London, Oct 15 .- Jim Mace, the pugilist was arrested in bed last night, and put under bonds to keep the peace. He was about to fight the Irish giant for the championship. It is asserted that the pugilists were to cross to France or Ireland and fight. Some are of the opinion that Mace sold the fight purposely.

There are wild rumors that the Fenians are planning to seize the person of Queen Victoria at Balmoral. Little credence is given to the report, but precautionary measures have been taken and the household guard at Balmoral are doubled.

London, Oct 15-Evening.-The Fenian alarm is spreading. The Government are in receipt of many dispatches announcing the possible plans of the brotherhood. Troops and gunboats have been dispatched to Ireland and the entire western coast guarded with extraordinary vigilance.

The news from Italy to-night is very important. The entire press of Italy are almost without exception in favor of the seizure of Rome by the Government. The strength of the party of action increases hourly, and recent successes have given them new courage. Sharp fights have occurred at various points in the province of Viterbo, in all of which the insurgents were successful. The Pope has called an immediate meeting of the Cardinals to consider the situation.

FLORENCE, Oct 15th.—Last advices uvians. from the Papal forces say they are falling back on Rome.

Paris, Oct 15 .- It is reported that Marshal Narvaez, the Spanish Premier, has offered Napoleon the assistance of Spain in sustaining the temporal power of the Pope.

Miraculous Escape from Instant Death. We regret to record a very serious accident which happened to Miss E. H. Priddis, eldest daughter of Mr Charles Priddis, merchant of this city, on Wednesday evening last. Miss Priddis, in company with several acquaintances, visited the North Branch Mills, in Petersville, for the purpose of meeting a friend. Arrived there, the young ladies were shown through the various rooms in the large mill, and were standing admiring some action they amuse themselves. If we were to tell him this he would only laugh; he has no pride about him, although full of vanity; and it matters not to him what we broadly affirm or quietly insinuate.

Her legs were severely injured, some of the wounds being very deep, while in others the bone was discernible. She was conveyed home and medical attendance procured, but still lies in a very low state.—London (C.W.)

FROM advices by the French mail from the West Coast of Africa we learn of the death of the warrior chief Mabba, who has for the last six years been a fearful scourge among the native tribes inhabitating the countries bordering on the English and French terria tories in the Senegambia. Mabba, in 1861. was a chief of but little importance in the kingdom of Baddiboo. He was, however, a staunch Mahomedan, and watching his opportunity in that year, he rebelled against his pagan King, put him to death, and assumed the supreme rule of the country. With fire and sword he established the religion of Islam, killing all those who would not shave their heads and swear on the Koran their adherence to his faith. This fanatical warrior, elated by the success he hed obtained over his negro brethren, in Jane, 1866, sent an invading army into the British territory on the Gambia, but was repulsed and sustained great losses from the able strategy of the Governor, Colonel D'Arcy: Mabba, however, then thought he would attack the French, and in December of the same year, with 4,000 warrisposses from the able strategy of the Governorm thought he would attack the French, and in December of the same year, with 4,000 warrisposses from the able strategy of the Governorm NEW WORLD from Puget Sound-375 hd 22 hd cattle, 2 cows and 4 calves, 57 sacks bran, 27 boxes apples, 2 do tomatoes, 8 scks oysters, 1 bx butter, 2 coops chickens, 20 boxes bread, 3 bbls flour, 2 qrs beef, 2 muttons, 1 bx cranberries, 1 pck ducks. ois, surrounded a party of 300 European French troops and massacred them all, with the exception of nine who alone escaped to tell the sad tale. The sacrifices and customs of the King of Dohomey are but a trifle compared to the slaughter and misery this fana-tic Mabba has by his ruthless policy inflicted on the unoffending negro races. This mail, hawever, brings the news that he had been captured in battle by Jolliffe, the King of Sein, and his head and hands sent exultingly by that King as a trophy of successful war to the Governor of the French Settlements on the Senegal. It has been computed that no less than 20,000 human beings have been killed or have died through starvation, or have been abducted and sold into slavery, by this monster Mabba under the cloak of religion, so that now his career is ended it is hoped that peace and prosperity may be restored to these unhappy countries.
