HAMMOND PITCHED WINNING BALL BUT LONDON COULD NOT TALLY

Riley Handed Reising Outfit a Row of Ciphers, While the Saints Managed to Compile One Run Off "Cuz" Hammond's Benders—Kustus Drove in Only Run.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

ST. THOMAS, August 12.—"Cuz" Hammond pitched winning ball against the Saints in the final game of the series here today, but the team behind him could not score off. Bill Riley and St. Thomas took the game by the score of 1 to 0. It was the third time Hammond has lost to the Saints by the shut-out route, while only one or two runs could be made off his delivery.

Kustus Hitting a Feature.

Julius Kustus, the big centerfielder of the Craven team, was responsible for the victory. Kustus was the only member of the Saints who could do anything with Hammond. The Saints made five hits off the London heater, and big Jules made three of the five, one a two-bagger. In the seventh inning, Kustus made the only timely single, which scored the run. Hammond pitched a perfect game, but he was out of the game in the eighth inning when he was hit by a line drive from Riley. Hammond pitched a perfect game, but he was out of the game in the eighth inning when he was hit by a line drive from Riley.

Yanks Take Place of Reds, Starting Players Properly

It used to be that the best recommendation for a player was that he was a "Yankee." Now it happens to be the Yanks. Red Daniels is the most recent "come-back" and he is performing in wonderful style in the red outfit. The Yanks showed him off to the minors last spring. Since his sale by the Cincinnati Reds to the Yanks, he has been hitting like a streak and fielding brilliantly.

Kubat May Not Pitch For Ottawa Against London

Shaughnessy's Star Left-Hander Has to Pay a Visit to "Bonesetter" Reese to Have His Arm Mended.

PETERBORO, August 12.—Frank Kubat, Ottawa's great southpaw, left today for Youngstown, O., where he will undergo a treatment from Bonesetter Reese, the famous specialist. Kubat has been complaining of a sore arm for the last week, and this has been causing Manager Shaughnessy many a worry. Yesterday afternoon, the Senators' pilot got in communication with Dr. Reese and decided to send Kubat there immediately. The Ottawa manager has every hope of having Kubat in Ottawa in time for the last game of the London series on Saturday.
