Sacrifices of Belgium The speaker referred to the tremen ous sacrifice which had been made by Belgium at the beginning of the war, and asserted that it was the sacred duty of the allied nations to see that she was restored insofar as possible to the status which she had before the struggle began. He reviewed briefly the acts of the central powers, which had forced Great Britain to enter the war, and then referred to the magnificent response which had been made of land, 97 cattle, 90 hogs, 12 horses, machinery, household goods. Plenty of moisture here. For particulars, address owner, P.O. Drawer, C. Airdrie, Alberta. 1577-Oct. 24 by Canada, and the whole empire, to the mother country's call for help. Out Today, Turkeys

The tenants of the city market report Saturday was the largest day's business since last Xmas and the majority of the farmers were completely sold out before 12 o'clock. Fresh killed turkeys were scarce with prices high. Other poultry, dressed or live, were there in large quantities, however the supply was practically all disposed of pefore six o'clock, and late purchasers consequently were disappointed. Fruit and vegetables were in abundance and well displayed. By closing time practically everything was sold
