Women as Inventors.
The world now realizes that there are female geniuses in our midst as well as male geniuses; that they are to be found not alone in the literary world, but likewise in the world of art and mechanics, and of course, invention. Their achievements in the last mentioned sphere have already been considerable, and they are destined to accomplish still greater things than this. As yet, however, their inventions are few and far between, and the world will thus be greatly enriched, and mankind ought to be grateful.
The assignment division of the United States patent office evidences the fact that out of mechanical devices and a few women have realized fortunes and earned fame.
Mr. Edison, the great inventor and experimentalist, has a high opinion of women as mechanists. He says that women acquire more fine sense about machinery in one minute than most men do in a lifetime.
The distinguished mechanic, it is explained, supports the thesis in a practical way, in that he employs about 100 women workers, for he prefers them as mechanics for the delicate details of his electrical inventions.
As women are shown to have brains even capable of great inventions, the old interpretation of their lack of inventive power ought now to be forgotten.

It is rumored at St. Thomas that D. J. Donohue, Q. C., County Crown

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ross, of Embro, on their arrival at Liverpool, were surprised to meet their son, Capt. J.

him a chance to surprise them by A pleasing event occurred at the residence of Mr. Frederick Rossiter, Francis street, West London, Wednesday evening, when his daughter, Miss Lydia Faircloth Rossiter, was united in marriage to Mr. James R. Boyce, book-keeper at Gerry's planing mill.

The ceremony was performed by Rev.
T. E. Harrison, pastor of Empress Avenue Methodist Church. The bridesmaids were Misses Louie Rossiter and Ella Robinson, sister and cousin respectively of the bride. The groom was supported by Mr. J. B. Aikhead, and his cousin, Mr. Murray Gibson, of Brucefield. After the ceremony the bride and guests adjoined to a large marquee on the lawn, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs.
Boyce left for Toronto and other eastern points. Returning, they will reside at 158 Wharncliffe Road, South London. Many handsome presents testified to the popularity of the young couple. All guests presented the groom with a handsome bedroom suite and the employees of the mill two lamps. The groom's present to the bride was a diamond ring. The bridesmaids beautiful gold rings. The bride was a prominent worker in the Empress Avenue Methodist Church, being connected with the Epworth League, and also a valued member of the choir.

The remains of the late Richard Stanley, the young Londoner who was drowned at Sault Ste. Marie, arrived here last night and were removed to the residence of deceased's father, Mr. Robt. Stanley, No. 614 Colborne street. It appears that the body was gaged on a scow and at the time of the accident was alone. He is supposed to have fallen between the scow and a boat alongside and was held under the water until he had some time afterward. It was then too late. The young man possessed many good traits of character, and his untimely end is deeply deplored by many friends.

An awful accident occurred at the home of Wellington Fisher, in South Caradoc, the other morning, costing the life of his only son, little Greta May, aged 2 years, 5 months and 13 days. When Mrs. Fisher started to light the morning fire the little one, eager to help, lit a match and set a piece of paper blazing. This caught her clothing and before the flames could be extinguished the child was badly burned. All through the day she lingered in pain and next morning passed away.

The Harrison correspondent of the who will follow him to London in a Port Elgin Times.—Rev. A. J. Mc-

The ratepayers on Dundas street, between Wellington and Waterloo, are petitioning against the vitrified brick pavement for that block that has been advertised. As they are unable to agree upon the way that it should be laid, they would prefer to have the matter put off until next year.

Last night four express cars were included in the G. T. R. train from the east. The cars were filled with fruit, mostly peaches, from the Niagara district.

Dr. Moorhouse left his horse standing on Dundas street, in front of Anderson & Nelles' drug store, last evening, and the horse turned onto the street car tracks just as a car came bowling along. A shaft of the carriage was broken, but no other harm done.

One of the three new engines of the Lake Erie & Detroit River Rail-best and largest kind, and has double the power of the average engine.

The death occurred at Glencoe Wednesday morning of Elizabeth Ann, wife of Mr. George Long, aged 32 years and 9 days. Mrs. Long had been ill for about two years with consumption of the lungs. She was a daughter of Mr. Malcolm Root, of Weldman, and went to Glencoe with her husband and little daughter last July.

A Mayfair (Elfrid) correspondent writes:—"A number of the young people of Mayfair gathered at the residence of Mr. Wm. Jones the other evening to bid farewell to Arthur T., who leaves for London, where he has secured a situation. About 11 o'clock Arthur was called to the front and an address, while Miss Maud Saxton presented him with an elegant toilet set.
Arthur was very much taken by surprise, but replied in a very suitable way. After spending a very pleasant evening the company adjourned, wishing Arthur peace and happiness in his new home."

THE SALVATION ARMY.

Memorial Service and Obituary Notice of the Late Mrs. Phillips.

The memorial services of the late Mrs. Staff Capt. Phillips will be held in the Salvation Army Citadel, here, on Sunday, Sept. 2nd. Major McMillan, the provincial officer of Western Ontario, will have charge of the services. Mrs. Phillips was leader of the League of Mercy in this city, and was a very zealous worker, and by her efforts and constant life made for herself many friends. A large attendance is expected at the memorial service.

The late Mrs. Staff Captain Phillips had seen service in both the Old Country and Canada. She was a member of the First International Songsters that were organized in 1884 to tour the greater part of Western Ontario, in the interest of the International Training Homes, London.
Since coming to Canada, twelve years ago, she had seen considerable service in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and Victoria, B. C., and did considerable "specializing" in Montana and Idaho.
Her chief talent was singing, and she had been singing in the direction of the conversion of many of the wonderful characters, especially out in the west among the miners and sailors. She, with her husband, has been stationed in Western Ontario nearly three years. Her loss will be felt in this Province, as she was known at every corps except two.—Com.

David Bellair and John Evans ap-noon before Judge Woods for sentence. They had both been previously convicted of theft. His Honor, in passing sentence on Bellair, pointed out that to leave Bellair at liberty would be a menace to society, and he accordingly sentenced him to serve a term of five years in Kingston penisideration the fact that this was the first offence committed by Evans, and gave him only three months in jail, less three weeks, already served.

An USborne correspondent writes:

The barns and contents were insured Warton Echo.—A child of Mr.

Mr. Wm. Dobson, about five months old, which has been ill for some time was supposed to have died on Sunday night. In the evening of the above date it became cold and stiff, except near the heart, and respiration gradually stopped. The doctors reported that life was extinct, and the body was prepared for burial, though not however, put in the coffin. On Monday morning, to the surprise of all, the body again became warm and showed signs of life. The father at once picked the child up in his arms and touched it on the chin, when it opened its eyes and smiled. It then took some nourishment and showed signs of recovery. However, in a short time it relapsed into a comatose state, and then returned to consciousness again.
Several times this was repeated until Tuesday night, when it expired.
