

A REMARKABLE CASE. The Strange Experience of Wm. R. Hall, of Aldershot.

He was thought to be at Death's Door and the Medicines of a Continent had failed—A Final Effort to Regain Health was made, and he is today Alive, Strong and in Good Health.

One of the most attractive places in the county of Westworth is the little village of Aldershot, situated on what is known as the Plains road, about five miles from the city of Hamilton.

One day recently a Scotch publican was endeavoring to remove from his spacious bar one of his customers who had partaken not wisely, but too well, when, noticing the shemanker passing his door, he called to him to give his assistance.

When the Queen of Madagascar shut up the saloons in her kingdom, and the ex-saloon keepers asked for compensation she replied: "Compensate those whom you have wronged, and I will pay the balance."
