ANNABEL

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXV. TAKEN CAPTIVE. It was an operation which required the utmost coolness and nicety of handling.

The extreme slowness of motion by which the Indian was gliding round the tree favored the enterprise, as did also the intensity of watchfulness which he was directing to the spot where Jim was perched.

At length he came in the proper position, when with silent celerity the noose was dropped upon his shoulders enclosing his head. Instantly it was drawn tight, and ere he had time to recover from his amazement, or had power to utter a gurgling cry, the trapper slid down the rope to the ground, and snatched not only the bow and arrow from him, but the long knife and tomahawk from his belt, thus rendering him powerless for mischief.

They obeyed with alacrity. First Philip slung down the rifle, then glided down the rope himself, when he was immediately followed by Jim—the whole operation being silently observed by the captive Indian as, with bound limbs he lay upon the ground.

He lay there as still as a stone, proudly silent, yet regarding them keenly and anxiously with the shining eyes, that glanced suspiciously at each in turn, and tried to read their intentions towards him—his unsubdued nature doubtless interpreting these by the customs of his own race, and anticipated a fate akin to what his own tribe inflict on their captives.

An Irishman, referring to the sudden death of a relative, was asked if he lived high. "I can't say he did," said Terence, "but he died high. Like the banks in these days—he was suspended."

Since Miss Anthony's conviction and fine, the old song "Susannah Don't you you Cry," is coming into fashion again.

BRKFAST.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND CAPORNING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND. Elixir of Phosphates and Calcarea is the best Tonic in use, because it is the most physiological, being composed of ingredients absolutely essential to the development of the system.

Genuine Thing!

10 per cent. off for Cash

As Mr. STEWART is leaving for the British and Continental Markets in July, he has determined to reduce his large stock of Dry Goods and Clothing by $20,000 this month.

To effect this he has resolved to allow a discount of 10 per cent. on all purchases of $1 and upwards. So rare a chance of securing cheap goods seldom occurring, the public should avail themselves of making and saving money. Quotations of prices being no real criterion of cheapness, an inspection of goods is solicited.

WILLIAM STEWART.

N.E.—A lot of Dress Goods slightly damaged by water from a leak in the roof will be offered at less than half price.

Cottons will be sold at the Genuine Cost—and are exempted from the 10 per cent. reduction.
