STAGE OUTING.

Special to The Advertiser.

Wyoming, July 6. — The Anglican Sunday School picnic yesterday was a great success. Several carloads left soon after 9 a.m. for Bright's Grove. After lunch an extensive program of sports was staged.

Children were refused admittance to the primary department at Easter on account of lack of accommodation, hence word has been received by the board to the effect that no more grants will be forthcoming from the government unless satisfactory assurances are given that a new building will be proceeded with without delay. A resolution was passed at the meeting authorizing the trustees to proceed with arrangements for gram of sports was staged.
