YOUNG-ADAMS CO. IN BRIDGETOWN

Three Best Shows This Season—Entertain Rebekahs Who Also Show Their Appreciation.

The popular and always welcome Young-Adams Company opened a three night engagement at the Primrose Theatre on Thursday evening to a large audience.
The opening play was "Rich Man, Poor Man". The short time between acts was filled with refined vaudeville. Mr. Young spoke about the splendid degree work conferred by the degree staff of Annapolis Leaf Rebekah Lodge, Bridgetown, at Bear River, Monday evening, October 25th, when Elfr Rebekah Lodge No. 82, was instituted. The members of the Rebekah degree staff were admitted to the play free of charge. Miss Adams is also a Rebekah.

Friday night the bill was "East Lynne," one of the best plays that the company ever put on. The leading role as Lady Isabel was taken by Miss Adams. The story of the play is one that grips the heart of the audience. The work of H. Wilmot Young in the role of Archibald Carlyle was up to his usual good standard and the remaining members of the company were excellent in their various parts.

After the play was over the members of the company were entertained by the Rebekahs in their lodge room, refreshments being served.

Saturday afternoon "Lena Rivers" was enjoyed by a large audience. The school children were each presented with a ticket and a bag of candy.

The last play, Saturday night, was "The Love Divine" and was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. The people of Bridgetown are looking forward to a return date in the near future.

THE MYRTLE HOUSE

(Digby Courier)

A. T. Spurr, of the Myrtle House, has just returned from a trip to St. John. While in that city he completed the deal with the Harding estate by which he has become the owner of the Myrtle House and fittings. Mr. Spurr has made many friends among the travelling public during the past two seasons and those who make the Myrtle House their summer home will be delighted to know that in the future it will be under his permanent management.

Carpenters, plumbers and painters will start at once on extensive repairs and alterations which will be carried on through the winter. Additional bath rooms and a great many other changes will be made. The grounds are to be improved and the dancing pavilion doubled in size and finally a new Studebaker 1½ Six seven passenger car has been ordered from Guy Morehouse.

ST. CROIX COVE

Mr. J. Handsaker, Digby, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Milbury.

Miss Laura Titus, Hampton, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Poole.

Mr. Chester Hall left on Friday, 22nd, for New Britain, Conn., where he has employment for the winter.

Mrs. Ernest Ray and daughter Mrs. Ira Brinton and baby Boyd, Hampton, spent Thursday at the home of Capt. E. Brinton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brinton, Port Lorne, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hines, Mt. Rowe, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hall, the 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Poole and daughter, Myrna, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. B. Armstrong.

Mr. Hanly, who gave them an auto trip to Wilmot, the 24th, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Baker.

Local Happenings

The W. M. A. S. will meet in the vestry of the Baptist Church, on Tuesday evening Nov 9th, at 7.30.

Dr. J. B. Hall, Lawrencetown, is the President for the ensuing year of the Annapolis Co., S. S. Association.

The Baptist District meeting will be held in the Nictaux Baptist Church next Monday and Tuesday, November 8th and 9th.

The regular meeting of the G. W. V. A., will be held in the Ruggles block on Friday evening, November 5th, at 8.30 o'clock.

The members of the Third Degree team of Crescent Lodge are especially requested to be present to morrow (Thursday) evening.

The Social Club will hold a dance in the Ruggles building on Friday November 5th. Ladies are requested to bring refreshments.

The Women's Institute will meet in the board of trade rooms on Tuesday afternoon, November 4th, at 3.30. Will all the members kindly attend?

The Tuxis boys held a conference at Amherst last Sunday. Halifax was represented by more than 25 boys. This affair, as usual, proved a big success.

The Wesleyan says that the Boys' Conference which was recently held at Bridgetown, had the following registration: Methodists 32, Baptists 21, Anglican 20, Presbyterians 11, Congregational 1, total 95.

We have received a small box of strawberries from one of our Granville subscribers, but unfortunately we have lost the name of the contributor. They are certainly remarkable at this season of the year.

The first of the usual series of social gatherings held during the Winter under the auspices of St. James Church Organized Bible Class, will take place this (Wednesday) evening in their school room.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

To Our Patrons:
It gives us great pleasure to announce that we intend to present to our patrons The Girl From Nowhere on Thursday November 4th.

Cleo Madison, who has been acclaimed one of the most beautiful women on the screen, and Wilfred Lucas, the famous actor and director, are the stars of the production.

The scenes of the picture are laid in the picturesque wilderness of the great northwest, where law and order are little respected. The story deals with experiences of a young girl who has lost her memory and is found wandering helplessly in the depths of the woods.

Around her and the mystery of her past a swift moving drama of profound interest and suspense has been constructed.

The acting is superb the scenic setting beautiful, and the story enthralling from start to finish.

The Girl From Nowhere shows that virtue is always safe, and that no matter how craftily a man conceals his wrongdoing, in the end his sin will find him out.

We hope that you will be with us when we show The Girl From Nowhere.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

REV. J. M. FISHER

The many friends of Rev. Joseph Mayhew Fisher, will be touched to sadness as they learn of his death which occurred at his home in Hantsport, Oct 28th. He had been ill for many months, though sometimes he improved a little and bravely ventured out into the charming sunlight of God's great "Out of doors." Near two weeks ago he became very much worse and soon his wife and friends saw that the end was near. He will be much missed in the home as in the town and in the church to which his life and ministry have been given.

He was born at Amherst Head Cumberland Co., near the middle of the last century, and after due preparation began his public ministry in 1872. His literary taste and attainments were of a high order, and his pulpit ministry was illuminating, stimulating and refreshing. Among the Circuits that were favored with his pastoral oversight were, Advocate Harbor, Bermuda, Musquodoboit, Mill Village, Granville Ferry, Yarmouth, Digby, Canning, Ritey's Cove, and his latest charges with intervals of superannuation on the ground of ill health, were Hantsport, Burlington and Newport. He finally superannuated in 1917, and since that date has lived in Hantsport.

A large circle of those who have appreciated him and his rich gospel ministrations will hold him in tender remembrance and will extend warmest sympathy to the bereaved widow and the fatherless sons and daughter.

MISS BRENDA LOCKETT

Miss Brenda Lockett passed peacefully away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. R. Troop, Bridgetown, Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, aged 74 years. The deceased, who was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Lockett, of Manchester, England, was born in St. George, N. B. She carried on an extensive millinery business in Kentville for ten years, but about two years ago was stricken with paralysis, removing to Bridgetown, where she resided until the time of her death. Miss Lockett was a member of the Episcopal Church. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Wm. R. Troop, of this town and Mrs. M. L. Nutter, of Waltham, Mass., also one brother, Mr. E. C. Lockett, of South Minster, N. B.

The funeral took place from her late home Monday afternoon with interment in the Round Hill cemetery services at the house and at the grave being conducted by Rev. E. Underwood, rector of St. James parish. The pall bearers were: A. F. Hiltz, George Gill, E. A. Craig, B. N. Messinger. The floral tribute were beautiful showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

RICHARD RICHARDSON

Mr. Richard Richardson, after an illness of over five years, passed peacefully away at the home of his son, Rev. M. S. Richardson at 11.20 Thursday evening. The deceased who was a member of the Baptist Church, was born in West Jeddore, Halifax, Co., 88 years ago. He accompanied his son to Bridgetown three years ago when the latter accepted the pastorate of the Bridgetown Baptist church. He leaves two sons, Rev. M. S., of Bridgetown and James S., of South Frankingham, Mass., and one daughter, Mrs. William Smith, of Halifax. He is also survived by one brother, Eliza Richardson, also of Halifax. Remains were conveyed to Halifax via Friday's express accompanied by Rev. M. S. Richardson, interment taking place in West Jeddore. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.
