SOCIETIES and THE HOME

Churches and Club News

Mrs. J. Stevenson Lends Home For Garden Party

omen's Association of Knox Church Welcome Many Guests Colored Lights and Orchestral At Party Held Yesterday Afternoon.

Many attractive booths were ar- was provided by an orchestra. A nged on the grounds of Mrs. John charming program was presented, inngton, wearing a evenson's home, Elmwood avenue, the garden party given yesterday the garden party given yesterday the garden party given yesterday the ground and evening under the ground and evening under the spices of the Women's Association Knox Presbyterian Church.

Tea was served under the trees at Grigg.

Knox Presbyterian Church, the garden party given yesterday to the ground and her dainty assistants, including Marry Percy, Ruth Kester, Ridout Street Methodist Church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and the Brotherhood. The guests were welcomed by the president of the ground of the grou Mrs. Stevenson, president of the sociation, gowned in black voile, arranged the program, and other atomed the many guests, assisted tractive numbers were piano selec- and Mr. William Coates, president of Mrs. T. A. Symington, wearing a tions by Mr. Charles Percy and solos by Mr. Kester, Mrs. May, Mr. Patterson (Mary McCullough and Alma

Tea was served under the trees at the tables, and Mrs. John Ferguson oured at a table centered with a liver basket filled with pink and hite roses. The tea assistants inhiston, Mrs. Cahill and Mrs. Alex obertson.

A novel feature was the throwing ame, with Charlie Chaplin and Aunt ally, as the main attractions. These ere in charge of Mrs. Kester and rs. Gunter.

In the evening colored lights were rung across the grounds, and music

Grigg.

The booths were effectively decorated with flowers and colored stream of the various stalls were: Mrs. Percy, Mrs. Templin and Miss Dewar, in charge of the candy; Mrs. Kemp and Mrs. Small, fish pond; Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Dunn, home-cooking; Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Mrs. V. K. Greer and Mrs. Brown, ice cream and cold drinks; Mrs. McEvoy, Mrs. H. J. Sutherland, Mrs. Symington and Mrs. C. Smith, the flowers; Mrs. Craik was in charge at the gate.

bride looked pretty in a white canton gowned in a gray canton crepe dress tume. Mr. George Meadows support ed the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a cabinet of Old Colony silver, to the bridesmaid a silver bar in, and to the groomsman gold cuff

After the ceremony the brida ered with a large wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Doy left for a short motor trip. The bride traveled in a

LAKE-ROGERS.

when Gladys Alma Rogers of Dorhey will reside in Dorchestr.

MARSHALL-CANNING.

Marshall of Dresden, was married to Miss Nora Canning, also of Dresden.

MARTIN-ROSS.

REGIER-RAU.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Church, Drys-

my, pianist, and Miss Jean Denomy,

The bride, who was given in mar-by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Nora Rau, sis-

Following the ceremony a recep-

Her veil was held in place return they will reside in Embro.

WEDDINGS

BAKER-KELLY.

An interesting wedding took place gray suede shoes to match. A larger the Methodist parsonage, Askin An interesting wedding took place reet, on Wednesday last, when Miss Tabel R. B. Kelly of this city beame the bride of Mr. Alfred B. aker, also of London, the Rev. J. T. osby Morris performing the cereony. After a brief honeymoon trip New York Mr. and Mrs Baker vill take up their residence in the

EDWARDS-TOWERS.

A very pretty wedding was liolemzed in Petrolea last evening, when liss Ethel Fowler, daughter of the te Jordan Mott Towers of Petrolea, ecame the bride of Frederick Edards, son of the late Mr. and Mrs C. Edwards, the ceremony being erformed in Christ Church.

The bride looked very beautiful in er graceful gown of oyster chiffon elvet, softly trimmed with exquisite rose point lace, pearls, court train, and magnificent veil of tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The cere-money was performed by the Rev. anon Hill of London, assisted by Rev. R. Pitts of Petrolea.

After the ceremony a wedding reakfast was held. The bride and oom received many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left for oints east, and on their return will eside in Petrolea.

BENDLE-BABCOCK.

The marriage of Miss Velma Pearl laughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bab. ock, to Mr. William Bendle of Sarnia vas solemnized here at the home of 'omlinson of Niagara Falls. After home he ceremony a dainty luncheon was groom or Galt and Niagara. urn they will reside in Sarnia.

DOY-MEADOWS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Harmony Methodist Church manse n Wednesday, June 20, when Flor-nce Elizabeth May, second daughter f Mr. and Mrs. John G. Meadows, larmony, was united in marriage to rthur Frederick Doy of Embro. The for Kitchen and Pantry.

Cleans Quickly thoroughly. Won't scratch. Contains no lye or acids. Goes further and does better work.

Music Enlivens Church Grounds.

the Brotherhood.

decorated with colored lights, and during the evening an excellent program of music was supplied by the Sunday school orchestra.

Ice cream was for sale in a large tent in charge of Mrs. Percy Taylor, assisted by Mrs. Summerhayes, Mrs. Rankin and Mrs. Flexer. Other conveners in charge of the various booths were: Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. William Coates, convening the homecooking; Mrs. Bickle, Mrs. Deacon, Mrs. Agnew and Mrs. Patrick, in charge of the tea-room; Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Malonye, the cold drinks Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Fred Floyd, weiners and rolls; Mrs. Perrin and crepe gown and white picture hat. Miss Lulu P. Meadows, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, tastefully

TECUMSEH PRESIDENT

arty motored to the home of the oride's parents, where a dainty uncheon was served, only the im-Points To Journalism As Fine School For Woman About ediate relatives being present. The tables and house were effectively decorated with pink and white To Enter Public Life. eonies, the bride's table being cen-

The closing meeting of the Tecumseh Mothers' Club was held this week, with a record attendance. Mrs. navy blue silk dress, with navy hat Holtz gave the annual secretary's match and sand coat. On their report, showing a busy year. Much sewing has been accomplished for the Child Welfare Association and for A quiet wedding took place at Ridout Street Methodist parsonage the Ronald Gray Home. The treasurer's report, read by Mrs. Plewes, showed that about $150 has been Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, paid out during the year for club expenses and relief work. The greater part of this money was rechester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rogers, was married to ceived through collections and free-Washington Chester Lake, also of will offerings.

The annual club picnic will be held Dorchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lake of Thamesford, Rev. A. J. at at Springbank on Thursday, July 5th, Mrs. S. Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Fin-Agnew officiating. Mr. and Mrs. otn. Mrs. S. Wilson, Mrs. deing the com-Lake are spinding their honeymoon at Mittee in charge of arrangements.

Niagara Falls, and upon their return

A delightful program included the control of t A delightful program included musical numbers by J. H. Finney, J. Grantham, Miss Dumaresque and Miss Myrtle Janes, and readings by The Anglican rectory in Dresden Miss Given Harris, Mrs. B. F. Brigh was the scene of an interestiting wedding on Wednesday, when James Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B.

Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B.

Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B.

Before concluding the meeting, Mrs. S. J. Martin, the president, stated that mothers' club members The bride was exquisitely gowned a ivory brocaded crepe, with bridal reil and orange blossoms. The cereaony was performed by Rev. E. C. Jennings officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will reside in Days and are glad that London's woman and Mrs. Marshall will reside in Dresden. On Wednesday evening at the home of William Marshall the woman." Mrs. Martin further stated William Marshall, the that in Miss Armstrong's newspaper mony a dainty luncheon was
The bride and groom left and Niagara. On their rea hundred guests present.

groom's brother, a shower was given the bride, at which there were about a hundred guests present. a member should know. "No better school could be found to prepare a woman for public life," she con-

Special to The Advertiser.

A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage, West Lorne, on Wednesday, June 13, at 2 o'clock, went to the domestic science room. Wednesday, June 13, at 2 o'clock, went to when John Irwin Martin and Miss where cooling refreshments were Agnes Isabell Ross were united in marriage, the Rev. J. W. Hissey officiating.

Fashions By Wire

Special to The Advertiser.
Copyright.
Paris, June 22.—White is as fashdale, on Monday, June 18, when Beatrice, the elder daughter of Mr. Paris, June 22.—White is as rashand Mrs. Joseph Rau of Drysdale, became the bride of Jack Regier, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Regier of Zurich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Rondott.
The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding The bridal party entered the hurch to the strains of the wedding Stiff Ruffles Are Used. narch played by Mrs. Herman Den Paris, June 22.-Three or nort, stiff ruffles of knife-plaited taffeta are placed on the hips of some frocks today to give a bustle effect. A similar bit of taffeta also serves riage by her father, was charmingly frocks today to give gowned in white satin, fashioned with pleated panels and trimmed with in place of a sleeve.

Taffeta and Silver Lace.

London, June 22.-One gown seen Berkeley Hotel was of parchment tafter of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, successful and silver lace. In spite of the Bungalow Tea House, Springbank, wearing a blue satin gown with hat disappearance of the metallic gown, this week. o match, and carrying a bouquet of silver and gold lace are enjoying a ink and white roses. Mr. George new popularity.

Veils Trimmed With Flowers.

this season, are achieving yet another change. Today they are trimmed on

GOOD-MURRELL.

The marriage took place Wednes-

New York, June 22.-Veils, which

Regier, brother of the groom, acted as Knitted Coat and Hat. London, June 22.-Lady Louis guests numbered 75. The groom's gift to the bride was pearl rosary, to the best man at Capes for Sports Wear. New York, June 22 .- No where toepin, and to the bridesmaid a gold day is the fashionable cape more fashionable or more useful than on stripes

A toast was proposed to the bride Mr. Soverign Ducharme of Belle Later in the evening the guests enyed dancing to orchestral music. Mr. and Mrs. Regier left on their honeymoon trip for Detroit and upon their return will reside in Seaforth.

The bride traveled in a smart gown of brown canton crepe with hat to match.

PATTERSON-McGILL. A pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian manse, West Lorne, on form the only decoration for the hat Wednesday, the Rev. A. L. Carr officiating, when Miss Catharine E. New York, June 22.—It is desirable officiating, when Miss Catharine E. New York, June 22.—It is desirable day afternoon. The guests, number-today to have the coffeur comb, the ing seventeen, enjoyed a swim, following McGill, 4th concession, became today to have the coffeur comb, the necklace, earrings and bracelets lowed by dinner at the Kennels. John McGill, 4th concession, became necklace, earrings and bracelets the bride of Mr. John H. Patterson, match. The high Spanish comb, by Furnival road, north of Rodney. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left on a wedding trip for Niagara Falls and Toronto, on a honeymoon, and upon their re On their return they will take up turn they will reside in London West. their residence on the groom's farm north of Rodney. ROBINSON-KEW.

A quiet wedding took place at the Empress Avenue Methodist parsonage, age yesterday, when Viola Marjorie Kew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kew, was married to Wilton Dean Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Good of Dean Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Good of Dean Robinson, Rev. G. W. Dewey officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left of the present of the

RIDOUT STREET HOLDS

A successful garden fete was held

The grounds were effectively

Mrs. Martin, ice cream cones; Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Bendle, Mrs. Dutton and Mrs. Burridge, the candy.

Social and Personal

KILTIES ENTERTAIN AT GARDEN FETE.

guest with her cousin, Miss Marorie Dexter, Beaufort street. Gordon Erskine of this city was guest at the Tillies-Gardiner wedding in Mount Forest this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Greer are leaving shortly for their summer home at Port Stanley.

Mrs. Brown of Hamilton is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Angles, 172 Maitland street.

Mrs. W. E. Beattie was the hostess of a small luncheon at the Bungalow Tea House, Springbank, this week. Among the recent graduates from Wellesley College, Toronto, was Wellesley College, Miss Winnifred Snelgrove, who is well-known to many Londoners. Miss Edith Treleaven, William street, is entertaining Monday evening in honor of Miss Marjorie Jen-

Mrs. Douglass Stone is entertainlexandra Sanatorium staff left yeserday to spend his vacation in the

Mrs. J. S. Clark has returned home o Michigan after spending a month with relatives and friends in the Miss Ruth Wardrope will spend take of Bays district.

the summer in London with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wardrope, Elmwood avenue. Miss Maybelle Sutherland is going will visit her aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) Camp-

Mrs. W. J. Hoy and Miss Regina Hoy are going to Brantford next

Miss Roberts, who has been visit-ing Mrs. Percy Ball for the past few weeks, left this week to sail for her home in England.

Mrs. James Hendry leaves for Toronto next week to be present at the big Sons of Scotland convention which is being held there.

Mrs. J. Berry entertained this week at a supper party at the Bungalow Tea House, Springbank, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison. Miss Adeline Orchard, Beaconsfield were daintily arranged with flowers, avenue, is leaving shortly on an extended trip to the coast. She will ton, Miss Isabel Tanton, Mrs. Elliott Victor street.

Miss Marion Beck and Helen Baker are giving an exhibition game of golf on the course at the Queen Alexandra

Mrs. T. MacPherson of Forest, and her brother, Mr. Thomas Dunn, D.L.S., of Ottawa, are spending the week-end at the home of their niece Mrs. J. N. Norton, Partridge street. The Excelsior Group of Knox Church, many of which are Normal students, enjoyed a jolly party at

Miss Dorothy Day entertained last evening in honor of Miss Marjorie Jenkin, a June bride-elect. Miss Jenkin was presented with a handsome ome of the bride's parents, the din-Mrs. Fred Bodkin, accompanied by > Master Jim McSweyn of Montreal, who is the guest of his grandmother. Mrs. Godfrey McGugan, 246 Briscoe street, is going on from London to the tennis court between games. It is frequently made knee length with visit in Strathroy.

a wide roll collar. The materials are usually silk jersey of heavy quality, or ratine, and more than likely the pattern is the gayest of Roman daughter, Miss Anna Dunlop, whose marriage takes place this month. Miss Kathleen M. Jarvis, Emery street, accompanied by Miss Mar-garet Santo, Maitland street, have have gone through various transitions gone to Montreal to spend their vacation with the former's sister, Mrs. C. V. Sifton, a former Londoner. Mr. and Mrs. John Smallman entertained at an enjoyable swimming party at their summer home yester

> Mrs. Percy Taylor, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Peggy Taylor, is leaving shortly for Windsor, where is leaving shortly for Windsor, where she will visit Mrs. Percy Bradden, go> ing on from there on an extended visit in Michigan. Mrs. J. R. MacPherson of Duart paid a brief visit to the city Thurs-

Dr. and Mrs. Urban T. Holmes, who returned from France in May, and have since been guests with the former's parents, Commander and Mrs. Holmes, at their summer home in Pennsylvania, are expected in Lonon tomorrow to spend the summer ith Mrs. Holmes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gemmell, John street. Among the Londoners who will go to Toronto next Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Marion Higgins of this city to Mr. Gordon Hill of Limberlost Lodge, Muskoka, at the University Chapel, are Miss Wanza Jones, Miss Isabel Tanton, Mrs. Greenlees, Mrs. Louise Clarke, Miss Amelia Christie, Miss Emma Christie and Mrs. Thomas Higgins.

Mrs. Douglass Stone is entertained in at "Norwood House" Wednesdty next in honor of Miss Stirling Love, last evening, when the teachers of the Wortley road staff entertained in the Wor one of the exchange teachers, who has been teaching in London during the year. The tables were decked Steele, Del Harlton, Blanche Jenkins with flowers, and the guests numbered 15.

> in honor of Miss Agines campe. Miss bride-elect of late summer. Miss Campbell, whose marriage to Mr. LADIES AID OF SPARTA return to her home in July for the balance of the summer.

Mrs. G. Shaw was the hostess of Shaw, whose marriage takes place next week. The guest of honor was about 30 present. Mrs. L. Roleston, showered with dainty gifts concealed about 30 present. Mrs. L. Roleston, Miss Louise McCullough was the hostess of a charming luncheon given at the Bungalow Tea House.

Springhank this week in hostess. 25. Alls. (Dr.) Husser also ginteresting reading, "If The Quit." At the close lunch served. Springbank, this week in honor of Miss Marion Higgins, whose marriage WYOMING SOCIETY HEARS takes place this month. The tables accompanied by Mrs. Orchard, of Kingston, Miss Wanza Jones and Miss Madeline Simson. Miss Madeline Simson.

Miss Isabel Tanton entertained at Church assembled to hear an address the delightful handkerchief shower at her home in Waterloo street yester-Mrs. G. Dyble of Sarnia yesterday

Sanatorium this afternoon for the day afternoon, the affair being given afternoon. After the meeting a in honor of Miss Marion Higgins, dainty lunch was served, and a short in honor of Miss Marion Higgins, dainty lunch was served, and a short whose marriage takes place in To-social period gave every one an opconto next week. Among the guests portunity to meet the speaker of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John

Miss Gladys Wanless was the guest of honor of a kitchen shower given this week by Miss Elsie Reid at her home, 6 Cynthia street. The sup-per table was tastefully decorated with yellow and white streamers and centered with a basket decked with daisies and filled with recipes, which were later given to Miss Wanless She also received many useful gifts which were presented in a clothes sket. During the evening solos Miss Elsie Orr were greatly enbasket.

Mrs. Bert Logan, associate grand Preston, past grand matron, who has been a guest with Mrs. Fred Tullett for the past few days; Mr. E. T. Essery, past grand patron, and Mr John Doidge, grand trustee, leave to-day for Windsor to attend the sessions of the Grand Chapter, Order Eastern Star. Another party of Londoners which will leave at the beginning of the week for the Border City includes Mrs. Fred Tullett, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Haslam, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Doidge, Miss Lottie Phillips. Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Linnell and Mrs. Arthur Borland.

Miss Anna Dunlop, a June brideelect, was guest of honor at a charm-ing miscellaneous shower given Thursday evening by Miss E. Steele at her home in Colborne street, During the evening little Miss Alma Jenson, dressed as a bride, brought in a decorated wagon filled with attractive gifts. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music, and later a dainty supper was Three clever little dancers, pupils of Miss Marion Stark, who danced or served by the hostess. The guests included Misses Jo Irwin, May Cauldthe green at The Beeches while the C. E. F. Returned garden party was in progress. From left to right, they are: Isabel Wells, Rachel Graham and well, May Cornelius, Evelyn Gogh, Beatrice Clark, Jean Henderson, Beatrice Clark, Jean Henders Marion Walker and Joan Jenson.

A delightful affair of this week nome of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Beaconsfield avenue, in honor of Mr. J. H. C. Woodward, late organist of Hyatt Avenue Church. A happy feature was the presentation of an illuminated address to Mr. Woodward. The presentation was made lights were latterns and tiny colored lights. ward. The presentation was made by Mrs. Crossley and Fred Callard, and a lights were effectively arranged, and the booths were most artistically decorated with flowers and colored streamers. The guests were well-comed by the president, Mrs. D. A. Curle, and the general conveners, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Frank Ashnlant clever reading by Mrs. Sturgess. A Frank Ashplant. short address was given by Mrs. A. Quantities of marguerites, com-E. Tutt. The guests numbered bined with Japanese lanterns, decor-Later in the evening a dainty supper was served by the hostess. The Bachelor Girls held a jolly cnic at Springbank on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Rhoda Gar attend well, who leaves early in July for England, Ireland and Scotland. During the evening a presentation was ide by Miss Blanche Jenkins to Miss Garwell of a beautiful travel ing bag as a small resemblance from the girls. A program of sports was held: causing a great deal of merri ment. A ball game between Captain Harlton's "Chosen Team" and Cap-An enjoyable supper party was Harlton's "Chosen Team" and Cap given at the Bungalow Tea House tain Brogden's "What's Left Team Jervis, Florence Quick, Anna B Steele, Del Harlton, Blanche Jenkins with flowers, and the guests num-pered 15.

Mrs. Gertrude Penhale-Harrison, Helen Polly, Ray Garwell, Jean Mc-John street, entertained this week Larty, Mabel Lawson and Mrs. Overin honor of Miss Agnes Campbell, a baugh of Detroit.

in September, is a daughter of Hugh A. Campbell of Chatham, and she will HOLDS MONTHLY MEETING

Special to The Advertiser. Sparta, June 22 .- The Ladies' Aid Mrs. G. Shaw was the hostess of a trousseau tea this week given in honor of her daughter, Miss Mary monthly meeting yesterday at the in a basket, which was presented to her by Misses Gladys Morris and Phyllis Spraul, and Master Fred Shaw. At supper Mrs. Morris and Miss Verne Nede assisted the hostess. At the close lunch was

ORGANIZER FOR DISTRICT

Special to The Advertiser. Wyoming, June 22.-The Women's

Girl Guide Commissioners In Conference In London

Come From Different Parts of Canada To Discuss Guide Affairs At Huron College Camp.

College this afternoon with a splendid attendance of nine commissionconductor; Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of ers, who arrived in the city at noon, missioner, Mrs. E. B. Smith, provincial commissioner, and Mrs. C. H. Hill, local commissioner. Other in-teresting officers attending the con-

The Canadian Girl Guide Commis- Miss Eleanor Harrington, the dominsioners' conference opened at Huron college this afternoon with a splen-The commissioners are remaining under canvas at the provincial camp for the week-end. Today they are ers, who arrived in the city at noon, from different points throughout the guests of Mrs. E. B. Smith, the from different points throughout Canada. Coming from farthest away is Mrs. Denniston of Winnipeg. There are also here Mrs. H. Fullar-the week-end will include a camp service at 4:30 o'clock on Huron College grounds, conducted by the Rev. ton of Cobourg, Mrs. George Watt of Brantford, Mrs. Thomas Rice of To-lege grounds, conducted by the Rev.

ronto, Mrs. Harry Greening of Ham-ilton, Mrs. Clarence Foreman of Wat-This afternoon's conference was erloo, Miss K. Symes, divisional com- largely devoted to discussion of camp work. Mrs. Fullarton of Cobourspoke on the duties of a local asso Mrs. Fullarton of Cobourg ciation and Miss Bewley discussed the duties of commissioners. Miss ference are Miss Bewley, an English ranger guide, who has been traveling in the United States for some time, the ice cream and cake stall, which was effectively decked in mauve and yellow. Rainbow colors encircled yellow. Rainbow colors encircled the pillars of the candy table, which was centered with a huge Japanese parasol, from which apple blossoms and butterflies fell.

Ladies' Aid Conducts Successful Fete-Orchestra In Attendance.

Lovely flowers were offered for sale at the flower stall under the convenership of Miss Margaret Ham-ilton. Daisies and ferns, combined with rosebuds, decorated this attrac-tive booth. Mrs. George Woods was convener of the home-cooking stand, where tempting cakes, pies and tarts were for sale. Messrs Robert Mor were for sale. Messrs. Robert Mer-cer, Robert Anderson and Turnbull were in charge of the lighting effects. During the evening music was supplied by an orchestra.

CARNIVAL AT YARMOUTH. Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, June 22.-Last night the carnival at Yarmouth Heights was concluded. Large crowds gathered both on Wednesday and Thursday evening to listen to the music provided by Brunswick trio. The carnival was held under the austhirty-five, including Rev. Mr. Stone.

Later in the evening a dainty supper was served by the hostess.

ated the ice cream booth, which was carnival was held under the convened by Mrs. Mercer. Mrs. pices of the St. Luke's Church Angus Morrison was in charge of grounds of F. W. Sutherland. pices of the St. Luke's Church on the

Spend This Summer At HOTEL SUNSET

Ontario's Popular Summer Resort on the Highlands of Lake Huron Opens June 11th; Closes October 1st. GODERICH, ONTARIO.

100 Outside Rooms with running water. No black flies, mosquitoes or hay fever.

Golf, Tennis, Lawn Bowling, Dancing, Fishing, Boating, Bathing.

For Booklet write CHARLES C. LEE, Proprietor. GODERICH, ONT.

IN ATONIC DYSPEPSIA

Vin St-Michel

(ST. MICHAEL'S WINE)

is employed to promote the flow of gastric juice. In gastric catarrh, it relieves that morbid state of the mucous membrane on which the increased production of mucus depends. It is known as being the best stomachic tonic.

AT DRUGGISTS ONLY

Angelo Patri Discovers

"You Aren't a Poet and I'm Not One. Maybe We're Happier Than Poets Are."

was dressed in pale blue, with scarf ng-room, with its flower-decked worn with a small round hat. She her sister, Mrs. G. B. Laidlaw, has gone to Vancouver to attend the groom's gift to the bride was cradled this lovely morning world. Soft new leaves, uncertain even of their color, shimmered and trembled at the unexpectedness of this new day after their long silent seclusion in wadded swaddling clothes. On the limb of an elm two brown thrashers sat making love, unabashed by the presence of the little girl standing watching with shining eyes. The teacher came along and stopped alighted on the lawn, where one golden dandelion blossom had spread out its fortune to the bees or the children, as fate might will. "See, see!" whispered the child in excitement. "They are picking threads for their nest." Sure enough!

Mr. Robin had a beakful of excelsior threads, and Mrs. Robin was eyeing them critically, head on one side, voice softly chirping.
"It is so lovely. There are so many beautiful things in the world, only you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us you can't tell about them," said the teacher. "The poets sing to us and the teacher. "The poets sing to us and the teacher. "The poets sing to us and the teacher." The poets sing to us and the teacher. "The poets sing to us and the teacher." The poets sing to us and the teacher. "The poets sing to us and we can feel it. That's a lot."

toward the school. "We're having poetry contest, and the girls are all trying to win it. But I can't." "Last Sunday we drove Grandmother through the park, so she could It was beautiful. Beautiful! There

Just like a fairy story, only prettier. ver gifts.

It was a lovely morning. The sky | I tried to make a poem out of it, but I only got two lines:

"'I was driving in Central Park And I saw the beautiful trees. "That was as far as I could get Other girls can write lots of it, but I can't get any words. Why can't I get poetry? I write what comes into my mind, but when I look at it and read it I know it isn't real poetry. "Because you aren't a poet. Poets are folk who were born to sing. There are not many of them. Just a few."

"Why? Wouldn't it be nice to have everybody a poet? "I don't think so. You aren't a poet, and I'm not one, and we're both beside her. A robin called and was poet, and I'm not one, and we're both answered, and the pair flashed by and happy. Maybe we're happier than You know poets have to feel beautiful things until they hurt so hard they have to tell them or write them in poems.' "Can't they stop if they want to? If it hurt them they can, can't they? "No. That's what being one means. You can't help it!" "Then I'm not one," said she gladly

"I can stop it when I want to. But

MR. AND MRS. ALDERSON HOLD SILVER WEDDING

Mrs. James C. Blackwell is enter-taining at a trousseau tea Tuesday flowers and birds. And it smelled so being the twenty-fifth anniversary of good.
"There was a pond with swans on it, and they looked wonderful. And there was a lake with boats on it.

ADVANCED DESIGN — The Moore Electric Range is several steps aread in its construction. The flush reciprocating switches, the automatic pliot light attached to every switch, the electric welded enamel oven, hinged even burners so simple for cleaning, combination burners. All Special Features in Moore's Electric.

THE D. MOORE COMPANY, Limited. Manufacturers HAMILTON .: ONTARIO For 75 Years in Stove Building.

GUARANTEED BY THE MAKERS. HAVE A COOL KITCHEN THIS SUMMER-NO HEAT WASTED.

The Hard and Difficult Jobs Do Not Make Us Any Money

But they do get us compliments. This demonstrates to us that Parisian service is in the hands of master cleaners and dyers.

We have just dyed a beaded canton crepe dress the third different shade. This is one way to make your wardrobe took extensive. You can select from our shade cards all this season's colors.

SOME WAY AND SOME HOW.

Parisian be Your Laundry

558-PHONE-559 71 - 75 DUNDAS ST., LONDON.

LAUNDERERS, DRY CLEANERS, DYERS & RUG CLEANERS

HAVE YOUR SPORT HAT CLEANED.