GONE UP IN SMOKE.

Winnipeg, March 24.—The local freight offices of the C. P. R. here were completely destroyed by fire, and the files, documents, way bills and office property and books were lost. The actual loss will be from $12,000 to $15,000.

Winnipeg, Man., March 24.—A big fire broke out Friday night in the C. P. R. freight sheds, and before it was subdued it had burned down the offices and damaged some of the goods stored in the freight sheds. Loss not stated.

SYNDICATE TO RUN OGILVIE MINING PLANT.

Montreal, March 24.—It is announced that a syndicate headed by F. W. Thompson, of Winnipeg, and Charles R. Hosmer, of Montreal, have secured control of the Ogilvie mining plant, which is the largest in Canada. The company has mills at Montreal, Goddard, Seaforth, Winnipeg. The price of the sale is stated to be about four million dollars.

OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION.

Winnipeg, Man., March 24.—A long list of business men in Manitoba have signed a manifesto that they will register in the negative when the referendum is voted upon early in April. Both sides are working very hard. The licensed victuallers are not making so much noise as the prohibitionists, but they seem much more satisfied and confident of success in the defeating of the referendum.

Mr. Charles Jolly, residing on the mountain brow, near Hamilton, fired a gun at a party of young men who were annoying him by their noise. Two of the young men were wounded, one in the face.

THAT VISIT TO PRETORIA COLLISION IN VERY HEAVY FOG

Of Boer Officials May Not Count for Much.

Civilian Leaders Not Likely to Control Dewet and Delarey,

But They Have Carried Out to the Letter the Advice of Lord Lansdown, British Foreign Secretary.

London, March 24.—There is little disposition in London to regard the news of the Boer Government's visit to Pretoria any too hopefully. Official circles express the doubts, held throughout, of the ability of Acting President Schalkbarger and the other civilian leaders of the Boers to induce such men as Gens. Dewet and Delarey to surrender. Possibly they think the representatives of the Transvaal Government are desirous of suing for peace; but there is nothing to show that they have any authority to impose submission on the commanders in the field.

THE MOST HOPEFUL SIGN they see is the announcement that Lord Kitchener permitted Mr. Schalkbarger and his companions to proceed to the Orange River Colony, the contention being that unless the British commander-in-chief in South Africa, who is on the spot and therefore most thoroughly conversant with the situation, recognized the possibility of fruitful results and believed in the good faith of the Transvaalers, he would not have permitted the visitors to continue their pilgrimage to the headquarters of their Orange River Colony allies. The same cautious reserve permeates the newspaper utterances, and the comment in well informed circles.

SOME SIGNIFICANCE is attached to the fact that, in approaching Lord Kitchener, Mr. Schalkbarger and those associated with him have carried out to the letter the advice given by the British foreign secretary, Lord Lansdowne, in his reply to the peace note of the Netherlands Government, that the quickest and most satisfactory means for arranging a settlement would be by direct communication between the leaders of the Boers and the British commander-in-chief in South Africa.

But there is no sign that the Transvaal mission received any mandate from the fighting generals, or that the latter are prepared to recognize the authority of their acting president, Mr. Schalkbarger, to negotiate terms for peace. Presumably the latter satisfied Lord Kitchener that he had certain clearly defined proposals to submit to his ally, President Steyn, but the best information from South Africa deprecates any belief in the likelihood of a sudden surrender of the burghers still in the field, on the order of the Boer Government. Almost the best to be hoped for is that the present overture will so modify the situation as to BRING PEACE NEARER.

The Westminster Gazette this afternoon urges that any peace proposal should be regarded on its merits, pointing out that the ungenerous assumption that the previous Boer overtures were signs of weakness had contributed largely to the failure of the negotiations.

The Pall Mall Gazette would like to think that the brave, skillful commanders, Dewet and Delarey, have arrived at the height of moral courage once attained by General Lee, and have realized that the truest patriotism does not consist in the prolongation of a hopeless struggle. But the paper confesses that the military situation is not auspicious for such a change of mind.

The St. James Gazette extracts from the unilluminating dispatches thus far received from Pretoria the theory that Mr. Schalkbarger and the other members of his party have possibly already surrendered and have been released on parole for the purpose of seeing President Steyn and Gen. Dewet.

The news from South Africa had a generally good effect on the stock exchange.

A CONCESSION.

London, March 24.—The Associated Press has good reason to believe that Lord Kitchener, in his interview with Mr. Schalkbarger, agreed to withdraw the banishment proclamation issued in September if Gen. Dewet and the other Boer leaders surrender.

THE NEWS IN PARLIAMENT.

London, March 24.—In the House of Commons today the war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, announced that a fortnight ago Mr. Schalkbarger intimated to Lord Kitchener his desire to be granted a safe conduct through the British lines and back in order to see Mr. Steyn with reference to the possibility of peace proposals. Lord Kitchener, with the consent of the government, had acceded to the request. The announcement of the war secretary was received with cheers.

SYDNEY THEATER BURNED.

Sydney, N. S. W., March 23.—His Majesty's Theater was much damaged by fire last night, the interior being destroyed. The properties and scenery of "Ben Hur," valued at $14,000, were lost. There was practically no insurance on the property destroyed.

A $10,000 HORSE PERISHED.

New York, March 23.—The hunting stable of F. F. Collier at Easton, N. J., with eight valuable hunting horses, was burned before daylight today. The loss being about $10,000. It was impossible to save the horses, among which was Mr. Collier's $10,000 hunter, Greenfield. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin.

GUELPH YOUNG LIBERALS.

Guelph, March 24.—A large and gratifying meeting of the Young Liberal Club was held Friday evening, at which addresses were delivered by Col. Mutrie, M.P., C. L. Higgins and Col. J. P. McMillan. The meeting was for the purpose of organization for the coming campaign. Prospects are looking bright for the re-election of Col. Mutrie.
