

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS.

"ATHLETE" CIGARETTES. Are the best. Manufactured by D. H. B. B. Montreal. For sale by J. GOLDNER, Dundas St.

Use this Brand OF FLOUR. and you will always have the best bread or pastry. Ask your grocer for it, or leave your order at 257 York Street J. D. SAUNRY.

PATENTS OF INVENTION SECURED WITH DESPATCH. P. J. EDMUNDS, Solicitor of Patents. Mechanical and Patent Law Expert.

RAZORS, RAZOR STROPS and Pocket Cutters, shown at BROCK'S GUN SHOP, RICHMOND STREET.

ASTRONOMICAL. London, Monday, Feb. 6, 1888. Sun rises 7:20 a. m. Moon rises 2:43 a. m.

METEOROLOGICAL SERVICE OF CANADA. Fair and Cold. February 6, 1 a. m.—The pressure is low.

London Station, Feb. 4, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 5, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 6, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 7, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 8, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 9, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 10, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 11, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 12, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 13, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

London Station, Feb. 14, 1888. Arrive for 24 hours ending 11 p. m. Depart for 24 hours ending 11 p. m.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Business Department 145. Editorial Rooms 143. LOCAL AND DISTRICT.

The City Council meets this evening for business. Conversation at the Memorial Church School-room this evening. Collection for refreshments.

Julia McDermott, an insane woman, has been committed to jail for examination by Squires Campbell and Elliott, of Ekfrid.

Mr. U. W. Minor, of Stratford, brought the four-year-old paper, the "Hodgins," for $180. The paper is by Little Billy.

Aylmer is soon to have an addition to her number of industries. Mr. H. Chute having in course of erection a broom factory.

Mr. Thos. Brown, of the Queen's Hotel, Winnipeg, who has recently on a visit to London and Toronto, has returned home.

Messrs. Glover and Learn of Aylmer, were offered $400 for their 3-year-old Gold Ring coat last week, but refused the offer.

A stock company is about to be formed at Goderich to build a large propeller for the grain trade, one capable of carrying 50,000 bushels of grain.

Private C. Quell, who belonged to No. 3 Company of New Hamburg volunteers for two years, has enlisted for three years in "D" Co., Infantry School, here.

The wife of his Honor Judge Robinson is seriously ill of fever at Sarnia. The absent members of her family were summoned home last week in consequence.

Mr. R. M. McElheran sold the Chamber farm, lot 20, con. 5, of West Nisour, to Mr. Fraser for $4,800. The sale took place at Grand's Auction Rooms.

The first number of the President News has been received. It is a neatly gotten up promises to be independent in politics, and to pay special attention to local and town matters.

During January the customs returns at Grand's showed exports at $15,460, as compared with $14,175 in January last year. Duty collected, $5,447.99, as against $6,024.82.

Brantford Telegram.—Mr. C. Jarvis, formerly connected with the soap works of A. Watts & Co., of this city, leaves for London on Monday, where he will manage the London Soap Works.

The next regular meeting of the West Middlesex Teachers' Association will be held in the basement of the Front Street Church, Stratford, on Thursday and Friday, February 16th and 17th, 1888.

Mr. D. Mackenzie, of Hyde Park, was installed as Steward of the Asylum for the Insane on Saturday last. The salary has been raised to $1,000, and Mr. Mackenzie will reside on in his farm.

The death is announced at Leamington of D. E. Malott, who had been employed by the Dominion Government as Inspector of Public Works in the South Riding of Essex. He was a son of Theo. Malott, Esq., J. P.

The friends of Dr. J. Ross, who leaves Windsor to practice in Omaha, Neb., gave him a banquet at the Detroit Exchange Hotel last evening. Speeches were made by S. R. Macdonnell, Dr. Ross and others.

At the request of ex-Mayor Patterson, of Chatham, the Minister of Militia has consented to the removal of several pieces of artillery at Point Edward to Chatham, to be placed in Tecumseh Park, provided the town will bear the expense.

The Review Printers and Publishers' Association has elected officers for the current year as follows:—President, John Pollard; 1st Vice-President, A. Mcgrath; 2nd Vice, W. Wesley; Sec. Treas., J. Stephens.

Mr. D. Dewar, of the Ontario House, St. Mary's, has bought the hotel property known as the "Oxford House" there, and will rebuild and refit the premises through-out in the spring, making it one of the leading hotels in the Stone Village.

The Sarnia Observer learns that J. Lewis Mackenzie and Kilmurray, of No. 1 Company of the 1st Battalion, are to be sent to the London School of Infantry, and that privates Alex. Mackenzie, George Beesford and Fred. Gorman will enter for the three months' course.

Brussels Budget.—A certain shoemaker, measuring two ladies for shoes recently, and a discussion arising about the size, he measured their calves as well. If he is married, he had better keep it from his wife.

A new Sunday school, under the superintendency of Mr. W. Paul, of London South, has been formed in the Dale school house, at the corner of Westminster, and the people of that neighborhood held an entertainment on Friday evening for the purpose of raising funds for a new library.

The house was filled with visitors and the evening's amusement proved a grand success. The programme consisted of the following:—Recitations by Messrs. Donaldson and Wyatt and Miss Annie Stanton, of London; songs by Misses Williams, Dale and Land, and Messrs. H. "son and Master Charlie Malcolmson, all of London; a representation of Morning, Noon and Night by Misses Lizzie Nichol, Edith Banghart and Fannie Cleveland; a play by Rev. Mr. Ford and Mr. William Dale.

The scholars attending the day school also acquitted themselves very amably by recitations and songs intermingled in the programme.

The General Evangelical (colored) Conference closed at Windsor Saturday. Yesterday the Rev. James Darcy was installed as Bishop of Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, in place of Bishop William B. Campbell, expelled for licensing unit men for the ministry. Incidentally all the clergymen of the denomination in Toledo were dropped from the connection on various charges. J. W. Falmer has been made Superintendent for the Dominion of Canada, and Elder Printer for the States of Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. Bishop formerly of Windsor but now in charge of the Diocese of New York, was in attendance.

The Brussels Budget, a well-conducted weekly, supplies the following "pencil" paragraph:—"The following gentlemen, who have been here visiting friends, have returned to their respective places of abode, Messrs. Harry MacArthur, Hinchwood, J. H. Crocker, Linanth, Shelburne, John B. Stacey, tinsmith, Goderich; J. B. Bantyne, tinsmith, Blyth; David Allen, grocer, Goderich; George M. Donaldson, tinsmith, Woodstock; George M. Kay, tinsmith, London; A. D. Hingston, tinsmith, Wingham; George Russell, tinsmith, Thomas; Charles Jackson, tinsmith, Toronto. Fine out of every ten of them learned their trade in this town."

Charles Sutton, blacksmith, of Dutton, has been committed for trial by R. Patterson, J. P., on a charge of assaulting Jas. Douglas and robbing him of a silver watch. Douglas claims that Sutton struck him over the head with an axe, and wound up by seizing a stick of cordwood and striking him on the head with it, inflicting a useful limb, besides lacerating him on the hip, head and face. Sutton will be tried by Judge Hughes at St. Thomas on Wednesday.

At Aylmer, on Friday, Mr. Jackson, of Hecker, Jackson, and Ingerson, brought action against J. Bin, farmer, Bayham, to recover the amount of two notes, dated May 10th, one for $150 and the other for $50, given the Ontario Seed Grain Company for ten bushels of wheat, which notes Jackson purchased in June last. The defendant said only made one note for $150, which he gave to a man named Worthen. The jury disagreed.

Mr. M. Fleming of Sarma, has commenced suit in the Wayne Circuit Court, at Detroit, against Timothy C. Nestor, ex Mayor of Marquette, to recover $6,000 said to be due upon a promissory note The money was used in connection with the Alpha Oil Company.

Mr. Wm. McGregor, the present owner of the Standard and Windsor Street Railway, has purchased a livery stock belonging to Mr. Charland. On Saturday morning the foundation was laid for a large structure in the rear of the premises, intended for a car barn, etc.

A large crowd attended the Y. M. C. A. service at Victoria Hall last evening, when Mr. W. Walker preached an effective discourse. Mr. R. Milliken, president on the occasion. The music was a feature of the proceedings.

The mortgage sale of parts of lot 10 concession B, North Dorchester Township, was held at Windsor on Friday last at Richardson's Hotel, but the property was withdrawn as the reserved price was not reached.

E. Saunders, Esq., of Bothwell, sold the steam engine and boiler to Mr. J. M. Movers, of Cashmere, for the sum of $2,000. This station was imported by Mr. Saunders from Kentucky last fall.

A serious accident occurred on Saturday afternoon on the Windsor and Detroit car driver. He was accidentally struck in the eye with a whip-lash, and it is feared the sight is destroyed.

Mr. E. Fisher, Assistant Engineer of the M. C. R. is in St. Thomas laying out the new M. C. R. spur to connect with the London & Port Stanley Railway.

Perkins and Williams, the Delhi burg-lars, were tried at Simcoe on Friday, and received three years, each in the penitentiary.

Mr. N. S. McColl, of the Ligar House, St. Thomas, is removing to Thorold, where he leased the Osborne Hotel.

Detroit Free Press, 5th—Mrs. Bowly and Mrs. Walker, of London, Ont., are the guests of Mrs. J. F. Dickie.

The reported arrest of Robt. Nairn, of North Pelham, clerk for the deceased C. J. Cook, has been contradicted.

The Growth of the Hair.—Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean, healthy condition, and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all Druggists everywhere.

We LEAD THE PROCESSION.—All along the line the cry is goods at sweeping reductions; times are hard, money is scarce; every person wants money; I want it, and have decided to make a genuine cost price sale of all the leading lines in boots and shoes. Remember, I have but one price, and for a time that price will be cost price. M. G. PATSE, next door to Thos. Beattie & Co.

Hood & Co., 202 Dundas street.—Cheap picture frames, oil paintings, wall paper, window shades, curtain poles and artists' materials—all at lowest prices. N. B.—Portraits enlarged.

Picture Frames, Spring Rollers and Lichen Shades, Cornice Poles, Wall Paper and Artists' Materials in great variety, and cheaper than ever, at E. N. HEN'S, 190 Dundas street.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Fresh Shell Oysters.—A. MONTGOMERY, City Hall. Natural Flowers embalmed for weddings, or funerals; orders solicited. Dress and mantle making, hats done over, etc.—Mrs. S. M. DUNN, 154 Richmond street.

Mr. W. Grey, of the London Pottery, says—"I have used a great many preparations for corns but never met one to equal Scarrow's Sure Corn Cure."

The following is a copy of letter received from a well-known divine in this city, and he has hundreds of similar from all parts.— Dear Mr. Barkswell— Of all the proprietary medicines we have ever used your "Bronchial Balsam" and "Corn Cure" are the most satisfactory. So far as we have tried them they give immediate and entire relief and cure as if by magic. Rev. Mr. SMITH.

London, January 1, 1888. Others to whom we have recommended these medicines say the same things about them.

The London Soap Co. have now ready for delivery a superior lot of their White Premier soap, manufactured by Mr. Chas. Jarvis, one of the most experienced soap makers in the Dominion. Their soap will be found in the hands of all the wholesale houses in London, who will supply it at factory prices. Send in your orders to makers in the Dominion. We are determined to give entire satisfaction in quality and price. Highest market price paid for tallo. Farmers' cakes preferred, for which prompt cash will be paid at factory.

Baggage smoothers.—Say that Scarrow's trunks beats them all. We have a full stock of trunks, valises, hand satchels, shawl straps, school bags, etc., also harness blankets, robes, brushes, etc., always on hand. We make a specialty of repairing trunks, valises, hand satchels, or anything else in that line sent for and delivered free. Be sure you are in the right place. Scarrow's Trunk and Harness Factory, 227 Dundas street, nearly opposite Oddfellows' Hall.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.—B. Skuse begs to announce that he has removed his lime yard to 93 York street, just west of Nash's carriage works. A full stock of all kinds of lime, plaster paris, cements, bath and hair. Building stone a specialty. Telephone 468. A4eod-vn

A large stock of the best English and American linen ledges, papers always on hand. Orders solicited for mercantile books, workmanship guaranteed.—CHAS. CRAMPTON, 21 Dundas st., London, Ont. Telephone connection. cod

The kid gloves sold at the auction rooms, next to Scarrow's, on Dundas street, at twenty-five cents a pair, surprise the merchants, who say they can't sell them for less than one dollar. The people buy them by dozens, and are thankful.

AT COST. A SWEEPING SALE. NO HUMBUG. HAND SLEIGHS, Coasters & Baby Cutters. AT COST.

RIVAL ICE CREEPERS will prevent your slipping. Call and see them.

Wheeler's Hardware cod 157 Dundas St.

JOHN T. STEPHENSON, UNDERTAKER, 104 Dundas St., RESIDENCE ON THE PREMISES. LONDON, ONT.

REMOVED TO 189 Dundas Street.

Having largely increased our premises, we now show the finest stock of shoes, fixtures, gloves, fine Plumbing Materials, Hardware Men's, English and French Ties, Hosiery and Brasses in Western Canada. INSPECTION INVITED.

W. H. HEARD & CO. IT PAYS TO Buy The Best.

MADAM LEAN (late of New York), Dress and Mantle Maker, the only person in the city that is using the Corrugated Chart for perfect fitting. I also cut French sleeves, riding habits, mantles and all manner of perfect dressmaking a specialty. We guarantee satisfaction, call solicited. Stores No. 745 Richmond Street.

VICTOR SOAP. IT IS THE BEST SOAP MADE. IT CONTAINS NO FREE ALKALI. IT WILL NOT TURN OR ROT THE CLOTHES. IT LEAVES THE HANDS SOFT AND SMOOTH. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. DAVID MORTON & SONS, HAMILTON, ONT.

SLASHING SALE.

Encouraged by the great success of our January SLASHING SALE.

SLASHING PRICES. We shall still further merit the confidence of the public as to the wonderful value we offer by still GREATER SLASHING. To-morrow we shall inaugurate and continue just as long as the goods last, a Slashing Sale of Silks of a magnitude and at prices never before attempted in London.

BLACK, COLORED AND EVENING SILKS LOWER THAN EVER SOLD BEFORE!

Table with 2 columns: LOT and PER YARD. Lists various silk items and their prices.

The above only represent our prices, which in the Colored and Evening tints consist of an elegant assortment of shades. We have a great many handsome stripe and figures to match our plain silks. We need not tell any lady who visits our Silk Department that there is nothing to compare with it in the Province in point of value.

Be sure you are in the right store—a similarity of name makes a very great difference in prices.

T. F. KINGSMILL