The longest submarine telephone cable in the world has been completed between Nevin in Wales and Howeth, near Dublin a distance of 74 miles.

Jules Verbiest, a noted aviator who reached Cairo Monday on a flight from Paris plans to fly to Australia.

What appeared a Xmas gift sent to Mrs. John Tarrant, New Orleans by mail proved to be a bomb. The explosion damaged the house but she escaped.

The Donaldson Liner "Parthenia" from Newfoundland to London, with a cargo of paper was towed back to St. John's with her rudder and stern post broken.

The schooner "Seneca" was rammed by a tug in the North River, New York and sunk. Twenty-five fishermen scrambled ashore off the schooner in time to save their lives.

Thousands are starving in the provinces of Aomori and Hokkaido, Japan because of failure of the crops and fisheries. The Government is to appropriate six millions for relief.

The crew of the Nova Scotia schooner "Benefit" were landed in London by the steamer "Rio Colorado." The schooner abandoned was dismasted in mid Atlantic and the crew picked up.

The explosion of a fireworks factory on the 26th at Torre Anzueta in the province of Naples, Italy, resulted in the death of many persons. The building collapsed, burying the victims in the wreckage.

A farmer and an inmate of an Alms House in Schuykill County, Pa., were found frozen to death on the 26th. Great storms and severe cold had prevailed in the eastern part of the State, causing deaths and great damage to property.

A Washington despatch says: Though during fiscal year ended June 30th, there were 1743 casualties at sea, only 65 vessels were lost and 73 people drowned. Vessels and cargoes valued at $13,500,000 have been saved by U. S. service.

Since the beginning of September 150,000 head of cattle have been shipped from Eastern Canada to the United States.

Eighteen year old Geo. Symons of Toronto was too daring Monday, while skating on risky ice, he went through and was drowned.

Parisians awoke Sunday to find, to their surprise, the city hidden under a mantle of snow. On Saturday there was a great rain storm, and the street car and railroad services were considerably delayed. Telegraphic and telephonic communication with foreign and provincial centres has been wholly or partially interrupted.

While Father McQuaid was preaching at the high Mass in the pro Cathedral on Sunday last the sleeve of his surplice caught fire from an adjacent candle. The accident was observed by members of the congregation and by those in the sanctuary before the preacher himself noticed it. As soon as he saw it he quenched it with a stroke of his hand and continued his discourse without interruption.

At a Christmas tree celebration in Calumet Michigan Christmas night, when the large hall was crowded with men, women and children, some one shouted "fire," and there was a stampede for the exits. In the mad rush seventy two persons were tramped to death. It was a dreadful holocaust, and most of the victims were children. A strike has been in existence in the place for a long time among copper workers, and it was for the children of the strikers the entertainment was held. The miscreant who raised the false alarm should be lynched.

Twenty foot breakers tumbling in on the crest of the season's highest tide broke over bulkheads guarding the Strand at Osoyoos, Park, California, on the 26th and nearly drowned between thirty and forty men and women who were breakfasting in the basement of a fashionable hotel. The combbers swept over all barriers, smashing in the windows and fell upon the guests at the tables. Waiters and guests got out before the second wave dashed in, but a few minutes later there was several feet of water in the grill. Seven blocks of the cement shoreline bulkheads were washed out.

WANTED.

Several hundred HERALD subscribers to send in their subscriptions by this day week. We are extremely thankful to those who have already remitted and beg to remind all yet to be heard from, that only one week of this year remains. They will thus see that if they do not want the New Year to catch them with this obligation undischarged, they have no time to lose. We would like to have the money to meet our own obligations, and we hope we shall not be disappointed.

The Culture Of Black And Silver Foxes.

A timely publication, THE CULTURE OF BLACK AND SILVER FOXES, has recently been issued by the ROD AND GUN PRESS, Woodstock, Ont. This book is a series of articles written by Dr. L. V. Craft, who in addition to being a successful breeder of foxes in captivity, is a specialist in veterinary science and his articles in these articles let out of a wide man. To those breeders of foxes for animal who have no knowledge of veterinary science—and comparatively few of those who are engaged in this new industry have—Dr. Craft's book will be of inestimable value. The book comprises chapters on Heredity, Origin Breeding, Mating and Gestation, Pups and Dens Food and Feeding, Hygiene and Care, etc. It is well illustrated, neatly bound in paper cover, and can be produced from W. J. Taylor, Limited, Publisher, Woodstock, Ont. for the remarkable low price of sixty cents. Oct. 27, 1913.—21.
