

Come with us. You need a Church Home

Notes.

At our business meeting, Dec. 5th inst., the Finance Committee submitted a statement up to Dec. 1st, as follows:—Liabilities (current expenses) about $350 00; due on subscriptions $285 00, of which $85 00 is considered doubtful. That leaves an apparent deficit to Dec. 1st of $150.00. We cannot emphasize too strongly the necessity of those who are in arrears handing in at once the balance due on their subscriptions. We aim to commence the year 1900 with a clean sheet. Will you help us?

The Annual Business Meeting of the church will be held on the evening of Jan. 9. All committees of the church report. Will the various chairmen see that their reports are prepared and presented on that evening.

The Grandest Xmas Sale. The ladies are putting forth all their energies to make the sale on Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week the best and biggest they have ever held. A splendid opportunity will be given to secure presents. Remember the tea from 6 to 8 P. M.

We are going to have a grand "Century Roll Call" on the evening of Jan. 3. The committee are busily at work, and are endeavoring to make the occasion the largest and most joyful church family re-union we have ever had. Begin to talk about it, look forward to it, and pray for it. You will hear more about it soon.

Sunday, Dec. 17th, 4 p. m., there will be a sacred concert in our church auditorium. The success of the organ recital and sacred concert held Nov. 21st, ult. is a sufficient advance recommendation of the concert next Sunday. A silver offering will be taken. Come yourself and bring your friends.

The Address of our Bro. N. B. Smith on the life of J. B. Paton was much appreciated. We only wish that every member of our church could have heard it. We hope to hear at future missionary meetings from others of our promising young people. When you fail to attend a missionary service you suffer loss.

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor. Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply envelopes for "CURRENT EXPENSES," "MORTGAGE FUND," and "ORGAN FUND." "Conven ion Fund" offering the Second Sunday of each month.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.
