Abcess Was Lanced.

"I had an abcess on one of my hips. It was lanced and never healed. Hospital treatment failed. The next winter I had three abcesses. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon found it was helping me. When I had taken about six bottles I was cured." MRS. FRANKLIN H. TEED, Freeport, Nova Scotia.

TREND OF TRADE.

Satisfactory Increase of Business in Canada—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—R. G. Dun & Co. report as follows: Canadian business continues to show a very satisfactory increase of business on the whole, with gain on account of colder weather. St. John reports very active business in groceries, drygoods, and fair in hardware, with a retail trade of a good average, but little in lumber and iron stocks.

Retail trade at Halifax is thought likely to improve with more seasonable weather, but wholesale business is not above the average.
Montreal reports active retail distribution for the season. Collections are good, and money is 7 per cent.
Toronto wholesale trade improves, especially in fancy goods, with increasing orders in shoes, rubbers and heavy drygoods. The furniture and hardware and hosiery are fairly active and payments good.

Winnipeg notes a good volume of wholesale trade with the country in groceries, hardware and drygoods, and city trade improves with colder weather.

Wholesale trade at Victoria is seasonable and ahead of last year's, with encouraging prospects. Large purchases of miners' supplies give every indication of an extensive business to come, and retail trade has improved.
Bradstreet says: There are 31 business failures reported from the Canadian Dominion this week, against 33 last week, 47 the week a year ago, and 42 this year ago.

PIGS FIGURE AS LIFE SAVERS

Swim Ashore With Lines From the Wrecked Mariposa.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—Pigs saved the lives of shipwrecked passengers and crew, according to Australian advices brought today by the steamer Mariposa.

At midnight on Oct. 16 the Illawarra Company's steamer Mariposa, one of the best-known vessels on the coast, while on the voyage from Eden to Sydney struck upon a rock about 150 yards from shore at a point known as Pedro Reef. The passengers were all in their berths at the time, but fortunately the sea was calm and all were rescued by means of a traveling crane.

In the absence of rockets, lines were taken ashore by several pigs, which swam ashore when thrown overboard, with signal halyards attached to their hind legs. The vessel was a total loss.

TRAIN WRECKING.

An Erie Freight Derailed by Wreckers—No One Injured.

Middletown, Nov. 20.—A west bound freight train on the Erie Railroad was derailed by train-wreckers at Sloatsburg early this morning. This is where attempts were made last Sunday to wreck an express train and freight train. By good chance no one was injured today. The rails had been turned, and when the engine struck the gap it toppled over on the east bound track. The cars were piled on top of the locomotive.

After the wreck was discovered, Italian section hands were summoned to repair the damage. When the men turned they found that their shanties had been looted. Large amounts, representing in some cases the savings of several years, had been taken. There is no clue to the train wreckers.

On Old World Events--Scheme for Reform in the British Army--Change in Britain's Foreign Policy.

Emperor William Bent on Carrying Out His Pet Plans--The Kaiser Not in Harmony With Parliament--Views of Minister Wm. S. Fielding--Statement of the Engineers' Trouble Regarded as Assured.

London, Nov. 23.—The stockport of international politics has been enriched during the last three days by two or three bones which promise to furnish an opportunity for plenty of contention hereafter. Russia contributes the first in her notification of Nov. 13 to the Porte, that the arrears of the Russo-Turkish war indemnity amount to £1,000,000 ($4,000,000), and that if Turkey intends to apply part of the Greek war indemnity to an increase of the Turkish armaments, Russia will demand the payment of this amount. This was followed by a second note on the subject of Saturday. Incidentally the Turkish Government is said to have abandoned her naval reorganization plans as a result of the second note.

GERMANY'S GRAB.
Germany favored the contents of the stockport with hot sauce from China, in the shape of the landing of her sailors and marines at Kiao Chiao, on the Shan Tung peninsula, ostensibly for the purpose of insisting upon redress for the murder of two German missionaries; but possibly, it is intimated, in order to obtain a good coaling station and harbor for repairing her fleet in the far east. Germany's swoop upon the Chinese coast has excited the chancelleries, and the advice from Shanghai that two steamers have been chartered there to convey stores and materials to Kiao Chiao, has coupled with the intimation that the German occupation of that place is apparently to be more than temporary, has left a most ominous impression on the Chinese mind.

CHINA'S POLICY.
The correspondent of a New York paper cables: A radical change has been made in the foreign policy of the British government. The conciliatory policy of the past two years will be changed, with the possible exception of the eastern question, for one of vigorous independence, not to say aggression. The first and most emphatic application of the new policy will be to all issues between Great Britain and the United States. A gentleman in the highest councils of the government remarked that Lord Salisbury's government will make no concessions to the United States on any point whatsoever. It is not only a respect of the American relations that Lord Salisbury's policy has been reversed.

TO TURN OUT THE FRENCH.
The whole African policy will also be made intensely aggressive. The government is becoming convinced that France is not to be trusted in Tunis concession, and that she is failing to act according to the tacit terms of that understanding, especially in regard to the Niger territory. The alarmist talk about the situation continues, but the fear of war, which some indulge in, is absurd. Lord Salisbury has simply decided to make a vigorous demonstration of his determination to resist all encroachments.

THE MINISTERS unanimously decided at Saturday's council what must be regarded as the maximum amount of concession that can be made to France, and if that be refused British troops will proceed to bundle the French forces neck and crop out of the territories that are claimed as indisputably English.

IMPORTANT MIDNIGHT MEETING.
At midnight on last Monday there was one of the most remarkable gatherings ever assembled in a British city. The meeting was held in the hall of the colonial office. There were present Major Lugard, about a dozen of his most trusted assistants, and representatives of the war and colonial offices. The situation was exhaustively discussed. It was 3:30 o'clock in the morning before the meeting ended.

FRANCE FIRM.
The facts as to the French action and intentions can only be surmised, but there is no sign that France is prepared to yield a single point, and the colonial staff is working with remarkable zeal in the view to waken the country to a full sense of the important issues involved. The work is not altogether easy, for the average Frenchman, even in Paris, does not care a button for West Africa, and throughout France the names of Tonquin and Madagascar are still accursed and the disposition is strong to resent all enterprises in all parts of the world.

THE ENGINEERS' CONFERENCE.
The engineers and employers are selecting delegates to the conference. A settlement is regarded as assured. The men are bitterly disappointed because of the meager support they have received from other unions, and particularly from the Amalgamated Society of Engineers.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S PET PLANS.
The Emperor of Germany is not in harmony with the present Reichstag, but will make a strong effort to bring about the passage of his bill increasing the strength of the German navy. This is not acceptable to the Reichstag, and it is said that if the Emperor of the Austro-Hungarian empire is adverse to the project, the emperor will dissolve the Reichstag and call a new parliament.

BRITISH ARMY REFORM.
At the cabinet council Saturday the minister of war was authorized to prepare a scheme for army reform in conjunction with the Duke of Devonshire, who, in addition to being a member of the cabinet, is president of the committee of national defense. Army reform is merely euphemism for an increased number of soldiers. A report current is that the increase will consist of two regiments of cavalry, several batteries and 10,000 infantry, which seems to be a pretty large order. There is a strong party in favor of forming two armies—one, as now recruited on the short-service system, and the other on the long-service system, for foreign stations exclusively. The commander-in-chief appears to regard this as impracticable, and favors such improvements in food and pay and subsequent employment in the civil service as will attract a class of men to the army who now avoid it.
