Japan Explains Why She Made the Amazing Surrender.

Portsmouth, Aug. 29.—The following tatement was issued tonight by Mr. Sato on behalf of the Japanese plenipotentiaries:

if they thought I was investigating. I will not take you to see any members "The questions of the final disposiof the band, for I would be marked for tion of the Island of Sakhalin and the reimbursement to Japan of her war expenses from the first have been issues earthed largely through the efforts of upon which absolute divergence of Attorney Benjamin Franklin and At- opinion has existed.

BACKDOWN AMAZES LONDON Foreign Office Had No Intimation of Japan's Surrender.

London, Aug. 29.—The announcement that the Portsmouth conference had concluded peace was received in London just in time for brief bulletins to be printed in the afternoon papers At the Foreign Office, where Sir Eric Barrington, representing Foreign Secretary Lansdowne. expressed profound astonishment and said this was the first intimation the Government had received.

In fact, it had not been informed from any official source that Japan intended to make such wholesale concessions. Sir Eric's first expression after he had been handed the dispatch, was:

"It is simply extraordinary." The Foreign Office, according to Sir Eric, had no idea that Japan intended to yield on all points. It was well known in official circles here that Japan was so anxious to make a good impression on the world that she was ready to make extraordinary concessions. Sir Eric Barrington declared the Anglo-Japanese treaty was released by the announcement of the decision of the Portsmouth conference, but that the terms would not be given out till the Government has been notified officially of the result of the peace con-Lord Lansdowne is at his country probably will be completed by the end seat in Ireland, and the other Cabinet ministers are absent in different parts of the United Kingdom and on the continent. In all official circles, in the clubs and elsewhere, the announcement of the terms came as a complete surprise. The morning papers accord the greatest praise to Japan for having chose so magnanimous a course.

It is contended that, by waiving the question of indemnity, Japan might justly claim the whole of Sakhalin and that, therefore, the return of half of the island is a concession made en tirely for peace. All the papers express gratitude to President Roosevelt and admiration for his untiring zeal, giving him full credit for being "The one man who made peace possible."

Pro-Japanese papers express disappointment at Japan's failure to be reimbursed for the expense of the war.

Will Not Fortify Sakhalin. Both sides, once the deadlock was broken, wanted a "just and lasting peace," and, in that spirit, it was decided practically to neutralize Sakhalin, each country binding itself not to fortify its half of the island, and Japan assuming no obligation not to fortify the Laperouse Strait between Sakhalin and Hokkodia, which would bar Russia's commercial route to the Pacific.

The plenipotentiaries decided to add broad provision for neutral commercial privileges by which each country will secure for the other the benefit of the "most, favored nation" clause and the "open door."

The new treaty, therefore, will be a wonderfully friendly document, of a character almost to raise the suspicion that the two countries have concluded the basis of a future alliance. Before leaving the conference buildng felicitations were exchanged with the President at Oyster Bay. M. Witte said: "History will ascribe to you the glory for peace of Portsmouth," add-
