

TUMOR IN THE STOMACH

Completely Removed When She Took "Fruit-a-lives"

NEWBURY, Ont., April 4th, 1913.
"Some years ago, I was sick in bed, and thought I was going to die. I had a growth in my stomach, which the doctors said was a tumor and they said that the only thing to do was to go to the hospital and have the tumor cut out. I dreaded an operation although both doctors said it was the only cure. I said I would die before being operated on. At this time, my mother in Alvinston sent me some 'Fruit-a-lives' and induced me to try them as she had heard of another woman who had been cured of a similar growth in the stomach by taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. To please my mother, I began to take 'Fruit-a-lives' with the happy result that they cured me. I have had no return to see a doctor since and my health is first class. I recommended 'Fruit-a-lives' every time I get a chance and I will be glad to have you publish this letter as some other woman may now be suffering from the same trouble and 'Fruit-a-lives' will cure her." Miss A. McDONALD, 505 E. Lake St., Fort Erie, Ont. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

The Bridge Builder.

An old man going a lone highway,
Came at the evening cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide,
The old man crossed in the twilight dim.
The sullen stream had no fear for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.
'Old man,' said a pilgrim near,
'You are wasting your strength with building here;
Your journey will end with the ending day,
You never again will pass this way;
You've crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at evening tide?'
The builder lifted his gray head—
'Good friend, in the path I have come,
He said,
'These followeth after me to day,
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been as naught to me,
To that fair haired youth may a pit-fall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim—
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him!'

Bad Cold in the Chest.

"I am happy to tell you that I used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Licorice and Turpentine, and was very promptly cured of a very bad cold in the chest," writes Miss Josephine Gauthier, Dover South, Ont. You can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Licorice and Turpentine to relieve and cure all inflammations and irritations of the throat and bronchial tubes.

If a Boy Only Knew.

If a boy only knew how his inner life shows in his outward bearing, this would be a stimulus to good, honest, straightforward living and thinking.
The difference in carriage, address and facial expression of a boy when he is trying to live an honest and useful life, as compared to when he is leading a life of dishonesty, insincere life is most noticeable. True, there are few boys who can play a part for any considerable length of time.
All boys appreciate and long for approval and praise. If they could only realize that it is useless to expect this unless they really deserve it! They are often deceitful in particular and at particular times, but the cases are rare when a lad deceives many people as to the course of his life. His usual mode of thought and aim, his likes and dislikes—in fact, the general nature of his inner life, which in real life—are known to all who have to do with him.
I recently observed a boy who has of late been aiming at better things, honestly trying to do much better, his whole bearing, his tone and inflection when he speaks to me, seem so much more gentlemanly and sincere. And similarly when a lad gets careless and reckless and unsteady in his conduct, one may trace it to the letting down of his ambitions and aims. It is the inner life, the character, which is a responsible help to the student.—Journal and Main-ager.

In one of the Methodist churches in Korea three collections are taken. The first is a plate collection for church expenses; the second is the women's special collection for the building fund of the church, and consists of a handful of rice taken from the regular allowance each meal and brought in a bag to the church on Sunday; and the last collection is given by the men of the congregation who have given up tobacco since becoming Christians, and can contribute their smoke to the cause.—Missionary Alliance News.

Chasing an Old Hat.

I saw a simple little deed on the part of a girl the other day that was golden in my estimation. An old and extremely shabby and unattractive-looking woman was getting off a car when she stumbled and fell to the ground. The wind was blowing a gale, and when the old woman's hat fell off a gust of wind swept it down the street. A group of nine or ten girls were standing on a corner and one or two laughed. But one girl did not laugh. She sped away after the old hat, and had quite a long race for it.
It came to my knowledge afterward that one of the girls said to the girl who had captured the hat:
'Why did you go chasing after that old hat, May?'
'Well,' she said simply, 'I just thought what if that old woman had been my grandmother. Then I would s't have wasted anyone to laugh at her and I would have been glad to have someone to get her hat for her.'
'Now that wasn't a great deed, but it was a golden deed, and the girl who did it had a kind and true heart.'

Skin Soft as a Child's.

"I was a great sufferer from eczema and suit them for years," writes Mrs. John W. Nass, Lunenburg, N.S. Five years ago three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me and the old trouble never returned. My skin is soft as a child's now, and I shall always say a good word for this ointment.

She (frightened)—What do you intend to do with me?

The Villain (fendishly)—I am going to take you to a store of a man who never advertises, and—leave you there.
She (fainting)—Help! I am lost! No one will ever find me there!

A boy was overheard saying to his pet rabbit: 'How much is seven times seven?'
'Of course there was no response from the rabbit.
'How much is four times four?'
Still there was no response.
'Now, I will give you an easy one: How much is two times two?' Still the rabbit refused to respond.
'Well,' said the little boy, 'I knew father was fibbing when he said rabbits are the greatest multipliers in the world.'

"Don't you think Jack has engaging ways?" asked Ethel.
'Well,' he starts on 'My H.' replied Ethel, 'but I hope he won't be too long buying the ring.'
"When father was sick about six years ago he read advertisement of Chamberlain's Tablets in the papers that fit his case exactly," writes Miss Margaret Campbell of Ft. Smith, Ark. "He purchased a box of them and he has not been sick since. My sister had stomach trouble and was also benefited by them. For sale by all dealers."
One morning Jenkins looked over his garden and said to his neighbor:
'Hey, what are you buying in that hole?'
'Oh,' he said, 'I'm just replacing some of my weeds, that's all.'
'Weeds?' shouted Jenkins angrily. 'It looks more like one of my hens.'
'That's all right. The weeds are inside.'

Chats With Young Men.

The timidity which hesitates to rebuke profanity was once shamed by a king who had himself rebuked for profanity. Riding along the highway in disguise and seeing a soldier at an inn, he stopped and asked him to drink with him. On an oath which the king uttered while drinking, the soldier remarked:
'I am sorry to hear a young gentleman swear.'
His Majesty took no notice of it but swore again. The soldier immediately said:
'I'll pay part of this, if you please, and go; for I so hate swearing that if you were the king himself, I should tell you of it.'
'Should you, indeed?' asked the king.
'I should,' was the emphatic reply of his subject.
'Not long after the king gave him an opportunity to be 'as good as his word.' Having invited some lords to lunch with him, he sent for the soldier, and bade him stand near him in order to serve him, if he was needed. Presently the king, not in disguise, uttered an oath. And defiantly the soldier immediately said:
'Should not my lord and king fear an oath?'
Looking at the heroic soldier and then at his company of obsequious gobblers, the king severely remarked:
'There, my lords, is an honest man. He can respectfully remind me of the great sin of swearing; but you can sit here and let me stain my soul by swearing, and not so much as tell me of it.'

To prevent disease—resist disease germs

SMALLPOX is prevented by vaccination—the injection of vaccine. DIPHTHERIA is prevented by the injection of anti-toxin. These enable the body to produce substances which prevent the growth of smallpox and diphtheria germs in the blood. There are many other diseases, nearly, if not quite as dangerous, and far more common—such as cold fever, the grippe, bronchitis, pneumonia, catarrh, rheumatism, and a score of others—that can be prevented less painfully and more easily by making the body strong to resist germ infection.

Rexall

Olive Oil Emulsion

(With Hypophosphites)

Is designed for the prevention as well as the relief of disease—by enabling the body to overcome the germs. It, at the same time, strengthens and tones the nerves, nourishes the blood, puts the entire system into a proper healthy condition to combat and successfully resist disease.

Every person not in perfect health has incipient germs of some distressing ailment in his or her system. Cold weather, over-work, excesses of any kind, are liable to bring about just the conditions under which those latent disease germs will get the upper hand, and put you on your back—"down sick."
You who are run-down, tired-out, nervous—
You who, though not sick enough to give up, still don't feel good—
You who are apparently well, and want to stay well—
Take home a bottle of Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to-day, and use it as a means to get well and keep well.
Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is a real nerve-food tonic. In this it is different from most other so-called tonics which either have no food value and do nothing more than temporarily stimulate you, leaving you in a worse condition than before, or, having food value, still are so unpleasant to take that many people can't keep them down.
Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is pleasant to take. The Hypophosphites it contains tone the nerves. The pure Olive Oil nourishes both nerves and blood.
Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion strengthens you, puts snap and vigor and vitality into your system. It makes you feel better and stronger. It improves your digestion and your bowel action.
It contains no alcohol nor any dangerous or habit forming drugs.
It is guaranteed to be just as represented above—to do all that is claimed above—to satisfy you in every way, or your money back without quibble or question. Enough for full two weeks' treatment, $1.00.
Sold only at The Rexall Stores—the World's greatest Drug Stores—and always with a full guarantee of complete satisfaction, or your money back.
