HOUSES, POOMS, TO LET. SOUTH RENFREW ELECTION A FORECAST OF HOME RULE BILL

Control of the Customs.

SUBSIDIES FOR 15 YEARS

Will Continue To Be Represented in Imperial Parliament But in Greatly Diminished Numbers.

London, Feb. 1. - The Daily Chroncle publishes a forecast of the home rule bill. This provides that the Irish Farliament shall have full control of customs and excise, and provision will be made for the continuance of complete free trade between Engand and Ireland.

Ireland is to receive for fifteen rears an annual subsidy of $10,-000,000, after which she will make contributions to the imperial expenditure based on a percentage of her revenues.

The Irish Parliament will consist of two Houses—a legislative council of about fifty members, and a legislative assembly of 103 members. The council will have a suspensory veto disagreement between the two Houses, after the second rejection of a bill by the council, it will be sub mitted to the two Houses deliberating and voting together, and adopted or rejected according to the decision of the majority. Ireland will continue to be represented in the Imperial Parliament. but in greatly diminished numbers. Irish Parliament shall have no control with respect to the navy. army, or militia, foreign policy, coinage, military camps, or coast lighting, and will be forbidden to establish or endow any religion or deal with any religious matter.

According to the forecast, it is understood that the Irish Constabulary will be controlled by the imperial authorities for a period of twelve [Special to The Advertiser.] St. Thomas, Feb. 2.-Forty Pere Marquette car repairers, who went on rike yesterday, owing to a misunderstanding over the recent piecework system, returned today.

Master Car Builder O'Rourke came down from Detroit and held a conference with Master Mechanic Montgom-ery, Mr. O'Toole and Messrs. Bolton Assels and Swisher, representing the men. It was agreed that the company should give the men 30 days' notice before introducing the new system. The matter will be considered by the fair wage officer of the Dominion Government, who will hold a session here, and hear evidence from both sides in a few days. SARNIA FERRY CO. HAS THE WHIP HAND

Holds Lease of Land Where Its Boats Are Docking at Present.

Citizens Claim They Have to Put Up With Endless Inconvenience as

Result of Poor Service.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Feb. 1. - In their attemp to regulate the Port Huron and Sarnia Ferry Company, the Sarnia town council have run upon a snag. In fact, from present appearances looks as if the company held all the trumps-for the time being, at least. It has been discovered that the corporation has a lease not only of that portion of the town dock where their oats land, but also of the town street ease expires the ferrymen will continue to rule the roose.

Reported Lease. It is also stated on good authority hat the boat line management have Robinson the "South Caradoc Mutual In case the council continues to refuse them a license, they can land passengers at the new place. Furthermore, they can safely count on all the influence which can be brought to bear exerted by merchants and hotels near the old landing in order to keep the the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robdock just where it is. In view of the fact that the company last year spent between $1,000 and $1.500 on improvements on their present landing stage, it is not thought Bell and W. M. Wightman. that they will abandon it unless forced to do so. Deputy Reeve Dr. Colter, who is of better ferry service, fears that unless the leasehold of the company expires very shortly, there can be nothing done at present. Dr. Colter's Views. "The society has leased the section of street between Front street and the river bank to private parties," said Dr. Colter, 'and they in turn have subleased it to the ferry company. So, one of the most persistent advocates

tion to operate its boats, license or "I still maintain that the ferry service here is far from what it should be, and am in favor of fighting until we get better conditions. In the first place, the boats which the company is operating are too small and old. They have but one boat big enough to go through the ice when the river is Jammed.

"Then, too, they don't operate their schedule for the public convenience. Their boats are liable to leave five minutes ahead of or five after the scheduled time. People have missed trains, and all manner of annoyances have resulted from this." A Poor Service.

"As an illustration of the company's methods, a few Sundays ago, there were a large number of people, who ternoon with ease "On another occasion, when traffic was unusually brisk, the company, for some reason put the James Beard, their smallest boat, on the run. Women and children were standing in the aisles of the Beard, while the Conger, the largest boat of all, remained, tied to her dock, with steam up. -ARTHUR C. BOWMAN.

PRESBYTERIANS OF ULSTER AGAINST HOME RULE

on legislation. In the event of a Twenty-Five Thousand Crowd the Various Halls of Belfast.

> Belfast, Feb. 1.-Speaking at the Presbyterian convention here today against the adoption of home rule, at which 25,000 Presbyterians crowded a dozen halls and churches in various parts of the city, Sir William Crawford said: I have no doubt we shall have promises of freedom and toleration for all men from the Nationalist leaders when the provisions of the biil are revealed, but let none of these guarantees and promises deceive you. A Dublin parliament we will not have. Its laws we will not obey. Its demands for money we will throw into the fire. Our Nationalist countrymen may, if they so desire, establish their claim to manage their own affairs. They will not manage our affairs. Let an Irish Government be formed. Let send its officers here to take taxes by force. We shall not pay. Our decision is final and unchanging. We trust in God our Father, and our duty

Resolutions were passed declaring that the religious and industrial interests of Ireland would be calamitously imperilled by home rule, and appealing both to the British Government and to their co-religionists in Great Britain to save the Presbyter ians from disaster. The proceedings passed off without any disturbance. FORMER ZORRA MAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA
