"Fruit-a-tives" Restored Her To Perfect Health

153 PAPINEAU AVE., MONTREAL.

"For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling and bloating. I saw a specialist who said I must undergo an operation. I refused. I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' so decided to try it.

The first box gave great relief, and I continued the treatment. Now my health is excellent—I am free of pain—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks."

Borings At Coal Branch Find Gas

Moncton, April 19.—The Anglo-Persian Oil Company, who have been boring for oil at Coal Branch, Kent County, for some months, recently struck a moderate flow of gas. The discovery of gas was made after drilling through a thick bed of granite rock and at a depth of about 2,300 feet. Soon after striking gas, salt water made its appearance in the well, much to the surprise of the borers. At the present time repairs are being made to the boring machinery and efforts made to shut out the heavy flow of salt water.

JUST RIGHT

A southern colonel, according to Senator McKellar of Tennessee, called in his colored man, Sam, and gave him a drink of liquor.

"How is that liquor, Sam?" the colonel asked.

"Jist right," Sam replied.

"What do you mean by 'jist right'?" the colonel inquired.

"Well, Sam said, "if it was any better you wouldn't give it to me, and if it 'twas any worse I wouldn't drink it." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

YPRES

Thursday was the fifth anniversary of the second battle of Ypres, that historic engagement in which the Canadian expeditionary forces established a record for gallantry, courage and endurance in the face of overwhelming odds which will stand forever.

It was the first important battle in which the Canadian troops took part, and the wearers of the Maple Leaf were given the task of holding back the Hun at a point where the Germans had massed the pick of the first army corps. The story of the second battle of Ypres is one that has thrilled the world, for it was there that the first Canadian Division fought through the day and then the night and then through another day and night, and gained for itself a proud reputation as a fighting unit of the first rank.

Lord Beaverbrook, in his book, Canada in Flanders, describing this engagement, said that the battle which raged so many days in the neighborhood of Ypres was "bloody, even as men appraise battles in this callous and fighting war. But so long as brave deeds retain the power to fire the blood of Anglo-Saxons, the stand made by the Canadians in those desperate days will be told by fathers to their sons; for in the military records of Canada this defence will shine as brightly as, in the records of the British army, the stubborn valour with which Sir James Macdonnell and the Guards beat back from Hougoumont the division of Foy and the army corps of Reille."

Twice Thought Time Had Come

Case Was Pronounced Hopeless Gratitude To Tanlac Is Unbounded, He Says,

What is doubtless one of the most remarkable statements ever published in connection with a medicine was made by Georges Boudreau, a grocery clerk, living at 1288 Notre-Dame Street West, Montreal, a few days ago.

The story of Mr. Boudreau's restoration to health is profoundly interesting and is given below just as related by himself in a conversation with a Tanlac representative.

"Two and a half years ago I began suffering from stomach trouble and twice during that time my case was pronounced hopeless and it was thought I could not live. My trouble began with a feeling like a big lump after nearly every meal, in the pit of my stomach. I would then have to drink a great quantity of hot water in order to get a little relief. I had to live mostly on milk and my stomach pained me so at times that I fainted and thought I would surely die. The least efforts would cause me to perspire a great deal, my legs were swollen terribly and my heart would palpitate at a frightful rate. Six months after my troubles started I had to give up all idea of work. If I ventured to go for a walk on the street the least little breeze would almost take my breath away and I had to go back in to the house. I could not sleep at night and had to prop myself up in bed with pillows. I was bloated all the time with the gas on my stomach, was constipated the worst kind, and had absolutely no appetite. I also had rheumatism in my joints so bad that I had to take something to ease the pain. My case seemed to be a puzzle, as no one understood it, and I got worse in spite of all that was done for me. I was often caught weeping in despair over my condition.

"But I am now a happy man and my gratitude towards Tanlac is unlimited. It has not only restored my health, but I believe it has saved my life, and I can see that I will soon be able to take up the work again that I was doing before my troubles began. Why, my appetite is so ravenous that I simply can't get enough to eat and my digestion is so good that I never have a pain or an uncomfortable feeling no matter what or how much I eat. My legs do not swell any more, the rheumatic pains are gone, and I sleep every night just like a child. In fact, I am feeling perfectly well and I mean to say by that what I haven't an ache or a pain of any kind. My recovery has been a surprise to just lots of people and some who have met me on the streets lately seemed absolutely amazed at the wonderful change that has taken place in me. All the praise and gratitude belongs to Tanlac. It is simply wonderful and I wish everyone knew its value as I do."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J. Morris, and in Redbank by Wm. M. Sullivan.

Mr. Turgeon In Criticism Of C.N.R. Affairs

Ottawa, April 21.—In parliament yesterday the house in committee passed $2,000,000 vote for completion of parliament buildings.

In opposing increased rates on the Canadian National Railways, O. Turgeon of Gloucester, N. B., strongly criticized the administration of Canadian government railways by the board of management. He contrasted the record of the C. P. R. with that of the government railway. The former concluded its year with all fixed charges paid and a profit of some millions. He said the latter, with no fixed charges paid, turned in a deficit of $47,000,000.

C.P.R. To Spend Many Millions

The Canadian Pacific Railway officials are preparing for a busy season and will have many millions of dollars of equipment construction and repair work done this year. It was reported yesterday that the railroad is to take over a foundry in St. John and use it for repair work, but neither H. C. Grout, retiring general superintendent of the New Brunswick division nor his successor, J. M. Woodman, had heard of such a plan.

It was announced yesterday, however, that the Angus shops of the rail road are to be doubled in size at an estimated cost of $1,000,000. The addition will give employment to hundreds of new employees who are to be taken from McAdam, as reported, is not known here. Eventually the railway to St. John will be double tracked, it is expected.

The Canadian Pacific programme for this year calls for the construction of forty-three sleeping cars, sixty seven air-dump cars, 2,500 60 ton box cars and five hundred refrigerator cars. Many other additions and improvements are to be made, the entire programme calling for an expenditure of $74,000,000.

There are some 60,000 Canadian freight cars in the United States at the present time and because of the strike in the states it is difficult to get them back. The railroad managements in this country are endeavoring to get them returned.
