Very Rev. Dean Davis Honored by the Members of I. O. F. Last Night.

VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR

Which Took Place in the Foresters' Hall, South London-Some of the Addresses.

There were a very large number present at the banquet given last night by the Independent Order of Foresters, in the Foresters' Hall, South London, in honor of the Very Rev. Dean Davis, who, at the high court meeting held recently in Chatham was elected high chief ranger of the order. Mr. Fred J. Darch acted as the chairman of the evening. In his address he spoke of the honor that had been done Court Byron in having a member elected as chief executive of the old high court of Ontario. Mr. Darch thought that the members might be justly proud of the showing they had made. "I cannot point to a man," he said, "whom I do not think did his the order." He concluded his remarks journed to the Casino, where a musby urging all to rally round the new icale was given. high chief ranger, that London might
