

The effect of malaria lasts a long time. You catch cold easily or become run-down because of the after effects of malaria. Strengthen yourself with Scott's Emulsion.

It builds new blood and tones up your nervous system.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Furniture Sale

To have more room to rent, I will sell:—

4 MAHOGANY CHAIRS.	1 first class PIANO, for $85.00.
1 MAHOGANY EASY CHAIR.	1 FEATHER BED.
1 STOVE, 2 SOFAS.	1 CARPET.
1 MAHOGANY CENTRE TABLE.	1 MUSIC STOOL.
2 ROCKING CHAIRS.	2 STANDS.
1 BEDROOM SET.	2 BRACKETS.

All at very low figures

Miss Lockett. QUEEN STREET

Millinery Bargains

HATS TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED AT LIBERAL DISCOUNTS FROM THIS DATE

MISS CHUTE Bridgetown and Annapolis Royal

GARDEN HOSE

This Hot Weather is the time to use your Garden Hose Best quality of three quarter five ply at Chowe's for 15c per foot.

R ALLEN CROWE

Patent Leather Shoes

Goodyear Welt Men's $3.50 4.00 4.50

Best Quality Women's $2.75 3.00

Kinney's Shoe Store, Primrose Block.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success"

The Manufacturer's Life

New Business for first half-year 1907. $5,177,628

O. P. GOUCHER, General Agent, MIDDLETON, N. S.

CREAT VARIETY OF FRESH CRISP UP-to-DATE BREAKFAST FOODS

Some of the best sellers are:—

New England Wheat Cream Sterilized Cream of Wheat Quaker Puffed Rice Quaker Wheat Berries Whole wheat n meal Malta Vita, Rolled wheat, wheatlets

J. ELLOYD

Among Our Neighbors

Aylesford

(August 21st.)

Miss Jennie West, of Boxbury, Mass is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha West.

Mrs. Marguerite Page, Mrs. Henry Jacques and little daughter, Pauline, of Middleton, spent Friday with Mrs. Abner Woodworth.

Freeman Banks, of Massachusetts, is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banks.

Miss Blanche Sanford, of Bridgetown, visited friends in Aylesford last week.

Miss Addie Bishop, graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, is home for the summer months.

Dr. Conant and wife, of Boston, are visiting relatives in Aylesford.

W. R. Bars, of New Germany, and guests of friends in Aylesford recently.

A. K. Kelley, of Halifax, have been by.

Mrs. Taylor, of United States, with her little daughter, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Taylor.

Milton D. Davidson, B. Sc., returns to North Sydney this week, where he will resume his duties of principalship of the academy.

A number of the Woodworth Road people spent a very pleasant day at Morden on Thursday, August 16th, that being the anniversary of a similar gathering last year at the same place.

The parlor concert held at the home of George Eaton on Saturday evening was an interesting affair. The following program was rendered:

Piano solo, Hunting Song, Jeffrey-Miss Bishop.

Reading—Mr. Bars.

Vocal solo—Dr. Conant.

Violin solo, selection from Tannhauser—Mr. Burnham.

Reading—Miss Chute.

Vocal solo, "I'm singing of you," Gertrude Sans—Sorie—Miss Woodworth.

Piano solo, "Cantique D'Amour," Liszt—Miss Bishop.

Reading—Dr. Conant.

Vocal solo, "O Dry Those Tears!" Deverezie—Miss Woodworth.

Violin solo—Mr. Burnham.

Reading—Miss Chute.

Vocal solo—Dr. Conant.

Piano duet, Waltz and Finale, Bohm—Miss Bishop and Mrs. Wallace.

After the serenade, ice cream and cake were served in the dining room.

We understand that Dr. Milford Harris and Mrs. Harris are soon to start for Virginia.

Mrs. Clara Patterson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Foster, of West Paradise.

Fred Patterson has returned from Massachusetts and has purchased the home of Captain Parker, of Bewick.

Frank Patterson and Henry Patterson, of Montreal and Boston, spent a few days in Aylesford recently.

Miss Annie Woodworth, who has been visiting friends in Halifax, has returned home.

Miss Grant, of Massachusetts, has been the guest of Mrs. Abbie Dodge.

Miss Stack, of United States, is visiting her friend, Miss Margaret McDormand.

Percy McNeal, with his friend, Mr. Goodigan, of Montreal, is visiting Mr. McNeal's parents.

Architect Fairn was in Lunenburg last week on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kelley, of Brooklyn, New York, arrived recently and are furnishing their villa in a most luxurious and attractive manner.

Mrs. Taylor, of United States, with her little daughter, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Taylor.

Milton D. Davidson, B. Sc., returns to North Sydney this week, where he will resume his duties of principalship of the academy.

A number of the Woodworth Road people spent a very pleasant day at Morden on Thursday, August 16th, that being the anniversary of a similar gathering last year at the same place.

The parlor concert held at the home of George Eaton on Saturday evening was an interesting affair. The following program was rendered:

Piano solo, Hunting Song, Jeffrey-Miss Bishop.

Reading—Mr. Bars.

Vocal solo—Dr. Conant.

Violin solo, selection from Tannhauser—Mr. Burnham.

Reading—Miss Chute.

Vocal solo, "I'm singing of you," Gertrude Sans—Sorie—Miss Woodworth.

Piano solo, "Cantique D'Amour," Liszt—Miss Bishop.

Reading—Dr. Conant.

Vocal solo, "O Dry Those Tears!" Deverezie—Miss Woodworth.

Violin solo—Mr. Burnham.

Reading—Miss Chute.

Vocal solo—Dr. Conant.

Piano duet, Waltz and Finale, Bohm—Miss Bishop and Mrs. Wallace.

After the serenade, ice cream and cake were served in the dining room.

We understand that Dr. Milford Harris and Mrs. Harris are soon to start for Virginia.

Mrs. Clara Patterson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Foster, of West Paradise.

Fred Patterson has returned from Massachusetts and has purchased the home of Captain Parker, of Bewick.

Frank Patterson and Henry Patterson, of Montreal and Boston, spent a few days in Aylesford recently.

Miss Annie Woodworth, who has been visiting friends in Halifax, has returned home.

Miss Grant, of Massachusetts, has been the guest of Mrs. Abbie Dodge.

Miss Stack, of United States, is visiting her friend, Miss Margaret McDormand.

Percy McNeal, with his friend, Mr. Goodigan, of Montreal, is visiting Mr. McNeal's parents.

Architect Fairn was in Lunenburg last week on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kelley, of Brooklyn, New York, arrived recently and are furnishing their villa in a most luxurious and attractive manner.

Graville Centre

Mrs. J. W. Wade, accompanied by her son and daughter, left on Friday last to visit her son, Fred, in Quebec.

Miss Lillian Fowler, of Bridgetown, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Bernice Rice is the guest of Mrs. Stella Covert.

Mrs. Anthony and daughter, of Boston, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Wade.

Louis Withers and wife, of California, are spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Withers.

Rupert Willett, of St. John, recently visited his mother, Mrs. Gilbert Willett.

Miss Mary McCormick, of Boston, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCormick.

Mrs. Austin, of Texas, is the guest of Mrs. Howard Young.

Miss Mary Tanch has returned from a visit to relatives in Digby.

Annie Cabot and Clyde Gilliat were successful in obtaining B certificate; Judson Eaton C. Charles Dunn, Charles Gilliat and Lulu Withers D. J. C. Withers entertained a number of the young people Friday evening last in honor of the birthday of her son, Richard Lang.

Mrs. Gerkey Jensen, of Shelbyville, Indiana, and two children are guests of her aunt, Mrs. Valentine Eaton.

Mrs. Jensen (formerly Miss Ava Gray) after an absence of twenty-three years returns to the place of her birth and will make an extended visit with relatives in different parts of the County.

Lower Graville

Mrs. Corine and son returned to her home in New York on Saturday. Mrs. George W. Chisholm accompanied them.

William B. Long, accompanied by his friends, Mr. Blaisdell and Mr. Finley, came from Allston, Mass., on Friday to spend their vacation.

A literary entertainment consisting of readings, dialogues and music was given in Karslake's Hall on Thursday evening by the young people interested in the Episcopal Church. Ice cream was also served. The attendance was large and the sum of $14 realized.

We regret to report the death of Barton B. Ite, which sad event took place at his residence, Port Wade, on Saturday afternoon. Although suffering from consumption for a long period, the end came unexpectedly.

Mr. Ellis was a man of industrious habits and an obliging disposition. He leaves a widow, who was a Mrs. Evans, of Wolfville, who has the deep sympathy of the community in her sad bereavement.

Rev. Mr. Kinley preached his farewell sermons on Sunday last and leaves shortly to attend Newton Theological Institute.

Rev. J. E. Warner, of Middleton, spent Wednesday night in this place, the guest of James H. Thorne.

Mrs. John K. Winchester and daughter, Mrs. Hale, arrived from Lowell, Mass., last week. We notice Mr. Winchester has his threshing machine set up and grain is already coming in.

Mrs. Warden and Mr. and Mrs. McElhinney, of Lynn, are visiting their brother-in-law, David M. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Healy and daughter, of Marshfield, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Morison, junior.

Mrs. Joseph K. Healy went to Lynn on Saturday.

Mrs. John E. Bent, of Lynn, is visiting friends here.

Paradise West

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitman are visiting relatives in Digby.

Mrs. Patterson and Miss Patterson, of Aylesford, are the guests of Mrs. G. Foster.

Mrs. A. T. Morse returned home on Monday from a short visit to Aylesford.

E. E. Healy returned home last week from a visit to Middleton and Deep Brook.

Miss Jessie Balmont, of Halifax, is visiting her cousin, Miss Hilda Atkin, Evergreen Cottage.

Miss Hattie Morse, of Medford, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Messenger.

Miss Julia Langille, of Washington, is the guest of her uncle, Alonzo Danilek.

Our teacher, Miss Mae Ritzy, of Nictaux Falls, commenced her school duties as teacher here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson made a flying visit here last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Mungerson.

ALBANY

Miss Lillie Sheldon was united in marriage to Amos Vahot, of Hantsport, on Saturday, the 19th. Rev. Mr. Dykeman, of Middleton, performed the ceremony.

Rev. Walter Schurman preached with great acceptance in the Baptist Church last evening to a large and attentive audience.

Professor Morse, of Nictaux, has a class of music pupils, in this place, both instrumental and vocal.

Miss Charlotte Roberts, of Digby, now doing military at Bars's Corner, New Germany, was the guest of her aunts on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Starratt, of Paradise, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fairn on Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Fairn accompanied them home, where she will remain for a week's visit.

Rev. Arthur Whitman and family, of Sydney Mines, expect to visit Albany in the near future. We understand the former will stop at Wolfville to the convention and his family will come right on here on Saturday, the 24th.

Miss Oliver, of Lynn, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lemuel Murray.

Miss Palfrey, of Lawrenceport, was the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Merry.

PORT LOYNE

(August 21st.)

Thaddeus Dunn, of East Bridgewater is spending his vacation in this place.

Neil P. Hall, accompanied by his friend, George A. Lock, of Lynn, is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Hall.

Quite a number of people of this place took advantage of the excursion to Margarettville by S. S. Ruby Co. on 19th instant.

Mrs. John Walker, son and daughter, of Midland, N. B., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Phineas Banks.

The Clarence and Paradise Sabbath Schools held their annual picnic on the grounds of Phineas Banks on Thursday last.

Mr. Peter Mann, of New Jersey, is spending his vacation in this place.

Our school opened to-day under the management of our former teacher, Miss B. Young.

Miss Emice Anderson and Miss Beatrice Starratt, of this place, have taken charge of the schools at St. Croix and Margarettville respectively.

Miss Nettie Cook, of Bridgetown, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Rachel Banks, has returned home.

Fred Marshall, of Clarence, is visiting his friend, Johnson Bourcley.

We are glad to report Captain J. H. Anderson is convalescing under the treatment of Dr. Morse.

LAWRENCETOWN

Quite a number from here spent Saturday at Middleton.

Bert Jefferson had the misfortune to fall from their new house last week, hurting his shoulder quite badly.

A very heavy thunder storm passed over here Sunday, beginning at 10 a. m. and lasting until 4 p. m. A telephone post in front of Alvin Shaffer's house was struck but no serious damage was done. The telephone wires at Doctors Young and Primrose's residences and S. T. Jefferson's store burnt out during the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bent, of Outram, went last Friday afternoon at D. M. Milbury's.

Miss Leda Bushen, after spending two weeks with friends at Moncton, has returned to Digby and will visit there a week before coming home.

Owing to a break-down on Saturday's express, quite a number of folk arrived at Middleton too late to hear the speeches.

DR. F. S. ANDERSON

Graduate of the University Maryland

PAINLESS EXTRACTION

By Nitrous and Local Anesthesia

Crown and Bridge Work a specialty.

Office: Queen street, Bridgetown.

Hours: 9 to 5.

ARTHUR S. BURNS

B. A. M. D. C. N.

Physician, Surgeon and Accouchieur

Office and residence, Granville street, Bridgetown. Telephone connections.

(Formerly Dr. Barnaby)

J. J. RITCHIE, K. C.,

Keith Building Halifax

Mr. Ritchie will continue to attend the sittings of the Courts in the County. All communications from Annapolis clients addressed to him at Halifax, will receive his personal attention.

Arthur Horsfall DDS. - DMD

Dentist

Will be at his office Mondays and Tuesdays of each week.

Office of late Dr. Primrose.

Hours: 10 to 5.

O. S. Miller

BARRISTER,

Real Estate Agent, etc.

SHIFFNER BUILDING, BRIDGETOWN, N. S.

Prompt and satisfactory attention given to the collection of claims, and all other professional business.

J. M. OWEN

BARRISTER & NOTARY PUBLIC

Annapolis Royal

MIDDLETON, WEDNESDAY.

Office in Butcher's Block.

Hours: 10 to 5 p.m. on Real Estate Society.

O. T. Daniels

BARRISTER,

NOTARY PUBLIC, Etc.

NOTION BANK BUILDING.

Head of Queen St., Bridgetown

Money to Loan on First-Class Real Estate.

LESLIE R. FAIRN

ARCHITECT

AYLESFORD N. S.

J. B. WHITMAN,

LAND SURVEYOR

BRIDGETOWN N. S.

Undertaking

We do undertaking in all its branches.

Hearse sent to any part of the County.

J. H. HICKES & SON

Queen St., Bridgetown, Telephone 46

J. M. FULMER, Manager.

If You Want Cheap Photos

I cannot make them, but I will make a specialty for a time of high grade work in art folders, artists proofs in Sepia, the new portrait paper. Call and see samples. Ops Saturday afternoons.

Percy Saunders, Photographer

Wanted!

Active Young Farmers

To send us descriptions of farms and country real estate now for sale, and to show our customers about. Must own team and live near depot or stage line. A dozen of our salesmen in Maine are making $1000 to $2000 every year. You can do as well. Write us to-day and mention what experience, if any, you have had as agent or salesman, and state what towns you wish to work in.

F. A. Strout Company

"Largest Farm Agency in the World."

8-BROAD ST BOSTON MASS.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIS-CARGET IN COWS. TEMPER.

865 1907

Union Bank of Halifax

INCORPORATED 1856

Capital, $1,500,000 Rest, $1,143,752

All kinds of Banking Business transacted, and all accounts receive careful attention

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT

At its Thirty-Seven Branches in NOVA SCOTIA

Interest added to accounts four times a year.

HEAD OFFICE - - - - - HALIFAX N. S.

LAWRENCETOWN.

Quite a number from here spent Saturday at Middleton.

Bert Jefferson had the misfortune to fall from their new house last week, hurting his shoulder quite badly.

A very heavy thunder storm passed over here Sunday, beginning at 10 a. m. and lasting until 4 p. m. A telephone post in front of Alvin Shaffer's house was struck but no serious damage was done. The telephone wires at Doctors Young and Primrose's residences and S. T. Jefferson's store burnt out during the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bent, of Outram, went last Friday afternoon at D. M. Milbury's.

Miss Leda Bushen, after spending two weeks with friends at Moncton, has returned to Digby and will visit there a week before coming home.

Owing to a break-down on Saturday's express, quite a number of folk arrived at Middleton too late to hear the speeches.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES PAIN.