THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 14, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

We would call the attention of our readers to the notice "Lost" in another column.

Tourists from no less than fourteen different States of the Union, were at the American House one day this week.

Lots of picnics this week. Where? Oh, different places. Nothing takes quite so well with the young fry as a picnic.

The Superintendent of Streets has had number of men at work this week getting up the hay on Main street. There was a fine crop.

"Champs" owned by Dr. Bowler, of this town, starts to-day in the 2.50 class at Kentville. She is a very fast mare, and will no doubt give a good account of herself.

The three-masted schooner J. P. Durant, Capt. F. C. Durant, from New York, is unloading a cargo of hard coal at the wharf for Messrs. Vaughn and Armstrong.

An Ottawa despatch says: Nearly all the D. A. G.'s who have been heard from favor the holding of militia camps this year. The maritime provinces deputy adjutants-general are unanimous in advocating fall camps.

We had the privilege on Monday morning last of seeing for the first time a "real, live bloomer girl." She was a strident a gentleman's wheel, and was certainly a thing of beauty, and possibly a joy forever—if she would keep out of sight.

Rev. Mr. Fraser, pastor of the Coburg road Presbyterian church, Halifax, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church, of this town, on Sunday morning and evening last. His discourses evinced much ability and were listened to with great pleasure by those in attendance.

The Berwick Camp Meeting was very successful this year, large numbers being in attendance throughout the week. On account of the new regulations, closing the grounds to visitors on Sunday, the number taking advantage of the Sunday railway excursion was not as large as in former years, but it is thought more attended on other days. Messrs. Crosley and Hunter, evangelists, began services on Monday, which resulted in an immense amount of good.

SEASONABLE TANGLECOAT PLY PAPER—Regular and small, by the single sheet or box. HARTUNG AND FURS, Cream of Tartar, Drug Store.

The small boy has already begun to court death. He may be found every day with the pockets of his jeans stuffed out with green apples—after the pockets become empty, the doctor is usually called in. Such is the philosophy of youth. If it will give me any pleasure, I'll do it, no matter what the consequences may be. It is not always thus.

The ladies of the Baptist church at Hantsport intend holding a grand Garden Party on their church grounds at Hantsport, Thursday evening, August 20th, commencing at 4 o'clock, p. m. An excellent meal supper will be served. Ice-cream and other refreshments will be present, with some entirely new and startling features. Special arrangements are being made for the accommodation of bicyclists. The famous 78th Band of Windsor, will furnish music for the occasion.
