THE C. B. C. DIPLOMA Is a Passport to Success.

Look up the record of nearly all graduates of the C. B. C. and you will find that they are holding down the most responsible, prominent and lucrative positions that an appreciative business world can bestow.

Wherever you go you will find men and women who owe their present success and prosperity to the practical business training which they secured at the C. B. C. From Sydney to Hong Kong and from Vancouver to Bombay you will find bustling, successful and enterprising people who would now be struggling at their tasks in their home town if it were not for the rich opportunities their C. B. C. training developed for them.

There's no need of staying in the ranks with the common crowd, no need of slaving away for a pittance when practical training will enable you to create your own opportunities for a richer, bigger and better future.

C. B. C. courses cover bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, business correspondence, banking, reporting, modern office practice, navigation and engineering.

Write today for our free prospectus, C. B. C. blotters and full information.

Rome Letter

(From our own Correspondent)

Rome Dec. 31st, 1911. It seems as if the world of Rome is quite taken up this past week in connection with the new Cardinals. The ceremonies of taking possession of their titular churches, the daily crowds of visitors eager to offer congratulations, official work related to their new dignity—all make busy and well-filled days.

The musical entertainment given at the American College on Wednesday in honor of the three Cardinals from the United States showed how much talent in that direction lives within the walls of that great institution, while a banquet offered on the following day to Cardinal Falconio and Cardinal Farley at the English-speaking Church of S. Silvestro in Capite manifested the desire of the representatives of many nations to compliment the glory of the American Hierarchy.

On the latter occasion the late Apostolic Delegate of the United States paid to the Bishops, clergy and laity of America a magnificent tribute of praise for the glorious progress that is being made by the Catholic Church in the great Republic, and he expressed once more his deep sense of gratitude for the unflinching kindness he had experienced in their midst. Similar sentiments from Cardinal V. Vannutelli show how strong still are the impressions his visit to the United States and Canada made in his soul.

Like most gatherings of the kind in Rome the guests invited to meet the Cardinals comprised a cosmopolitan body speaking five or six different languages. The names of the guests are as follows:

Their Eminences Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, Cardinal Falconio, Cardinal Farley, Cardinal Basetti, Most Rev. Dr. Whiteside, Archbishop of Liverpool, Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Bishop of Cefalù, Right Rev. Bishop Kennedy, Rector of the American College, Right Rev. Bishop O'Hanlon, Vicar Apostolic of Uganda, Right Rev. Abbot Gasquet, President of the Yulgate Commission, Right Rev. Mgr. Edwards, Vicar General of New York, Very Rev. O. Gielor, General of the Palestine Fathers, Right Rev. Mgr. Prior, Auditor of the Rota, Very Rev. D. Fleming, C. P. M. Counselor of the Holy Office, Right Rev. Mgr. Wall, N. Y., Very Rev. A. Sinibaldi, Roman Vicar, Very Rev. Mgr. Barattelli, N. Y., Right Rev. Mgr. Shahan, Rector of the Catholic University of Washington, Very Rev. Mgr. O'Killy, Very Rev. Mgr. Luzzo, Professor of the Apollinaris College, Mr. T. N. Kelly, N. Y., Private Chamberlain to His Holiness, Pius X., Rev. Dr. Burke, N. Y., Very Rev. Mgr. Fratelli, Right Rev. Dr. George, Vice-Rector of the Bada College, Very Rev. Mgr. Lewis, N. Y., Very Rev. Mgr. Marby, N. Y., Rev. G. O'Brien, N. Y., Cav. O'Connell, Associated Press, Chevalier P. L. O'Connell, the well-known Roman Journalist, Very Rev. Dr. Hagan, Vice-Rector of the Irish College, Rev. Father McNamara, N. Y., Rev. Father Clegg, N. Y., Rev. Father McAras, N. Y., Rev. Father Beers, N. Y., Rev. Father Scanlan, N. Y., Rev. Father Halpin, N. Y., Rev. Father Dallis, Rev. L. C. O'Hara, Paulist Father, N. Y., Rev. De. Heath, N. Y., Rev. Father Monaghan, Buffalo, Rev. Father Spea, Buffalo, Rev. H. Gardan, St. Paul, U. S., Rev. Father Munday, Chicago, Rev. Father McCarthy, Omaha, Rev. Father Nelson, N. Y., Rev. Father O'Rilly, N. Y.

The following address at the end of dinner was delivered by the Rector of S. Silvestro in Capite: Your Eminences, Most Rev. and Right Rev. Monsignors, Rev. Fathers and dear friends:—

In all honesty I must say, that I find it most difficult to fittingly express my sentiments of joy and thanksgiving on this memorable occasion of Your Eminence's elevation to the Cardinalate of the Holy Roman Catholic Church, and of your visit to the venerable Church of San Silvestro in Capite. By so graciously accepting this invitation to be present with us to day, you have honored, in the first place, those glorious martyrs and saints whose relics are venerated here—and in honoring this church you have also honored His Eminence Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, our beloved Cardinal Protector.

You have likewise honored all the distinguished guests who have so kindly assembled here to do Your Eminence homage, and who rejoice with us, on your promotion to the most august body of the Sacred College, and finally you have conferred an small honour on us personally, by your presence here to day.

We rejoice from the very depths of our hearts, because of the dignity that has come to Your Eminence through the august person of Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X.—a dignity which the universal Church acknowledges as highly deserved, and whose subjects rejoice from pole to pole at its proclamation. We rejoice again, beloved Cardinals, because of the honor that has come to our great Arch-bishop, so loyal to the Holy See, so promising for the future, and which Your Eminence so fittingly represent. As our earnest prayers will be that you will be spared for years to come, to manifest in your lives the glorious examples of the renowned Molloy and the beloved Gibbons—and that your zealous achievements for the salvation of souls will be a unique source of comfort and consolation, not only to those over whom Divine Providence has placed you, but also to our glorious reigning and beloved Pontiff Pius X., who is the "gardian" of the universe.

Intense indignation has been occasioned in Rome by the publication in France of a forged letter, which the authors of the document assert to come from the pen of Cardinal Dubillard. Unbounded criticism is the burden of the vile attempt to make the Jesuit Cardinal appear at variance with the directions given by the Holy Father to the French clergy in their dealings with the Government of their unhappy country. What is thought of the production in the Eternal City may be gathered from the reference made to it in the Osservatore Romano, the official organ of the Vatican.

"French Catholic journals," it says, "and especially La Univers and La Croix, have taken notice of a pretended letter of Cardinal Dubillard to Cardinal Dubillard, the falsity and malignity of which are as evident as daylight. It is one of the most villainous and unworthy inventions of that suggestive Modernism which the Pope condemned so many times. While associating ourselves with all our contemporaries of Paris, we say of it, we shall not do the authors of the infamous publication the honor of occupying ourselves with them, and we merely mention it here in a cursory manner to direct public contempt towards them."

Today it seems the chief duty of the Catholic journalist to keep track of false statements that appear from time to time in papers that are hostile to the Catholic Church and the Holy See. Indeed so much is this the case that it is an indispensable duty in Roman politics.

An instance in point occurs this week when Italia, a French paper published in Rome, treats of the relations existing between the Holy See and Russia. According to that daily, the Vatican has consented to submit to the Russian Government its Degrees, Baccalaureates, &c. which have reference to the Catholics of Russia. Thus the Russian Minister of Interior Affairs may permit or forbid the publication of such documents, and this with the approval of the Holy See!

Now it is rather late in the day to have to state anything of the kind in regard to the Court of Rome. It is true that such documents are transmitted to the Catholics of Russia through the material agency of the Russian Legation in the Vatican; but this is far from saying that the right of any lay authority, no matter how powerful, to censor its official papers is recognized. And so Italia, that booby-headed enemy of the Papacy, shows its ignorance of matters on which it presumes to enlighten the public.

There are few who will not feel sorry at learning of the illness of two prelates of the English elements of Rome, the most Rev. Mgr. Sionor, Titular-Archbishop of Frezibiz, and the Right Rev. Bishop Giles, Rector of the English College, Portici, for upwards of forty years both prelates have lived in the Eternal City and each has striven to serve the Church, both in the diplomatic and episcopal spheres. Bishop Giles, who is eighty-two years of age, lies in the Hospital of the Little Company of Mary, and Archbishop Sionor is confined to bed at his residence on the Via Sistina.

It may be remembered that the latter took part in the Papal wars of fifty years ago as chaplain to the Zouaves.

One of the most interesting figures in Rome at present is undoubtedly Cardinal Logna, Primate of all Ireland, Genial, Irish wit, deep erudition, a fund of lore acquired in America and almost every part of Europe with an extraordinary degree of humility make the Archbishop of Armagh a most welcome guest in every circle. Cardinal Logna's visit to the Eternal City on this occasion is due to a desire to push forward the Cause of the Beatification of the Venerable Oliver Plunkett as well as to honor Cardinal Farley. As the Irish Bishops come to Rome in 1912 for the purpose of making their visits ad limina, the propriety of avoiding all unnecessary delay is being felt. It may be recalled here that the late Cardinal Moran of Sydney took a most active part in the cause up to the time of his death.

A New Mountain World.

As further particulars are received from the exploration party under Dr. A. Q. Wheeler, Director of the Canadian Alpine Club, regarding their recent expedition over the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway through the Canadian Rocky Mountains it is known that the new Transcontinental Railway will be able to offer to its patrons the finest scenery of any of the Transcontinental Railways in America.

In the last report received the territory in the vicinity of the head waters of the Athabasca and Whirlpool Rivers is touched upon, and are, Mr. Wheeler states, opening up a field for exploration and research, mountaineering and camping that is absolutely new; and of which practically nothing is known. This group of Mountains is magnificent. It rises approximately to 12,000 feet above sea level, and shows contours of the wildest and boldest possible forms. Immense snowfields and huge glaciers are everywhere. Boldest and most inaccessible rises the awful black precipitous Mount Galt, the central point of the group. Again to the south are an endless array of peaks, towers, pyramids, domes, castles, and ramparts in ceaseless confusion.

An attempt was made to identify the moon talked of giants, Calumbia, Bryce, Lyall, Forbes etc., but in the chaotic whole it could not be done with any certainty.

The Grand Trunk Railway system have placed an order for fifty first class coaches and twenty-five standard baggage cars.

The coaches are the standard equipment, 72' 8" long, mounted on 4 wheel trucks. The inside finish is of mahogany, with green painted ceilings. All the latest improvements are installed in these cars, and they are models of perfection for railroad travel. The bodies of the coaches are upholstered in green plush and the smoking room in green leather. The total seating capacity of the cars is 89 persons. These cars are heated by steam, lighted with Pintsch gas, and are equipped with high speed Westinghouse air brake, and all the latest appliances for safety.

The baggage cars are 63' 10" long, with a clear 80" length inside. There are four doors to each car opening in the clear 5' x 8' 2". These cars are mounted on four wheel trucks, and are lighted with Pintsch gas, and heated by steam. They are all equipped with the Westinghouse high speed air brake. This equipment will be placed in service on different divisions of the system as soon as delivery is made.

A prominent New York gentleman who has made a sojourn in Canada at the Laurentian Club, Lac la Poudre, P. Q. in a letter addressed to Grand Trunk headquarters says:—

"I have been over the new Transcontinental Line as far as Parent, five miles from the end of steel, and thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of seeing this portion of your line. It is the same high standard of construction through difficult country most of the time affording the expected comfort of travel even now. The whole territory is studded with fine lakes and rivers, and will surely open up like this at the Laurentian Club."

Latest reports received from Prince Rupert, the Pacific Coast Terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway indicates that shipping from that point is over on the increase.

During the month of October, there were seventy-nine arrivals, and seventy-eight departures. This is a splendid record for this season of the year.

BAD BLOOD CAUSES BOILS and PIMPLES.

Get pure blood and keep it pure by removing every trace of impure morbid matter from the system. Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market about thirty-five years, and is one of the very best medicines procurable for the cure of boils and pimples.

MISS J. M. WELLES, Black's Harbor, N.B., writes:—"About five years ago my face was entirely covered with pimples. I tried everything people told me about, but found no relief. At last I thought of B.B.B. and decided to try a bottle. After finishing two bottles I was entirely cured, and would advise any lady who wants a beautiful complexion to use B.B.B."

Mrs. Ellsworth Mayne, Springfield, N.B., writes:—"My face and neck were covered with boils, and I tried all kinds of remedies, but they did me no good. I went to many doctors, but they could not cure me. I then tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and I must say it is a wonderful remedy for the cure of boils."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Father (serenly)—On you support my daughter in the manner she's been accustomed to?
Lover—Yes, sir, I'm sure I can.

Old Adam—Why? two mothers-in-law, of course.

SUFFERED TERRIBLE PAINS OF INDIGESTION.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS CURED HER.

Mrs. Wm. H. MacBrien, Mount Royal, P.E.I., writes:—"For more than a year I suffered with all the terrible pains of indigestion, and my life was one of the greatest misery. It did not seem to make any difference whether I ate or not, the pains were always there, accompanied by a severe bloating and itching of wind. I did not even get relief at night, and sometimes hardly got a bit of sleep. In my misery I tried many remedies said to cure indigestion, but they did me not one particle of good, and I fully expected I would always be afflicted in this way. At this time my brother came home on a visit and urged me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and got me a few vials. The first I had taken one vial I began to improve, and could eat with some relief. I was greatly cheered, and continued taking the pills until all traces of the trouble had disappeared, and I could once more eat all kinds of food without the slightest inconvenience. I am so fully convinced of their virtue as a family medicine, I have no hesitation in recommending them."
Price, 25 cents per vial or 5 vials for $1.00 at all dealers or mailed direct, on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
