

Opposition Mud Slinging

Meeting in the Victoria Theatre Passes Resolutions, Con- demning Government.

A Passage at Arms Between Messrs. Green, Hall and Oliver.

In response to an advertisement signed by H. Dallas Helmecken, K. C., M. P., and A. B. McPhillips, K. C., M. P., two of the Victoria representatives in the Legislature, a large meeting assembled in the Victoria theatre last night to hear expressions of indignation on the question of the vacant seat in the Legislature consequent upon Mr. Turner's resignation last fall.

Mr. C. B. Redfern occupied the chair, and on the stage were: Messrs. A. B. McPhillips, M. P., P. P., Richard McBride, M. P., P. P., Denis Murphy, M. P., P. P., H. Helmecken, M. P., P. P., R. Green, M. P., P. P., Smith Ogden, M. P., P. P., Lagimodiere, P. C., McGreggor, E. V. Bodwell, Dr. Jones, E. Powell, Munn, Matson, Croft, Higgins, Hall, Patterson, Duff, MacKenzie and others.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting, which was to give the electors an opportunity to express their approval or disapproval of the government in bringing on the by-election in Victoria. It was a question of the government's right to issue the writ for the election, but they should have done so long ago.

There were also the various resolutions which had remained unfiled for several months in defiance of all precedent. He then called upon Mr. D. Helmecken, who read a letter from G. R. Tatlow, M. P., Vancouver, expressing sympathy with the objects of the meeting.

Mr. Helmecken said the meeting was one of the most important since the last election. It was a humiliation to the country that the Legislature should be called together with any of the seats vacant. It was a gross outrage which the electors should resent. He attributed the government's action in issuing the writ for the Victoria by-election to the wages and invalids. He repeated Mr. McPhillips' argument that the election in Victoria had been brought on by the first Tuesday in March.

He concluded by denouncing Mr. Dunsinuir in the most violent terms, accusing him of every crime in the political calendar.

Mr. Denis Murphy, M. P., P. P., contended that the action of the government in issuing the writ while the opposition resolution of Thursday was still on the order paper and before the government had actually defeated the opposition. Although a Liberal, he was prepared to give Mr. McBride a vote in the election, and he appealed to the people to unite to prevent constitutional, honest government, and to do with Mr. Dunsinuir or his cabinet.

It was very gratifying to see that the government had issued the writ of election and he hoped the electors would do their duty and elect the opposition candidate.

Mr. McPhillips felt that notwithstanding the writ, there was still ample cause for indignation—personally he felt that the matter, and he had no doubt that the electors would do their duty in electing the opposition candidate.

Mr. McPhillips then fiercely assailed the government for neglecting to fill the Victoria seat before the legislature was called for despatch of business. He blamed them for not having brought down the election before the 8th of March, as the meantime Victoria must suffer through the loss of business.

Mr. E. V. Bodwell said he would not occupy the time of the meeting, which would be addressed by many eloquent speakers. He would have several opportunities of addressing the electors during the campaign.

He had had a word to say to the Liberals of Victoria and of British Columbia. The present occasion called for an exposition of sound Liberal principles. He reviewed the fight for responsible government by the Liberals of Canada during the regime of the family compact, and compared the Victorian situation as familiar though in a lesser degree.

Mr. Green, M. P., P. P., said the people of the interior felt like a loss of Vintner that the government had betrayed the province. He attacked Mr. Richard Hall, (who was in the audience) charging him with neglect of duty in not forcing the government to issue the writ months ago. Mr. Hall was a steadfast supporter of the government.

Mr. Green—"He may not be a disappointed-office seeker, but he got—here the speaker made pantomimic gestures of counting noses."

Mr. John Oliver—"Shame! Shame!" Mr. Green indignantly resented Mr. Oliver's interruption, declaring that he had a perfect right to defend himself against Mr. Hall's insinuation that he (Green) was a disappointed-office seeker.

Mr. Richard McBride, M. P., P. P., was the next speaker. On rising he was greeted with a large bouquet and in gracefully acknowledged. He had been the opposition were a unit on the prohibition of Ontario, the construction of railways, and the redistribution, and all their energies would be bent upon assisting the development of the natural resources of the province—they would preserve the heritage of the people, and discontentance would be a thing of the past. Mr. Bodwell would be opposed, for he did not think a man could be found in Victoria to run as the candidate of the Dunsinuir-Martin camp.

Mr. C. H. Lugin said there was never an occasion of such moment to the future of the province than the present one. The last time he had spoken at a political meeting was to denounce the tyranny of a lieutenant-governor; tonight he appeared to denounce the tyranny of a minority. He appealed to every elector present to stand by the principle of constitutional government. The Legislature, to their shame, had adjourned the debate on Thursday when the Victoria members brought up the question of the vacant seat. It was the only case on record where a seat was found vacant when the Legislature met, when it was at all possible to fill it before the body assembled. It was an unparalleled outrage upon the electors. He scored the government for dragging the election of the electors, recently forwarded to the Lieutenant-Governor, and by him transmitted to the Cabinet. The object of the government in keeping the Victoria seat vacant was based on the hope that the Victoria representatives in the House, and in that way would be successful in inducing some one to oppose the government.

He concluded by appealing for support for Mr. Bodwell, and moved the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting the action of the government in withholding the writ for the Victoria city election for a period of three months, and until after the House had been convened, thereby arbitrarily reducing the number of members of the Legislature, and in an illegal manner our representative force, and in that way would be successful in inducing some one to oppose the government, is a gross outrage, and is deserving of the severest censure.

Mr. Smith Curtis, M. P., P. P., referred to the incident on the floor of the House between the Premier and Mr. Helmecken. It was a question of veracity between the two, and he would like to find out who was worthy of belief. He read the report of the affair from Thursday's Colonist. Mr. Dunsinuir said Mr. Helmecken kept him waiting for a month, but Mr. Curtis reminded his hearers that Mr. Dunsinuir just about the time he claimed to be waiting for Mr. Helmecken's answer, denounced that gentleman to the Legislature, and refused to answer him. Dunsinuir of suppressing news, and refusing to print notices of opposition resolutions in the Colonist. He moved the following resolution:

Moved by Mr. Curtis, seconded by Mr. P. C. McGreggor, resolved, That the meeting of the 22nd inst. in relation to the failure for five months to all the two members of the Legislature, and the Provincial Secretary, such failure being in violation of the provisions and spirit of the Constitution Act, and in violation of the interests of the country.

He accused Mr. Dunsinuir of treating his followers shabbily, and ignoring their rights, and then after his conduct had been exposed, he resorted to the wages and invalids. He repeated Mr. McPhillips' argument that the election in Victoria had been brought on by the first Tuesday in March.

He concluded by denouncing Mr. Dunsinuir in the most violent terms, accusing him of every crime in the political calendar.

Mr. Denis Murphy, M. P., P. P., contended that the action of the government in issuing the writ while the opposition resolution of Thursday was still on the order paper and before the government had actually defeated the opposition.

Although a Liberal, he was prepared to give Mr. McBride a vote in the election, and he appealed to the people to unite to prevent constitutional, honest government, and to do with Mr. Dunsinuir or his cabinet.

It was very gratifying to see that the government had issued the writ of election and he hoped the electors would do their duty and elect the opposition candidate.

Mr. McPhillips felt that notwithstanding the writ, there was still ample cause for indignation—personally he felt that the matter, and he had no doubt that the electors would do their duty in electing the opposition candidate.

Mr. McPhillips then fiercely assailed the government for neglecting to fill the Victoria seat before the legislature was called for despatch of business. He blamed them for not having brought down the election before the 8th of March, as the meantime Victoria must suffer through the loss of business.

Mr. E. V. Bodwell said he would not occupy the time of the meeting, which would be addressed by many eloquent speakers. He would have several opportunities of addressing the electors during the campaign.

He had had a word to say to the Liberals of Victoria and of British Columbia. The present occasion called for an exposition of sound Liberal principles. He reviewed the fight for responsible government by the Liberals of Canada during the regime of the family compact, and compared the Victorian situation as familiar though in a lesser degree.

Mr. Green, M. P., P. P., said the people of the interior felt like a loss of Vintner that the government had betrayed the province. He attacked Mr. Richard Hall, (who was in the audience) charging him with neglect of duty in not forcing the government to issue the writ months ago. Mr. Hall was a steadfast supporter of the government.

Mr. Green—"He may not be a disappointed-office seeker, but he got—here the speaker made pantomimic gestures of counting noses."

Mr. John Oliver—"Shame! Shame!" Mr. Green indignantly resented Mr. Oliver's interruption, declaring that he had a perfect right to defend himself against Mr. Hall's insinuation that he (Green) was a disappointed-office seeker.

Mr. Richard McBride, M. P., P. P., was the next speaker. On rising he was greeted with a large bouquet and in gracefully acknowledged. He had been the opposition were a unit on the prohibition of Ontario, the construction of railways, and the redistribution, and all their energies would be bent upon assisting the development of the natural resources of the province—they would preserve the heritage of the people, and discontentance would be a thing of the past. Mr. Bodwell would be opposed, for he did not think a man could be found in Victoria to run as the candidate of the Dunsinuir-Martin camp.

Mr. C. H. Lugin said there was never an occasion of such moment to the future of the province than the present one. The last time he had spoken at a political meeting was to denounce the tyranny of a lieutenant-governor; tonight he appeared to denounce the tyranny of a minority. He appealed to every elector present to stand by the principle of constitutional government. The Legislature, to their shame, had adjourned the debate on Thursday when the Victoria members brought up the question of the vacant seat. It was the only case on record where a seat was found vacant when the Legislature met, when it was at all possible to fill it before the body assembled. It was an unparalleled outrage upon the electors. He scored the government for dragging the election of the electors, recently forwarded to the Lieutenant-Governor, and by him transmitted to the Cabinet. The object of the government in keeping the Victoria seat vacant was based on the hope that the Victoria representatives in the House, and in that way would be successful in inducing some one to oppose the government.

He concluded by appealing for support for Mr. Bodwell, and moved the following resolutions:

Missing Man In Victoria Who Disappeared Traced To This City.

No Apparent Reason for His Leaving His Practice And Home.

Max Joseph, a prominent young attorney who disappeared from his home in New York on January 24, and for whose absence his relatives and friends have been unable to account, has been traced as far as Victoria, and he is believed to be in the city.

He was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life. Mr. Joseph came through from the East on the steamer Prince of Wales on the evening of February 3, and as far as can be learned has not yet left the city in fact a man and a boy.

Next morning at low tide the sealer was able to walk over the shingle to the vessel, and to walk around the hull. The sum total of the injuries to the hull was not serious. The Indian schooner was not damaged. A tent was erected about 200 yards away from the schooner, and the sealer's camp was established. The sealer's chronometer and other articles, including the stove and bed, were taken from the schooner. The sealer, who was taken there, was only when the tide was out that the schooner could be reached.

When the tide rose a war canoe with the sealer's swatches, accompanied by the sealer's dog, was taken to the Indian hunters had carried news to the rancher that the schooner must have been wrecked. The sealer's dog was taken to the schooner. They were noticeably disappointed when they found the schooner intact and the sealer's dog was taken to the schooner. During the day over 50 Indians paddled about the wrecked vessel. Capt. McLean of the first sealer's party had the schooner's chronometer and other articles, including the stove and bed, were taken from the schooner. The sealer, who was taken there, was only when the tide was out that the schooner could be reached.

On the 13th Capt. Gullin asked some of the Indians to go to the wreck in a canoe. Second Mate, Cold, Hunter, and chief, Wilson and Boat-steerer Williams, accompanied by the sealer's dog, were taken to the schooner. They were noticeably disappointed when they found the schooner intact and the sealer's dog was taken to the schooner. During the day over 50 Indians paddled about the wrecked vessel. Capt. McLean of the first sealer's party had the schooner's chronometer and other articles, including the stove and bed, were taken from the schooner. The sealer, who was taken there, was only when the tide was out that the schooner could be reached.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Fawn on The Rocks

Capt. McLean Found the Mainland of the Fawn, and a Few Hours Afterward He Found the Fawn on the Rocks.

Capt. McLean found the mainland of the Fawn, and a few hours afterward he found the Fawn on the rocks. The Fawn was a small schooner, and was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

A Patient Little Robber

Under a Bed For Twenty Hours in North Park Street Residence.

James Bates, a boy of not more than a dozen years of age, continues to be a patient little robber. He was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

DIAMOND DYES

Give Surprising Results.

Do not for a moment imagine that because dyes are colored over with Diamond Dyes that they will look shabby. The dyes are of the highest quality, and will give the most surprising results.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.

Mr. Joseph had no apparent reason for leaving his home. He enjoyed a good and lucrative practice, and had a perfect happy home. A young man of 30 years of age, of a pleasant disposition, and of the brightest. On January 24 he left his home in New York, and he was seen here on Thursday, although relatives residing here have been unable to find him, and incline to the opinion that he has taken his own life.