

W. B. M. U. TIDINGS

Vol 2 Amherst, N.S., March. 1895. No. 16.

MOTTO FOR THE YEAR

“Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak for your work shall be rewarded.”

PRAYER TOPIC:

Thanksgiving to God for His watchful care over our missionaries, permitting them to reach their work in safety, and that wisdom may be given all those at home who direct the work; that it may be done in the way that will bring most glory to His name.

LETTER FOR “TIDINGS.”

How I wish I could drop down in your midst and have a chat with you instead of having to write this letter! I would not need to say “what shall I write”, but you could ask me questions and it would be so easy to talk with you.

This is a delightfully cool and pleasant morning! I hear the waves beating against the rocks on the
