THE WEATHER PROPHECY.

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—11 a.m.—In the North-west Territories the high pressure and cool weather has given place to low pressure and warm weather. A small depression, which on Saturday morning was in Kentucky, has since been moving slowly eastward, south of the lakes, causing light rain, with cool northeast winds in Southern Ontario. In the Maritime Provinces the weather has been fair and warm. Local temperatures on Saturday—Highest 72; lowest 61. On Sunday—Highest 65; lowest 55.

—Mr. Robert Holmes, publisher of the Clinton New Era, paid the Advertiser a friendly visit Saturday.

—F. C. Smith, of South London, has gone for the benefit of his health to reside in Minnedosa, Manitoba.

—Frank Cooper, of this city, has been chosen as a vice-president of the Canadian Photographers' Association.

—Miss Annie L. Archer, of Toronto, who has been spending a vacation with relatives in this city, has returned home.

—Stevens, Turner & Burns, city, have received the contract to supply hydrants for the new waterworks in Woodstock.

—The residents of Port Stanley will be favored with a concert by the Falcon Guitar and Banjo Club, of this city, next Wednesday. Misses Aggie Templeton and Alice Galbraith will take part.

—In reply to a correspondent it may be stated that February, 1892, will have 29 days; in other words, 1892 will be a leap year. The rule is that all years whose figures, or date numbers, are divisible without remainder by four are leap years, excepting the century years, which are leap years only when they are divisible without remainder by 400. For instance, 1800 was not a leap year, and 1900 will not be, but 2000 will be.

—The Globe Tobacco Company manufactures the best fine-cut chewing in the world. The Golden Thread, the Globe, Victoria, High Court and Jersey Lily. They chew much better than plug.

—The public schools re-open to-day, August 31.

—The market Saturday was large and well attended.

—Professor Martia returned Saturday from his trip to Great Britain.

—Mr. Joseph Evans, of the Strathroy Ags, spent Friday in the city.

—D. Belton and wife, city, have returned from a month's visit to Toronto.

—Ald. J. C. Judd and family have returned from a two-weeks' trip up the lakes.

—Over 500 people from the city and west went to Grimsby on the G. T. R. Saturday.

—Misses Emily and Nellie Allinson have returned home after a pleasant visit to Belmont.

—Miss Maggie Harkness, of Belmont, is visiting the Misses Allinson, of Horton Street.

—Charles Brown, of the F. C. C. Club, left Saturday on his wheel bound for Detroit and Toledo.

—Chief Williams and Detective Phair, of the police force, represented peace and justice at Port Stanley Friday.

—M. Shea left Saturday for Grand Rapids, Mich., to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Minto, of there.

—A novel occurred Saturday on Dundas street, between Clarence and Richmond. A defective gully-hole was the cause.

Through the kindness of C. S. Hyman, M.P., the Central Fire Hall has been supplied with a number of his books.

—Miss Nellie Shea and Miss Maggie Carrier have returned to Grand Rapids after spending their vacation in this city.

—Mrs. E. H. Sammons and Miss Vera Sammons, of South London, have returned from a two-weeks' visit in Hamilton and Toronto.

—Mrs. (Dr.) Bahe and Fred J. H. Bahe, of New York, are in the city, visiting with the former's brother, S. M. Jepson, Adelaide Street.

—Rev. M. P. Talling, of St. James' Presbyterian Church, has returned invigorated by a month's pleasant trip to Eastern Canada and the States.

—A lad named Arthur Hacke, who came to be sailor, was discharged by the police magistrate Saturday. He was arrested as a vagrant.

—Dr. T. V. Hutchinson, medical health officer, city, was Friday elected a member of the Health Officers' Association at the Toronto convention.

—Arthur Johnson, of London, formerly in McLaren's drygoods store, is in the city for a few days looking up his friends here.

—[St. Catharines Standard.]

—Frank Terry, formerly of Thos. Compton's drug store, has accepted a position in a wholesale druggist house at London, and left on Monday for that city.—[Aylmer Sun.]

—A vacancy has again been left among officers in South London Presbyterian Sabbath school by the departure of their much esteemed librarian, Dave Sutherland, who has gone to Niagara to reside.

—Mr. Thos. E. Jackson, of Arva, London township, has left on a trip up the lakes. He intends making a tour through Manitoba and the Western States, and expects to be gone about three months.

—Mrs. Frank Campbell lost a purse containing about $25 in the market Saturday. A farmer's wife was also dispossessed of a pocketbook with $5 inside. Neither could account for the disappearance.

—Mr. J. S. Dewar, city editor of the Free Press, published at London, Ont., was in the city Friday, on route for California, and spent some time looking over the Bee building.—[Omaha Bee.]

—George M. Reid and Thomas A. Brown, representing the Western Fair, London, were in the city Friday, completing some of the arrangements which will make this year's exhibition as successful as its predecessors.—[Toronto World.]

—Elizabeth Taylor and her daughter Alice, of Ontario, appeared before Judge Elliot Saturday to stand their trial for the larceny of a quantity of wearing apparel and five loaves of bread from Annie Batton, of the same place, on the night of Aug. 3.

—Market Clerk Wilson caught Mrs. Hall buying two ducks to sell on the market Saturday and proceeded to do as the bylaw requires of him. A lively scene followed, and Mrs. Hall threatened to threaten the clerk, but order was restored finally.

—Mr. John Smith, of London, Ont., a promising barrister of that city, and a friend of Mr. John Campbell, of this city, arrived Friday. He will spend a few days in Vancouver and may eventually decide to take up the practice of law here.—[Vancouver (B. C.) News-Advertiser, Aug. 15.]

—Mr. Charles F. Colwell, of this city, with his proverbial energy and progressive ideas, has secured the agency for Canada's favorite, the genuine Heintzman pianos, of Toronto. No doubt Mr. Colwell will make a success of this new enterprise, that being the usual result with anything in which he interests himself.

—Referee Jewell, of this city, is nearing the end of his work and begins to see some prospect of an early port in regard to the liability of ex-County Treasurer Wright, of Essex, to that county. He is at Sandwich again, this week, closing up his investigations and will then begin the preparation of his report.

—While a pump was being moved at J. Powis' place, Askin street, a horse belonging to Mr. Cousins was tied up. Under the step a hornet colony had made their home, and they set upon the animal with great violence. Mr. Paisley, at much danger to himself, cut the tie-strap and let the horse go free, but not before he had broken the shafts.

—Victoria Park had the usual quota of promenade at Friday evening's band concert. The Knights of Sherwood Forest, under Captain Pugh, went through a fancy drill, and looked dashing in their bright uniforms, plumed hats and glittering arms. The movements were executed well, and the gallant knights will give a good account of themselves at the drill competitions this week in Woodstock.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bartram returned home Friday from a trip down the St. Lawrence and up the Saguenay on the royal mail boats of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, having availed themselves of the privilege of laying over and visiting Montreal, Quebec, Murray Bay and other places on the route. Their journey back from Montreal to Toronto through the Canals, the Thousand Islands, the Bay of Quinte and the new Murray Canal into Lake Ontario on the steamer Corsican, of which Capt. Ada is the courteous commander, was thoroughly enjoyable and restful after the sublime and rugged scenery of the Saguenay and Lower St. Lawrence.

—P. C. Gilbert Woolway arrested a Hamilton tramp named Martin Friday. At the police station the latter claimed he was working here and boarding on King street. P. C. Woolway took him to the house to verify the statement, but when he reached it Martin made a dash for liberty. The officer's sprinting abilities did him

Corns and Bunions and Sure Cure.

It is surprising the enormously increasing prevalence of corns and bunions in this generation, and still more so when we remember that for the trifling sum of 25 cents the sure corn cure or sure bunion cure can be obtained. A prominent professional gentleman remarked the other day: "I tried almost every known preparation for corns without avail, and concluded there was no cure, when a friend recommended the Sure Corn Cure; as a last resort I tried it with the desired effect. My corns have all disappeared, and I am now convinced that there is a sure cure for corns at last, and in justice to the proprietor, W. S. Barkwell, our enterprising young chemist, I gratefully acknowledge the same."

good service and he captured his man after a two block's exciting chase up Ridout to York street.

—Mr. Wm. Gamnag, the genial secretary of the local florists' association, has returned from the great convention in Toronto, at which 2,500 florists and gardeners from Canada and the States were present.

Most of the Canadian growers and many from the States have stated their intention to make fine exhibits of their specialties at the chrysanthemum show to be held in London this fall, among them many novelties never before seen in this city.

—At St. Joseph's Convent, in this city, the other day, three young ladies assumed the habit of the sisterhood and were received as novices in the Order of St. Joseph, and one young lady, Miss Agnes Kains, of St. Thomas (Sister M. Angela), who had finished her two years noviceship, made her solemn profession, and took the vows of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph. The names of the young ladies who received the habit are Miss Pollewski, of Thamesville, in religion Sister Mary Cecilia; Miss Brown, of Kinkora, in religion Sister Mary Lawrence; and Miss Coughlin, of Glanworth, in religion Sister Mary Beatrice. In addition to Bishop O'Connor there were present: Rev. Father Krein, C. S. S. R., Toronto; Rev. Fathers Flannery, of St. Thomas, and Cummins, of Belleville; besides the priests who reside in the city, Rev. Fathers Tiernan, Kennedy, L. Brennan and Gahan.

Wedding in South London.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Margaret Tyler, Worley road, South London, Friday afternoon, her daughter Jessie being united in marriage to Andrew Stark, of the Southern Pacific Railway, San Francisco, California.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Ballantyne in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was made the recipient of valuable presents, among them being one from the Society of Christian Endeavor of Knox Presbyterian Church, and another from the Sabbath school teachers. The young couple left per G. T. R. at 7 p.m. for their new home in Oakland, Cal.

The Irish Benevolent Society.

The annual meeting of the Irish Benevolent Society, held Friday night in the Board of Trade rooms, was attended by a large gathering of representative Irishmen. The election of officers resulted as follows: Edmund Meredith, president; Dennis Daly, first vice-president; Stephen Grant, second vice-president; Ald. Thomas Connor, third vice-president; P. F. Boyle, financial secretary; J. M. Keary, treasurer; N. P. Graydon, secretary. Executive Committee—John P. Pook, J. B. Vining, J. Lewis, D. Regan, Dr. J. W. Mitchell, R. Cummings, Jeremiah Collins, James Grant, T. H. Smallman, R. C. McCann, F. Henry, R. M. C. Toole, John Labatt, W. Reid, Michael O'Meara, P. M. P. John Garvey and J. Winch; auditors, Dr. Mitchell and R. M. C. Toole. The grand annual picnic will be held Tuesday, and no less than eleven trains will leave the city to carry down the enormous crowd which always patronizes the Irishmen's outing.

Personal Register.
