thing in fact was wrong, and it was only when Mr. Abbott's appointment to the Board was a touched upon that the malevolence of the whole firade became apparent and its animous traceable to the old original source of Globe inspiration. With the discovery of the dictating spite arises always doubt and contempt of the matter in which it is wisopped. The feader of the Gevernment in the Senate is party man there, but is far too clearheaded and conscientious to carry politics into the bank parior. The Globe's attack on the bank, on Mr. Abbott and on the C.P.R. is traceable at once to political spite, and therefore falls dat and harmless. When will the Reform organ arrive at a Knewledge of what everbody else fully inderstands. The policy of a bank may be right or wrong when it puts up rates or calls indown. But the action is taken always with full knowledge of the bank's requirements, of Burglary at Peierbore.

Peterbore, May 2.—St. Peter's Cathedral and the residence of Rev. Father McEvoy were visited last night by burglars. The gang first forced the door of the cathedral and rifled the poor box of a small sum and then proceeded to the room, containing the safe, which was bored and blown open. The noise awoks Fathers McEvoy and Rudkins, who rushed down stairs. One of the burglars shouted, 'Go back, you—or I'll shoot, and immediately fired at Father Rudkins, but fortunately did not hit him. A number of other shoets were fired and, after securing $5 in silver, they escaped by way of the parlor window.
