THE AMERICAN TAILOR.

TO YOUNG MEN!

This is specially addressed to the young men who are following the trend of style especially as regards trousers. If you want the bell bottom trousers, with or without cuff, here is the place to get them; we are making and have made recently some splendid examples of this style. This also applies to the straight hanging English trousers hanging free from the hips to the cuff; with plenty of room at knees and bottom

WOOL MARKET EASIER.

Now in Favour of the Buyer for the First Time in Several Months.

Boston—The 50% advance in wool during the last six months of 1924 retarded in January and the market hesitated. Now hesitation has developed into a definitely easier trend of prices. The market is again in the buyers' favor for the first time in seven to eight months.

Lower prices in this country are a direct reflection of recent declines in all foreign markets. The drop at recent foreign sales in England and in Australia has been from 5% to 10%.

So far the opening of the heavyweight season by the American Woolen Co. has brought no increased buying with wool. A wool dealer says: "We should not expect the old time opening when the big buyers placed substantial orders and the mills covered with wool. The method of doing business has changed. Manufacturers are very cautious. They prefer to enter the market frequently for small lots rather than come in for a season's requirements all at once."

The market has a bulwark against an extensive decline in the comparative scarcity of wool available. As of Dec. 31, amount of wool in and about to this country was 359,612,017 pounds, grease equivalent. Going back to 1917, this the smallest amount reported for any quarter. It amounts to about four months' supply at the going rate of consumption. Boston wool stocks at the end of 1924, were the smallest since 1916.

On the other hand, the weak side of the wool "picture" is the relatively high price of the staple as compared with other commodities. Whereas the average commodity level is around 50% higher than in 1915, raw wool ranges from 150% to 200% above the 1915 prices. In this connection atlowance should be made for the fact that wool prices were depressed in 1913 because of the removal of the tariff on raw wool.

COPPER IN LONDON.

An Appreciable Recovery—Strong Technical Position.

BOSTON—Our London correspondent writes under date of Feb. 12:

Copper prices mark an appreciable recovery from the worst points touched during the minor slump. The market is in a strong technical position.

The second-hand lots of electro which had been a disturbing influence here, and especially in Germany, vanished rapidly as the market hardened.

As prices moved up, a lot of buying was done.

Our War Office has bought heavily of late, Austria wants a decent line, and the French Post Office is expected to be in the market soon for close upon 10,000 tons for telephone and telegraph wire, while the innumerable and increasing electrical schemes all over the world envisage huge consumption in the aggregate, even though the copper may not be all wanted yet awhile.

The metal is undoubtedly in a very sound position, and will improve provided producers do not show too great anxiety to force the pace of output.

The speeding up of production would be a failure from a market point of view. Nothing dramatic, or sensational is to be looked for, but with prices remarkably reasonable, confidence in the future is abundantly justifi-

Harbor Grace Notes

The annual tea and sociable held by the teachers, pupils and friends of the Church of England "High School" on Tuesday evening was a great success.
A shooting gallery, grab bags, orange and lemon trees, etc., were amongst the amusements, and afternoon teas were served. The fine sum of ninety-seven dollars and seventy cents was realized as proceeds.

Major R. Tilley and Adj. W. Cor-nick of Headquarters Salvation Army, St. John's, arrived here by Saturday afternoon's train and held an illustrated lantern service for the young people at the Citadel on Saturday night entitled, "Little Meg's Children." The regular services at the Citadel on Sunday were conducted by the visiting officers. On Monday night they gave an illustrated lantern lecture for adults entitled, "Two Golden Lilies." The attendance at each service was a fairly large one, and the lantern lectures proved most interesting. The officers returned to the city by Tuesday morning's train.
In making reference to the coming of special visitors to the Citadel for last week-end, in our notes of Saturday last, it was inadvertently stated that Col. Cloud, would be here to conduct the services.

Mr. William Alcock, formerly of this town, but who now resides in Boston, Mass., and is in the grocery business there, arrived here on Thursday last on a short visit to his mother, Mrs. William Alcock, who is ill. Mr. Alcock has been absent from here for some years, and his old friends are glad to see him this way again.

The S. S. Mary, Capt. Bourne, arrived here from Port of Spain on Thursday last and loaded oil from Mr. W. A.
Munn's freezer. She sailed for St.
John's again on Friday.

Judging by the very fine weather we have been experiencing all along it is evident that Spring will soon be with us once more. Several motor cars have already put in an appearance on the streets here, and scarcely any snow is to be seen anywhere—something rare for the first week in March in this country, which has been often termed by foreigners:—"A land of fog and ice."

Some young men from here went out by Tuesday's train for St. John's, to sign on for the Sealing Voyage. We trust that 1925 Seal Fishery will turn out to be a very successful one, and that the ships will return in due time, all having made "bumper trips."

Mr. Ernest Godden, of the firm of C. and E. Godden, who had been in St.
John's undergoing treatment at the General Hospital, for the past week or more, arrived back to town by Wednesday's train. His friends are glad to see him back again, and trust that his stay at the Institution will prove most beneficial, and that he will soon be enjoying good health.

Mr. A. Squires, R.O., went to St.
John's by this morning's train on a brief visit.

Mr. Edwin Quinn arrived in town yesterday from St. John's on a short business visit. Mr. Quinn, with his wife and family is spending the winter months in the city.

Mr. A. C. Chown, of St. John's, was visiting Mr. Grace and Carbonar during last week on a business visit.

The writer learns, with regret, that Mr. and Mrs. C. T. James editor of the Globe has met with the sad loss of her daughter, Pearl, whose death occurred during the week, at the early age of 22 years. And joins with their many friends in extending deepest sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Five Millions is Surplus for Quebec

RESULT OF RUM SALES.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—That liquor profits are proving the foremost source of revenue for the "wet" provincial governments on this side of the international boundary line, while at the same time a thorn in the side for the legally "dry" provinces, is emphasized in the announcement of the Quebec government of a surplus from moist goods sales of more than $5-000,000 for the fiscal year just over.

Manitoba, Alberta, British Columbia and the other provinces of the Dominion enjoying government liquor control laws also announced that surplus will be substantial.

It is a bitter pill for legally "dry" Ontario to swallow, and it has only served the purpose of having the "wets" of this province gird for further battle.

Big Fight Coming.

One of the first moves the Ontario legislature will see this month will be to have Premier Ferguson bring some sort of legislation for stronger beer and wine.

This, it is believed, will be successful. The "wets" announce that if the bill is beaten, they have a bomb to explode that will be a sensation in Ontario politics. Their plans are shrouded in mystery.

Quebec also gives the tourists of the United States credit for having a healthy thirst, and in the official report the visitors are credited with spending more than $2,000,000. Other provinces that are "wets" also give the Americans credit for aiding the huge surplus.

Reports For January.

Official government reports for January show that despite the number of United States prohibition agents at the border and the rum-running away, followed by a crowd. He was joined by about six other men, who fired revolvers and wounded five persons.

A policeman named Palmouet was fired at and returned the fire. One of the band was killed and the others fled. The man killed, who was recognized as the one who had stolen the handbag, is believed to be Alexander Perez, a Spaniard, who was employed as a mason.
