

TORONTO S. S. LIBRARY,

NO. 5.

One Hundred Volumes for $25.00 net,

PUT UP IN A NEAT WOODEN CASE,

Consisting of books by the following authors:—Emma Marshall, Mary Howitt, B. E. Wright C. A. Wilkinson, Glance Gaylord, J. J. Porchatt, Mrs. O'Reilly, T. Taylor, Anna H. Drury, L. N. Comyn, Frances Lee, Mrs. Betham, W. H. G. Kingston, Miss Chesebro', W. S. Urmey, Aunt Emily; and by the authors of "Jessica's First Prayer," "Books of Blessing," "Meadowside Stories," and "Jessie Books," &c.

Containing over 15,600 Pages and 300 Illustrations. Sold only in Sets.

- | | |
|--|---|
| Jessie Says So. | Grace Hall. |
| Jessie a Pilgrim. | Little Harry's Troubles. |
| Jessie's Golden Rule. | Stories about the Little Ones. |
| Jessie's Place. | More Stories about the Little Ones. |
| Daisy's Home. | The Fisher Boy's Secret. |
| Daisy's Cousin. | Archie and his Sisters. |
| Daisy's Visit to Henwood. | Archie and Nep. |
| May Days at the Cliffords'. | Alone in London. |
| Josey the Runaway. | Kitty Swindon's Text. |
| Irish Jem's Three Trials. | Happy Half-Hours. |
| Bob the Bootblack. | John Oriel's Start in Life. |
| Trial of Obedience. | Willie and Lucy at the Sea-side. |
| The Little Black Hen. | Home Life at Greystone Lodge. |
| The Two School Girls. | Christmas at Sunberry Dale. |
| Martha's Hymn. | Harry Weston's Battles. |
| Gertrude and her Cat. | Nellie, Connie, and Silas. |
| The Prince in Disguise. | About Common Wonders. |
| The Carpenter's House. | Parables of Animals. |
| The Rose in the Desert. | Traps to Catch Foxes. |
| Althea. | Helen and her Sisters. |
| Stories from Aunt Deborah's Drawer. | On a Candlestick |
| Lonely Lily. | Charity's Birthday Text. |
| Clarie's Little Charge | Little Bessie, and How she Kept the Wolf from |
| Nellie Rodney's Sorrows. | Herbert's First Year at Bramford. [the Door. |
| Frankie and his Friends. | Motherless Meg. |
| The Little Missionary. | My Little Friends. |
| The Wood-Carvers. | Katie's Work. |
| Allice Leigh's Mission. | The Two Buns. |
| Real Robinson Crusoes. | Elsie and Gatty. |
| A Home Tour with Aunt Bessie. | Charlotte and her Enemy. |
| Little Gregg and the Tinker's Letter. | The Three Half-Dollars. |
| Meadowside; or, Aunt Grace and Dora. | Paul's Mountain Home. |
| Sally Grafton and her Teacher. | Harry and Phil. |
| The Book. A Story of the Mountains. | The Little Medicine-Carrier. |
| Faithful Lina. The Story of Three Swiss Orphans. | The Fishermen of Camp's Island. |
| Katie and her Mother; or, The Widow's Trust. | The Story of May. |
| Victor; or, Paris Troubles and Provence Roses. | The Fisherman's Children. |
| Good Daughters; or, The Sea-shore and the | Woodbury Farm. |
| Anton, the Peasant Boy. [Cottage. | The Log-House by the Lake. |
| Maggie Fuller. | Charles Russell. |
| The China Cup. | Willie's Lesson. |
| Miss Howard's School. | Willie Trying to be Manly. |
| The Boy Artist. | Willie Trying to be Thorough. |
| Great Things Done by Little People. | Willie Wishing to be Useful. |
| Matty's Hungry Missionary Box. | Willie Seeking to be a Christian. |
| Motherless Martha's Home. | Ernest; or, No Humbug. |
| Hope On; or, The House that Jack Built. | Rachel; or, The City Without Walls. |
| Little Aggie's Fresh Snow-drops. | Christie; or, Where the Tree Fell. |
| Brook Silverten. | Faith, the Cripple. |
| The Lost Lilies. | Jessie Ross. |

WILLIAM BRIGGS,

78 and 80 King St. E., Toronto; or, Montreal Book Room, 3 Steuy St., Montreal.