wife was one of the gang which the American police were hunting down, and she is now serving a three years term for her connection with the work.

Fred Goodland cut up seven of the deer secured by the Houston party in Muskoka. Mr. Goodland says that the venison from these deer is the finest and fattest he has ever seen.

THE CAMPAIGN

Rev. T. T. George returned this morning from Tepperville, where he addressed a meeting last night in the Salem church on Prohibition. "We had a good meeting," said Mr. George. "The people in that vicinity are very enthusiastic and I think almost unanimous for prohibition. 'The country there is booming in sugar beets at present,' he continued. 'This has been a bad year for beets, but the farmers claim that they will not lose any money, although the profit may not be as large as it otherwise would have been.'"

GRAND TRUNK PLANS

TO EXTEND THEIR LINE TO THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT PUBLISHED IN LONDON.

ATTRACTIONS OF THE GREAT CANADIAN WEST.

London, Nov. 21.—A good deal of comment is excited here by the published announcement that application is being made to the Dominion Parliament for powers to authorize a company in alliance with the Grand Trunk to construct a railway from some point on the Grand Trunk line to the Pacific coast. The Pall Mall Gazette anticipates that the Canadian Pacific Railway will succeed in killing the scheme, as it killed others before. It is understood, however, in well-informed circles, that the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific directrices will be disposed to give a more liberal interpretation to the present compact, which precludes either company trespassing on the ground of the other. It will be realized, seeing the enormous developments in the east and west, that it would be unreasonable to insist on too strict an embargo, which would be liable to deprive newer Canada of the necessary expansions of both railway systems.

MARTIAL LAW REPEALED.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED YESTERDAY AT PRETORIA.

The Right Reserved by Authorities to Reimpose Military Rule in Case of Necessity.

Pretoria, Nov. 21.—Martial law was repealed throughout the new colonies yesterday. The proclamation, however, announces that the authorities reserve the right to reimpose military rule in case of necessity. It provides for the expulsion of every one considered dangerous to the peace of the country and authorizes the arrest (without warrant) of anyone suspected of sedition.

EMPEROR IN RUNAWAY.

THE HORSES ATTACHED TO HIS CARRIAGE BOLTED.

Lieut.-General Sir Archibald Hunter Averted an Accident—Luncheon With Lord Rosebery.

Edinburgh, Nov. 21.—Emperor William, on his way to embark on board the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern lying in the Firth of Forth, arrived at Dalmeny and was met by Lord Rosebery. As his Majesty's carriage was leaving the station the horses attached to it became frightened at the waving of the colors of the detachment of the Black Watch forming the guard of honor. The postillions lost control of them, and they got mixed up in the crowd. An accident was only averted by the alertness of Lieut.-Gen. Sir Archibald Hunter, who seized their heads and managed to control them. After lunch with Lord Rosebery the Emperor boarded the Hohenzollern and sailed for Kiel.

DISASTROUS COLLISION.

Eight Men Drowned by Foundering of a Danish Vessel.

London, Nov. 21.—The Danish steamer Knud II, from Copenhagen, and the British steamer Swaledale, from Hamburg, collided last night at the mouth of the Tyne. The Knud II. foundered immediately, and the master and seven of her crew were drowned.

WILL CONSULT

The City Ministerial Association will hold a joint meeting with the members of the provisional committee of the Young Men's Association on Monday afternoon at St. Andrew's church, at four o'clock. The committee will submit the plans and constitution prepared and a consultation will be held regarding further steps to be taken.

PLOTS AGAINST RULERS.

STRIKING ADDRESS BY KING LEOPOLD OF BELGIUM.

Refers to the Recent Attempt to Assassinate Himself and Also to the Methods of Agitators.

Brussels, Nov. 21.—King Leopold made a somewhat striking reply to a deputation from the Chamber, headed by the President, who presented his Majesty with an address of congratulation on his escape Saturday from the Anarchist Rubino's bullet. After thanking the Deputies the King continued:—"The times are very troubled. Agitators are constantly stirring up their followers to disturb that order which is the guarantee of public liberties. Without order only license remains, which leads inevitably to despotism. These agitators find in their path, firstly, the heads of States. If they fail to reach them they attack their wives, as in the case of the horrible drama at Geneva (when the Empress of Austria was murdered). Their blows are also aimed at Ministers, as in the case of Senor Canovas, and they also blow up the houses of private individuals. They want to intimidate us, but they will not succeed. Even if they struck down the head of the State it would make no difference, as he would soon be replaced. In addition to revolver shots they employ the pen, which can write what calamities they please. I am nearing the end of my life. I do not know how long I shall live—how long they will let me live. But I can assure you that all the rest of my existence will be devoted, within the limits of my constitutional powers, to the good of my country and the protection of its liberties."

MR. MAXWELL'S FUNERAL

THE LATE MEMBER LAID TO REST AT VANCOUVER.

Remains of the Late Angus McLeod, M.P., Sent East For Interment—City Council's Resolution of Condolence.

Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 21.—The funeral of the late George R. Maxwell, M. P. for Burrard, took place yesterday under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, and was one of the largest ever held here. Services were held in the First Presbyterian Church, of which deceased was formerly pastor, the building being filled to the doors. Besides Masons there was a large attendance of Knights of Pythias, Orangemen and Oddfellows, to which he belonged. Among the messages of condolence received by the family was one from Hon. Clifford Sifton.

The remains of the late Angus McLeod, M.P. for North Ontario, were sent east on the express for interment at Bracebridge.

The City Council passed resolutions of condolence with Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. McLeod in their bereavement.

ITALIAN EMIGRATION.

New Laws Proposed by United States Criticized.

Rome, Nov. 21.—The Tribuna, commenting on the proposed new law of the United States to stop the immigration of illiterates, says this measure is a new and cruel offence, and an inquiry to Italy. The journal urges the Government to make a protest to the United States Government, inasmuch as the proposed measure will strike especially at Italy, whose emigration comprises 50 per cent. of illiterates. "The Government," it concludes, "must obtain a veto on the bill from President Roosevelt, so that the measure at least be postponed till Italian emigrants are able to take to the United States not only the strength of their arms but the cultivation of their minds."
