Visitors say that Middleton is doing more building than any other town of like size in the province. The foundation of another structure was laid to-day by Mr. George Smith. The dimensions are 30 ft. by 100 ft., two stories high, beside a seven foot basement. When completed, it will be used for a bottling factory and warehouse. And now a bottling factory and warehouse. And now the talk is the necessity of a canning factory, which is of more importance to the farmers of the immediate vicinity than to the town of the immediate vicinity than to the town itself. There are large quantities of fruits and vegetables grown by farmers that can be better utilized in a canning factory than any other way, and it is believed with present production, an industry of this nature can be made a paying investment.
