FRICASSER OF EGGS.—Take some hard-boiled eggs, cut them into quarters, yolks and whites. Heat some gravy seasoned with shred lemon peel, parsley, thyme and grated nutmeg. Put in the eggs, together with a piece of butter rolled in flour, shake it gently over the fire until properly thickened; garnished with yolks of hard-boiled eggs, chopped small.

Consumption Surely Cured.

SLOCUM, Branch Office, 37 Yonge Street, Toronto.

EGANTINE PUDDING.—Cut thin slices of light white bread and line a pudding shape with them, putting in alternate layers of the bread and orange marmalade or any other preserve until the mould is nearly full. Pour over all a pint of warm milk in which four well-beaten eggs have been mixed. Cover the mould with a cloth and boil for an hour and a half.

THE MOST EXQUISITE handkerchief perfume—"Lotus of the Nile."

APPLE MERINGUE.—Prepare a tart apples for sauce. While hot put in a piece of butter the size of an egg. When cold add a cup of fine cracker crumbs, the yolks of three eggs well beaten, a cup of sweet milk or cream, a little salt, nutmeg and sugar to taste. Bake in a large plate with an undercrust of rich paste and a rim of puff paste. When done take the whites of the eggs, half a teaspoon of white sugar and a few drops of essence of lemon; beat to stiff froth, pour over and put back into the oven to brown lightly.

TAPIOCA PUDDING.—This is very light and delicate for invalids. An even tablespoonful of tapioca, soaked for two hours in nearly a cup of new milk. Stir into this the yolk of a fresh egg, a little sugar, a grain of salt, and bake in a cup for fifteen minutes. A little jelly may be eaten with it.

A CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, if so desired. Send 6c in stamps for book and testimonials from those who have been cured. Address M. V. Lubon, 47 Wellington Street East, Toronto, Ont.

FILLING FOR CAKE.—Put one cup of powdered sugar into a saucepan, with one quarter of a cup of water. Let them simmer gently until the sugar is dissolved, and in fact a little stiff when dropped into cold water, then add the white of an egg beaten to a stiff froth, half cup of chopped raisins, and a tablespoonful of cocoanut. Flavour with vanilla. This makes an excellent icing by leaving out raisins and cocoanut.

AN UNDOUBTED OPINION.—"I was severely troubled with diarrhoea, and having used some of the wonderful Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry, I was in a short time completely cured. I can recommend it as a splendid medicine." Wm. A. Stafford, Shedden, Ont.

GOOD PUMPKIN PIES.—Much depends on the way in which pumpkins are in the first place cooked. The pumpkin selected should be a good one, and be prepared in the morning and cooked all day. A little salt should be added while cooking. It must not be allowed to burn. When done it should be immediately removed from the vessel it has been cooked in. The flavour will be spoiled if it be allowed to cook in an iron vessel. After preparing the pumpkin in this way take for six pies twelve tablespoonfuls of pumpkin, four eggs, eight tablespoonfuls of sugar and six cups of new milk; season to taste—some prefer cinnamon. If the pumpkin be not rich and good, more sugar and eggs are required to bring the richness to the required standard.
