Divorced Life

Further Instructions for Newly-Weds

Marian's whole object had been to help Mrs. Dale, the bride, and member of her college sorority. But she was to discover to her dismay that her remarks about married life and its problems had had quite the opposite effect.

One day, while Marian was strolling through the woods near the inn, she found Mrs. Dale seated alone on a rustic bench in a little glade, weeping quietly.

"Having a good cry?" she demanded good-naturedly, crossing to the other side. "It's good medicine for most feminine woes," she added, trying to appear philosophical.

Louise Dale looked up with a start. Recognizing the newcomer, she replied: "You must have a horrible opinion of me."

"What makes you say that?" asked Marian in surprise.

"I'm so thoroughly ashamed and disgusted with myself for talking to you about my husband as I have, that I can't look him in the face with a clear conscience," said the other gloomily. "I've been thinking it all over and wish to goodness I hadn't complained."

"Don't be uneasy," said Marian. "I'll never tell a soul. And if he has done you good to discuss matters with me. Analysis of a matrimonial situation can't possibly do any harm. But a woman has to guard against too much brooding introspection. It's the worst thing that can happen to her. The thing to cultivate is a sense of humor. A thousand good laughs to one good cry is a pretty good ratio to maintain."

The weeping wife smiled through her tears.

"Sooner or later every wife has to learn," continued Marian, "that mighty few husbands can begin to fill every nook and cranny of their wives' lives. But that's no cause for being miserable. A woman has to learn to live her own life. That's the thing. And there's no reason why she can't do it without making a botch of her marriage. Every husband has to live two lives: his business life and his married life. The two are separate and distinct, although they interlock. The wise wife does not interfere with that other life of her husband. She knows that upon his success in the other life, or business life, depends the financial stability of the marriage partnership. As long as the man is the family's money-getter, he is forced to live two lives. And as long as a wife has a mind and an intellect, she must find breathing space for it and live her own individual life, as well as her married life."

"You're a regular feminist," answered the former school teacher. "And incidentally, I think you are right."

"A feminist?" replied Marian, "is the woman who thinks not only of and for her husband, but of and for herself. Remember, it is only man's law that a woman should love, honor, and obey her husband. But it is God's law that she shall live up to; at least try to live up to, her own best and highest instincts. If she fails to do this, she betrays herself, which is the worst crime I know anything about."

"Where did you learn all these things?" asked the bride, absorbed with interest in the other's remarks. "I have never thought these things out, I wish I had."

"Oh, my bumps have taught me a good deal," returned Marian. "There's no teacher like a good bump."

"I wish you'd talk to Dan like this some time," said Louise. "I think it would do him good."

At the Crescent.

A Gem Special Feature in two reels will be presented at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day. "The Celebrated Case" is founded on an incident of the Battle of Fontenoy and is well known in St. John's being played by our own amateurs, all the characters are familiar. Count De Mornay, Jean Renard, Lazare, O'Rourke, etc., etc., and all are splendidly portrayed in this grand feature. "John the Waggoner," is a very fine picture of western life with a gripping story. "Billy the Wise Guy" is a clever comedy. "Dublin, Ireland," is a grand scenic picture showing everything of interest in and around Dublin.

Mr. Frederick Knights, Boston (tenor) sings "Queen of the Earth," by Piniuti, a song he made famous in the opera "Isle of Champagne." Prof. Spencer presides at the piano and has some special music arranged for this show.

Sulphate of Ammonia.

St. John's Gas Light Company. Dear Sir,—I have analyzed a sample of Sulphate of Ammonia made at your Works, and I found 29.6 per cent. of NITROGEN, Sulphates of Ammonia and Nitrate of Soda are the two principal Nitrogen manure.

Sulphate of Ammonia is less soluble than Nitrate of Soda, consequently it is a safer manure to use during a wet season.

Yours truly,
D. JAMES DAVIES, B.S.C., F.C.S., Analyst and Assayer.

"L'Article 47."

WORLD WIDE MELO-DRAMA.

At the Nickel Theatre.

The Nickel Theatre gives another choice programme of clear, sharp, flickerless pictures this evening. The entertainment has been specially selected, and patrons are assured an enjoyable time. Great interest is centered in the two reel melo-drama "L'Article 47," which is produced after the famous French play. It is a thrilling story and the acting is first class. This melo-drama which has a world-wide reputation was staged in St. John's some years ago by the Fleke Stock Company and was seen by nearly all our theatre goers; all were delighted with it, and are now waiting the opportunity to see it at the movies.

"The Drummer's Honeymoon" and "Fanny Joins the Forces" are comedies which will put all in the best of spirits.

"His Secret" is a very clever drama by Wit C. Cairns will repeat "Soldiers of the King" to-night.

The entire entertainment is up to the high standard the Nickel always gives. Nothing but the best in pictures, song and music is found at this popular house of entertainment.

More Fires.

Fires provoke immediate sympathy for the sufferer and also thankfulness for personal escape. Another thought should be whether one is personally and sufficiently protected? An insurance policy with Terra Johnson would provide for you this desired security and at small expense. Have you enough insurance?

Hr. Grace Notes.

The very high wind yesterday caused much damage with fences, trees, etc., and not a few garden-owners were forced to break the Sabbath by doing a little fence-repairing. The most damage was done in the neighborhood of Bannerman Street, where, owing to falling trees, the electric wires and three poles came down with a crash. Mr. Gorman, the company's manager here, immediately set to work and had damages repaired, and the lights on at night as usual. Well done, Jim!

We regret to hear of the death of our old friend Head Constable Winslow. The many friends of the family here sympathize with the bereaved family.

It is just seven years ago to-day that we commenced to write items to the Telegram.

Mrs. Quinn, mother of Messrs. Edward and William Quinn, died on Saturday night after a long illness. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

From letters received from Murray's Harbor, Labrador, we learn that at the time of writing (Sept. 20), the weather was very unfavorable for fish-making, but the writer expected to be leaving for home about the first week in October.

Another severe wind storm visited us last night. The wind this time was from the eastward, accompanied by a downpour of rain.

Our volunteers arrived by train yesterday afternoon to see their friends before going across to England. Our Patriotic Association are having a meeting to-night to arrange among other things to give them a good send-off to-morrow morning.

The schr. Excelsa is discharging a load of coal to Messrs. R. D. McRae & Sons.

Mr. George T. Gordon returned from St. John's by yesterday's train.

Rev. E. Thorpe arrived by train on Saturday to take charge of St. Andrew's Church here for the winter. Mr. Thorpe is well known here having had charge of the same Church about thirteen years ago. All his old friends are pleased to see him and hear his eloquent discourses once more.

HR. GRACE, SEPT. 29, 1914.

Farewell Entertainment to Volunteers

The Masonic Fraternity will entertain their brethren who have enlisted in the First Newfoundland Regiment at the Temple to-night. A special musical programme has been prepared for the occasion.

At the C.I.B. Armoury the Legion of Frontiersmen will give a farewell party to the comrades of whom a large number have enlisted. The entertainment will consist of a concert followed by a supper, with an interesting toast list.

On to-morrow night at the T. A. Armoury the Catholic Cadets Corps will entertain the representatives of that Brigade, who have enlisted, to smoking concert and entertainment.

ICEBERG IN THE OFFING.—Yesterday afternoon an ice-berg was in the offing and this morning was at the mouth of the harbour.

Patriotic Concert.

The concert in aid of the Women's Patriotic Fund, held at the Casino Theatre last night, was attended by a capacity house and proved an unqualified success. The affair was under the patronage of His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson, and the programme was a most patriotic one. To Mrs. Chater, under whose direction the programme was arranged, and to Mrs. Rossley, who arranged the beautiful tableaux, much credit is due for the excellence of last night's entertainment. All the performers acquitted themselves creditably, while the novel and patriotic features introduced contributed towards making the evening a most enjoyable one. The vocal numbers were encored again and again, and the audience sang the choruses enthusiastically.

The following is the programme:—Overture of National Airs, arranged by Mr. Gordon Christian. (By the Orchestra). Prologue, Britannia—Mrs. Herbert Outerbridge. (Written by Mrs. Browning). The "Marsellaise"—Sung by Mr. R. H. Tait. The Russian National Anthem—Full Chorus. "Angus McDonald"—Sung by Miss Louise Anderson. "Jack's the Boy for Work"—Sung by Mr. Cecil Cliff, (with Ladies' Naval Chorus). "The Maple Leaf" (Canadian Trio)—Miss Arnaud, The Misses Anderson, "Tommy Atkins"—Sung by Mr. H. H. Godridge, (and Ladies' Military Chorus). "All the Nice Girls Love a Sailor"—Sung by Miss Emily Mars, (with Naval Chorus). "Up, Brave Boys of Terra Nova"—Chorus. National Dances of England, Ireland, Scotland, and a peep of Wales.—By Miss Florence Winter, Sailor's Hornpipe, by Miss Rossley. Irish Jig, by Miss Flora Cliff, Scotch Reel, by Miss Kathleen McNeil, Wales.

"The Volunteer"—Miss Lelesener. Patriotic Recitation—Mr. T. H. O'Neil. "The Lads in Navy Blue"—Miss Job and Naval Chorus. "Soldiers of the King"—Mr. Goodridge (and full Military Chorus). "It's a Long Way to Tipperary"—Miss Louise Anderson. "Land of Hope and Glory"—Mr. Ruggles. "Hands All Round," recitation—Mrs. Chater. Song, "We Love Thee, Newfoundland"—Mrs. W. C. Job. Tableau, "The Ministering Angel"—Miss Jean Emerson, Mr. W. Rendell. Lantern Slides. Tableau, "Newfoundland's Offering"—Newfoundland, Miss M. Rendell. Fisherman, Mr. Eric Bowring; Volunteer, Mr. H. H. Goodridge; Britannia, Mrs. H. Outerbridge.

Lantern Slides. Tableau, "The Hero of the Hour," Belgium—Miss E. Hayward. "The Triple Entente"—England, Mr. W. Rendell; Russia, Mr. H. Winter; France, Mr. R. H. Tait. Lantern Slides. Tableau, "The Allies." Tableau (a) "What We Have We Hold," "Billy"; (b) "How We Do It," "Billy," Mr. Cliff, Mr. Rendell. Lantern Slides of Camp Life at Pleasantville. Tableau, "Great Britain"—Britannia, Mrs. Outerbridge; England, Miss D. Harvey; Ireland, Miss M. Emerson; Scotland, Master H. Mann; Wales, Miss Cynthia Marshall. Tableau, "The British Empire"—Britannia, Mrs. H. Outerbridge; India, Mrs. N. Outerbridge; Canada, Miss R. Ayre; Australia, Miss Joan Rendell; New Zealand, Miss Kathleen Keegan; South Africa, Miss Gwen Mann; Newfoundland, Miss M. Rendell. Grand Finale—Britannia with Her Allies, Colonies and Defenders.

GOD SAVE THE KING. A few crumbs of bread added to the scrambled eggs will improve the taste and make the eggs go farther.

Cable News.

NEW LORD MAYOR OF LONDON. Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, To-day. Sir Charles Johnson was to-day elected Lord Mayor of London for the term of one year, beginning Nov. 5th, 1914. He succeeds Sir Thomas V. Bowater.

The 4 British Belles

IN BEST ACT YET.

The four popular young ladies known as the British Belles have become very great favorites here in St. John's, for their work is good. Their singing and dancing is the best seen here. The skipping rope dance by Miss Evelyn Keen, and Mother's Joy is a positive delight, very graceful and novel, such as we have never had before. The costumes worn for this clever act are beautiful; in fact all the costumes worn by this Lady Troupe of Artists are greatly admired. Miss Gracie Keen, a dainty young singer and dancer is a big favorite here and her appearance is greeted by roars of applause each night. Miss Keen is well liked for her ballad singing. There is a complete change of picture to-night. Man and his other self, and three others. A very fine programme with the Rossley Orchestra—Piano, Violin, Cornet and Drums.

"Down With the Kaiser."

Say Posters in Berlin.

London, September 24.—Despite the watchfulness of the German authorities, says a despatch from Copenhagen to the London Evening News, Syndicalist posters proclaiming: "We want peace. Down with the Kaiser!" are appearing on the walls of buildings in Berlin.

Travellers driving through the city between railway stations are ordered to keep the blinds of their vehicles drawn, so that the posters may not be seen.

Wedding Bells.

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening, when Mr. Joseph Partridge, of the Royal Stores Clothing Department, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Martha Ennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ennis, of Hamilton Street. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Gunner, whilst the groom was ably supported by Mr. Thomas Walsh. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. McDermott, assisted by Revs. J. F. Pippy and P. Kelly. After the ceremony, the happy couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where felicitous speeches were made by Rev. Pps. McDermodt, Pippy and Kelly, after which Mr. J. P. Flynn read a congratulatory address and presented on behalf of the Christian Doctrine Society, of which the groom is President, a splendid hanging lamp, and Mr. E. P. Shea, on behalf of St. Patrick's Altar Society, read a similar address, and presented a Morris Chair. The groom made a suitable response. Refreshments were then served to the fifty guests present, after which a programme of songs and recitations was taken up, and dancing indulged in. We wish the happy couple many years of wedded bliss.
