THE NEW YEAR.

The Jubilee Year of the Apostleship of Prayer is merged with the past. How few of the millions who, even as little children, have had their share in the great celebration will live to see the hundredth anniversary of the League in 1944! But with what satisfaction will not the few, who will have reached that term, look back upon the half century, provided they have remained faithful to the Sacred Heart and members of the Holy League.

One by one, we, who are advanced in years, shall fall out of the ranks of that vast army. But others will take our places, and the great body will go on advancing to the conquest of the hearts of all men through the love of Jesus Christ.

To-day, on the threshold of this new era, we hesitate, even as a New Year's greeting, to wish the little ones so
