A MODEST REQUEST.

"I hear you're so clever about Zenana work. Will you show me the stitch?"—Punch.

Mr. Douglas Sladen, whose "Japs at Home" is going through a third thousand since last October only, besides the Austral and Indian editions, is now preparing, for Mr.
Horace Cox, a similar work on Canada, which is appearing in the Queen, and will later on be republished in book form. This book will conduct the reader right through Canada, from Halifax to Victoria.Among the features will be Nova Scotia, the home of Evangeline;
New Brunswick and the United Empire Loyalists; Quebec; St.
Anne's (P.Q.), where Tom Moore once lived; and very many other bright features. Mr. Sladen knows Canada intimately, and we may predict for this work even more success than that achieved by "Japs at Home."
