Sport and Politics

MORSE, E.

Eric Morse joined the Department of External Affairs in 1973. Since 1974, he has held the position of International Sports Liaison Officer at the Department's headquarters in Ottawa. In this capacity he has been intimately involved with preparations for such major events as the 1974 Canada/USSR Hockey Series, the 1976 Canada Cup of Hockey, the Montreal Olympics, the 1978 Commonwealth Games in Edmonton, and with the situation which led up to the boycott of the Moscow Olympics. He is thus able to provide a detailed and stimulating view of an aspect of sport which has been rarely noticed until very recently, from the point of view of a "working diplomat".
