

ARTICLE VI

1. The Agreement shall enter into force upon notification to the United States by all Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty that they are bound by the terms of the Agreement.

2. If any other State becomes a Party to the North Atlantic Treaty no information made available to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization under this Agreement will be provided to any person who is a national of, or who is employed by, the new Party to the North Atlantic Treaty until the new Party has notified the Government of the United States of America that it is bound by the terms of this Agreement, and upon such notification, this Agreement will enter into force for the new Party.

3. The Government of the United States of America will inform all Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty of the entry into force of this Agreement under paragraph 1 of this Article and of each notification received under paragraph 2 of this Article.

4. This Agreement shall be valid as long as the North Atlantic Treaty is in force.

In witness whereof the undersigned Representatives have signed the present Agreement on behalf of their respective States, members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and on behalf of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Done at Paris this 22nd day of June 1955, in the English and French languages, both texts being equally authoritative, in a single original which shall be deposited in the Archives of the Government of the United States of America. The Government of the United States of America shall transmit certified copies thereof to all the signatory and acceding States.

(Here follow the names of the signatories for the Kingdom of Belgium, Canada, the Kingdom of Denmark, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Kingdom of Greece, Ireland, Italy, the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Kingdom of Norway, Portugal, Turkey, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.)
