The resolution would have the effect of saying the Legislature approved of the Scott Act and this was a late hour to bring in the resolution. Moral suasion was his platform with reference to temperance and he had yet to learn that the Scott Act would put down drunkenness.

Mr. McManus did not wish to pass any opinion on the Scott Act and thought the Legislature should not criticise the actions of the Senate. The members have certain duties to perform and should try to keep within that sphere. The ise might with equal propriety pass a resolution regarding the war in South Africa. He had no prejudices against the Scott Act but would feel more justified in voting for the amendment.

Mr. Colter said the amendment, if carried, would justify the action taken by the Senate, which would virtually destroy the Act. If the resolution was with drawn the impression would go abroa that there was danger that it would be lost, and he believed the House should give an expression of opinion upon the matter and let it go abroad that the Legislature believed the Act wherever in

Mr. James Falconer has removed his butcher's shop to more commodious premises on the Public Wharf and expects to be better able to supply the numerous wants of his customers. Mr. F. has some fine cattie on hand, and will present a fine display of Easter Beef in due time. He has two oxen on hand fattened especially for Easter, which will each dress ten hundred pounds.

"Fair Play" as it is not a suitable name for a man of his stamp, a party observed to me the other day that if he had styled himself "Foul Play," it would have suited him better. Now for business—Mr. Mowat states that grilse and smelt have both been caught in Little River by anglers, I daresay he is right about the smelt for I have seen the Indians spearing them at the mouth of the river but the statement that grilse were river but the statement that grilse were caught by anglers I do not believe, as I have We have received No. 3 of "The York been told by gentlemen on the Little River that no salmon have been seen in the river, one of the gentlemen that gave me my infor-mation is a man that can be relied on who would not stoop to deceit. Now as to his statement that there were no fry ever placed in the Escuminac it is false and I am prepared to prove it by a party who saw them put in the "Escuminac" and also in a small stream called Fair's Brook. Now as to the $100 not being expended on a Little River Guardian. I do not like to say positively certain, I have heard several respectable people talking about it and saying it was so, therefore Mr. Mowat's statement will not make me believe it is otherwise. In the fourth place Mr. Mowat says 16 fish died from fungus in 1875 the only loss ever ex-perienced from that disease, and asks what about the thousands of salmon dying with it these few years in the English and Scotch Rivers, I wish to inform Mr. Mowat that I never spoke about fungus, I referred to the numbers of salmon dying from cruel and unnatural treatment, and Mr. Mowat's statement that only 16 died from that particular disease shows a desire on his part to not more died from the treatment they received in the artificial breeding process. Before going farther I would ask Mr. Mowat what is done with the salmon killed a dently when taking the supply of parent fish, also salmon that are a little bright, that hapshe wants elevated raintees and May-flowers have made their appearance in Nova Scotia already.
