We wish especially to invite the attention of readers of The Canadian Magazine to this edition of the Great Encyclopædia Britannica and our special prices and terms. There is no doubt about the desirability of this unrivalled Library of Useful Knowledge. Every progressive home and individual should possess the best possible means of obtaining information. Knowledge we must have if we would keep pace with this progressive age. The question is not should we buy books, but what books should we buy. We say Britannica, and why?

- FIRST—Because of its wide range of subjects—250,000 in all.
- SECOND—Because of the thorough manner in which these subjects are treated.
- THIRD—Because these subjects were written on by the ablest scholars and specialists of the age.
- FOURTH—Because the INDEX is so arranged that you can get an IDEA in a few lines.
- FIFTH—Because the GUIDE TO SYSTEMATIC READING enables you to take up and complete a thorough course of reading on sixty-six different lines.
- SIXTH—Because they are handsomely and substantially bound, have good clear type and are fully illustrated.
- SEVENTH—Because it is the Only Complete Condensed Library in the world and the best source of information for old or young.
- EIGHTH—Because our prices are very low and terms easy.
