No. II.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

MR. ALFRED GEDDES, OTTAWA,

JUDGED the poultry section at the Almonte Fair and according to reports from local breeders gave the greatest satisfaction.

MR. GEO. C. PHILPOTT, MONTREAL, won first on silver Wyandotte hen and first on pullet at Montreal, which we omitted when publishing the list of awards.

HAMILTON ASSOCIATION.

Owing to pressure of other business Mr. Richardson has been obliged to surrender his position as Secretary, and Mr. T. D. Murphy has been elected to fill the vacancy.

DELAY IN DELIVERY.

Mr. W. H. Reid, of Kingston, experienced rather hard lines at the recent Montreal Show. His birds arrived at 7 a.m., but were not delivered by the Dominion Express Co. till 10.30, too late for some classes which had already been judged.

"LOW COST POULTRY HOUSES"

is the name of a neat and practical little book on the subject conveyed by its title. The price is but twenty-five cents free by mail from the Fanciers Review, East Chatham, N.Y.

CORRECTIONS—TORONTO AWARDS.

For Webber in black Java hens, black Wyandotte hens and model poultry house read Webber & Robertson.

"FEW EQUALS, IF ANY." THEY ALL SAY SO.

"You may publish the following if you think fit in the next issue of REVIEW :

I inserted only one ad. in your exchange columns and four days after October number was issued I had my hands full in replying to so many queries about light Brahmas I had to exchange. I sent the birds to Mr. Geo. Bartlett, London, Ont., for black Spanish. Every poultry keeper should take the REVIEW. As a medium of advertising "it has few equals if any." Yours truly, Jas. H. White, Ottawa.'

MR. CARLOS A. SHARP,

the senior member of the firm of C. A. Sharp & Co., Lockport, N.Y., well known as importers, breeders and exhibitors of poultry passed away on Sunday, October 22nd. The cause of death was heart failure and the end came quite suddenly. It was not unexpected as Mr. Sharp had been ailing for some time. The business of the firm will be carried on under the old name by the two sons Orrimer K. and Frank S. Sharp.

AMERICAN POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

At the annual meeting in Chicago held during the World's Fair Show, the Hon. Sid. Conger, of Flat River, Ind., was elected President, and Mr. G. O. Brown, Baltimore, Md., Secretary-Treasurer.

NEW BREEDS ADMITTED.

The following new breeds were admitted to the standard which is to be revised and published by April next, buff Leghorns, buff Wyandottes, buff Plymouth Rocks, black, white and partridge Cochin Bantams, Malay Bantams and black and white Japanese Bantams. Rumpless and Frizzles were reinstated.

EXHIBITORS TO RECEIVE RECOGNITION.

An informal reception was held on October 21st in the Canadian pavilion Chicago, by their Excellencies the Gov-
