Prob-ably No other railway in the Northwest has been more prompt to adopt every invention which promised to add to the convenience and comfort of its patrons, than The North-Western Line. A journey over this route, especially between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago, has become a pleasure, and is entirely free from the annoyances and discomforts so long inseparably connected with journeys by rail.—The Argus, Fargo, N.D.
